Mr. Phelps, the president of the Phelps Photo Co., will be in Valentine soon to make photos in the old Halldorsen studio. As this firm has a state wide reputation for good work they need no recommendation to our people. 11

The Citizens caucus was called for Tuesday night and nominated W. S. Barker and Dr. Compton for the two-year term, and J. T. Keeley for the one-year term. Charles Sparks was chosen chairman and Will Morrissey secretary. A. M. Morrissey, H. W. Hoening and W. T. Kincaid were appointed as a committee to fill vacancies should any occur.

The following is the menu for the Presbyterian aid supper at the home of Mrs. Henry Hoening on Tuesday, March 22:

Stewed Chicken with Gravy
Hot Biscuit
Mashed Potatoes Baked Beans

The agricultural experiment station was located at Valentine last Friday and John Cowan was selected as superintendent and is now here in charge of the 1060 acres secured from the Ft. Niobrara military reservation for this purpose. Buildings will be erected about one-half mile east of town. The Democrat will have more to say on this subject next week.

Mrs. Charles Sparks entertained the card club at an "Irish Wake" at her home Wednesday. The house was decorated with "spuds" and green shades and beautiful potato portiers hung between the dining room and parlor. Two potato stunts, one finding the greatest number of hidden potatoes was won by Nettie Barker; another, a potato peeling contest, was won by Mrs. Kincaid. A delightful green lunch was served by three beautiful Irish maids in costume. Card honors were won by Mesdames Hoening and Chapman.

SCHOOL NOTES

Herlan Pfeifer entered the third grade this week.

Mrs. A. Sherman visited the freshman room Monday.

Kathern and Bessie Howe have returned from an absence of three weeks.

The fourth and fifth grades are committing a number of pretty quotations.

The seventh and eighth grade basketball team are practicing hard for field day.

The eighth grade boys are going to organize a baseball team. Then watch them play.

The children of the fourth and fifth grades are learning to sing and recite "America."

The high school orchestra, glee club and quartet will furnish music for the debate Saturday evening.

Several pupils of the grammar room have taken up the seventh book on penmanship and are greatly improving.

Ella Kennealy and Gladys Jackson have re-entered the freshman class. We hope they will be able to remain with us now.

The plane geometry class have completed proportion. The class made an average of 92 in the test on variation and proportion last week.

The agriculture class have completed the grading of seed corn. Fifty per cent was allowed for the ear as a whole, the shape, size, butt, tip and rows each taken into consideration; fifty per cent was given the kernels, the color, shape, indentation, space, and germ being considered. This week the same corn is being tested by sprouting. This furnishes very interesting and profitable study.

On Saturday evening, March 19, in the opera house, will occur the debate between O'Neill and Valentine on the question: "Resolved That Labor Unions are on the Whole Beneficial." Valentine affirms the question, the speakers being Marie Christensen, Hazel Graham and Raymond Jones.

A number of the teachers and pupils of the high school at O'Neill will accompany the visiting team. The debate promises to be exceedingly interesting and an unusually large crowd is anticipated.

The high school was privileged to have a visit from Chancellor Avery and Regent Copeland of the state university, in company with Mr. Nicholson, last Friday afternoon. These gentlemen spent some time visiting the various rooms after which the high school met in the assembly room and listened to addresses by Chancellor Avery and Mr. Copeland. The latter spoke most entertainingly on the possibilities of our section of the state and dwelt on the necessity of education if we would be able to attain the best, even in the agricultural field. Chancellor Avery's address was inspiring and given largely to a consideration of the possibilities of the Nebraska youth.

Why it Pays To use CALUMET

THE CHEAP and Big Can Kind

In this can you get more substance but not more baking powder. It is great in quantity only—not in economy—not in satisfaction.

INSTEAD OF CHEAP AND BIG CAN BAKING POWDER

You simply cannot get as good results from the cheap and big can kind—the baking cannot be as evenly raised—it cannot be as delicious—it cannot be as pure and wholesome—because the quality is not there. And it cannot be any more economical. Calumet is medium in price—the standard 1-lb. size can costs 25c. Less of it is required and the baking is certain to be better. Try one can—if not satisfactory your money will be returned. Calumet Received Highest Award—World's Pure Food Exposition. FREE—large handsome recipe book. Send 4c and slip found in pound can.

They suit you or cost nothing. 10 2
