WESTERN CANADA

Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, says:
The stream of emigrants from the United States to Canada will continue.
Senator Dolliver recently paid a visit to Western Canada, and says: "There is a land hunger in the hearts of English speaking people for the removal of so many from the United States to Canada. Our people are pleased with its Government and its administration of law, and they are coming to you in tens of thousands, and they are coming to stay."

The average daily mail received at the White House is, of course, very large. The President cannot, it follows, read these letters as an ordinary business man reads his morning mail, but by a carefully developed system their contents are in substance presented to him, an exchange says. A corps of confidential clerks open the letters and give them a first reading. They are then carefully sorted. Many of them do not need to go to the President, as they are simply recommendations for office. Those, after being courteously acknowledged, are referred to the proper departments, and placed on file there until the subject to which each of them relates can be taken up for consideration. Many of the letters are purely formal, or contain requests for something which cannot be granted. These the clerks answer and the President's secretary signs. The requests for charity are so many that a special "form" has been devised to be used in answering them. They are all alike necessarily and politely refused. All letters which the President ought to see are carefully briefed—that is, a slip is pinned at the top of each letter, and on this is a typewritten synopsis of its contents, telling who the writer is and what he has to present. Frequently the President is sufficiently interested by the brief to cause him to read the whole letter. Sometimes the communication is referred to a cabinet officer, in which case the slip is retained at the White House and filed away. When a large amount of persons write on the same subject the letters are bunched, and the brief at the top gives the names of those who present one argument, and in another list the persons who offer a different view. This is an admirable way of "jumping at conclusions," made necessary by the excessive burdens of the presidential office.

Tragedy of the Deep. Suddenly there was a wild shriek. The passengers on the lower deck caught a momentary glimpse of a dark object falling swiftly from above. They rushed to the side of the boat and gazed in horror at a woman's hat bobbing up and down on the rapidly receding waves. It was all they could see. Where was the woman? Up on the hurricane deck of the steamer, bare headed, and wringing her hands in despair. It was her only traveling hat, and had cost her $2.98.

The opinion of officials in the census bureau at Washington is said to be that the population of the country as a whole will be found to approximate 90,000,000. If the same rate of increase, however, has been maintained in the last ten years as prevailed in the preceding ten the population will reach 93,000,000. There are experts who figure that even a bigger rate of increase will be found to have occurred and who declare that the number of inhabitants of the United States will be discovered to be particularly close to the 100,000,000 mark. If these optimists are right, the nation's population has jumped ahead about 24,000,000 in ten years. At the last census the population was 76,000,000, an increase of about 14,000,000 over the census of 1890.

An array of counsel greater in number and more noted than ever assembled at The Hague to engage in the trial of a special case has been retained to represent America and Great Britain in the determination of what is undoubtedly the most important issue ever presented to the great peace tribunal. Arguments will be begun on June 1. Technically this is the determination of differences which have arisen between the two governments as to the true intent of the provisions of the treaty of 1818 defining the fishing rights of Americans and Canadians in their respective waters.

For the corresponding period of 1908-09 the value of the commodities was $687,794,128.

He Hoped Not.
"So you're a fugitive from justice, are you?"
"Thunder, no!" exclaimed the hunted man, turning red with indignation. "It's a suburban constable that's after me!"

His Hands Cracked Open.
"I am a man seventy years old. My hands were very sore and cracked open on the insides for over a year with large sores. They would crack open and bleed, itch, burn and ache so that I could not sleep and could do but little work. They were so bad that I could not dress myself in the morning. They would bleed and the blood dropped on the floor. I called on two doctors, but they did me no good. I could get nothing to do any good till I got the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. About a year ago my daughter got a cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and in one week from the time I began to use them my hands were all healed up and they have not been a mite sore since. I would not be without the Cuticura Remedies."
"They also cured a bad sore on the hand of one of my neighbor's children, and they think very highly of the Cuticura Remedies. John W. Hasty, So. Effingham, N. H., Mar. 5 and Apr. 11, '09."

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness, is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

GERMANY AND CANADIAN WHEAT.

Looks to the Canadian West for Her Supply.
A dispatch from Winnipeg, Manitoba, dated March 18, 1910, says that Germany is "anxious to secure a share of Canadian wheat to supply her imports of that cereal." The recent adjustment of the trade relations with Germany has made it possible to carry on a Canadian-German trade with much fewer restrictions than in the past, and considerable development of trade between the two countries is now certain. The great men of the United States are alive to the wheat situation in this country now, and there is consequently the deepest interest in every feature that will tend to increase and conserve the wheat supply. With its present 650,000,000 bushel production of wheat and all efforts to increase it almost unavailing, and the rapidly growing consumption of its increasing population, there is certainly the greatest reason for the anxiety as to where the wheat is to come from that will feed the nation. The United States will be forced as Germany is to look to the wheat-fields of Canada. One province alone raised last year one-eighth as much as the entire production of the United States, and but a twelfth of the wheat area has yet been touched. The Americans who have gone to Canada, are today reaping the benefit of the demand for Canadian wheat and they will continue to join in the benefits thus reached for a great many years. Splendid yields are reported from the farms of that country, and from land that have been purchased at from $12 to $15 an acre. John Munter, near Eyebrow, Saskatchewan, a former resident of Minnesota, says:
"Last fall got over 30 bushels of wheat to the acre and had 30 acres of it; also 20 acres spring breaking on which I had flax of which I got almost 20 bushels per acre. Had 20 acres in oats and got 70 bushels per acre, and 500 bushels potatoes on one and three-quarter acres, and can therefore safely say that I had a fine crop and am well satisfied with my homestead."

He is considered but a small farmer, but he will be one of the big farmers, some of these days. There are many others, hundreds of others, whose yields were beyond this, and whose average under crop was vastly greater. The story of the experience of American farmers in the Canadian West is a long one. The time to go, would appear to be now, when splendid selections may be made, and where land can be purchased at prices that will be doubled in a couple of years.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM...it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

AN UP-TO-DATE STOVE

Do you realize there is no longer any reason why you should use a coal range? Oil is cheaper than coal; it is lighter and easier to handle, and gives an intense heat. Provided you have the right stove, oil is more economical, cleaner and less trouble. Have you seen the

New Perfection Oil Cook-stove

The accompanying illustration gives you only a rough idea of its appearance. You really can't appreciate it until you either use it yourself, or talk to someone who has used it. It does everything that a coal range will do—except heat the room. The New Perfection Oil Cook-stove will do anything, from heating a kettle of water to cooking a course dinner, but it won't heat a room. It doesn't "smell," it doesn't smoke. It can't get out of order. Light it and it is ready. Turn it down and it is out. Only a woman who knows the trouble of carrying coal and cooking in a hot kitchen can appreciate what it means to have a clean, perfect stove that will cook anything, boil, bake or roast, and yet won't heat the kitchen. How is it done? The flame is controlled in turquoise-blue enamel chimneys, and directed against the bottom of pot, pan, kettle or oven, and only there. The flame operates exactly where it is needed—and nowhere else. With this stove your kitchen is cool.

The nickel finish with the bright blue of the chimneys makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

The Overland The King of Cars

No other car has so large a sale—none has made such amazing records. Price, $1,000 up.

It requires four factories, employing 4,000 men—turning out 140 Overlands daily—to meet the flood-like demand for these cars. Yet two years ago a hundred rivals had a larger sale.

The reason lies largely in the car's utter simplicity. Its able designer made it almost trouble-proof.
He created an engine which, for endurance, is the marvel of engineering. He designed the pedal control. One goes forward or backward, slow or fast, by merely pushing pedals. The hands have nothing to do but steer.

A child can master the car in ten minutes. A novice can drive it a thousand miles without any thought of trouble.

The Overland always keeps going, and almost cares for itself. All the usual complexities have been eliminated.
That is why each car sells others, and our orders for this year's Overlands amount to $24,000,000.

$1,000 to $1,500.—According to size, style and power.
