The mission at the Catholic church last week was well attended by Catholics from all parts of the county. The Reverend Fathers, John J. Donohoe and Simon A. Ryan, S. J., of Chicago assisted Father Blaere in conducting the services.

A memorial program was given in the high school Monday, attended by the old soldiers and following, all went in autos and wagons to the cemetery to decorate. Rev. Caldwell preached a memorial sermon at the Presbyterian church Sunday, with the old soldiers as guests.

Rev. Father Leo M. Blaere expects to depart Friday night for New York, where he will take the steamer for his old home at Kortrijk, Belgium, to visit his mother and sisters, whom he has not seen for a number of years. He will also attend "The Passion Play" at Oberammergau, Bavaria, while in Europe, and expects to be gone about three months. The Fathers of St. Francis Mission will have charge of the parish here during Father Blaere's absence.

John M. Roan of Woodlake and Miss Eda V. Broad of Britt, were married at 2:00 p. m., May 12, 1910, at the St. Nicholas church, the Rev. Father Blaere officiating. Mr. Roan is too well known in this part of the county to need comment. Suffice it to say that he is still a young man, engaged in the ranch business southwest of Woodlake, and, by fair dealing, industry and sociability has made many friends, besides accumulated a competence. Miss Broad is one the Cherry county teachers and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Broad, living 12 miles northwest of Valentine.

Stetter—Fischer.

Wednesday, June 1, at eight o'clock, occurred the marriage of Miss Anna Stetter and Mr. Frank Fischer, jr., Rev. W. W. Wells performing the marriage ceremony.

Miss Margaret Haley presided at the organ.

Miss Caroline Stetter acted as bridesmaid, and the groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Roscoe Fischer.

Only relatives were present. Autos took the bridal party to the home of the bride's parents, the newly married pair taking the 10:30 train for Chicago.

Notice of Hearing.

To all persons interested in the estate of Tom H. Coleman, late of Cherry county, Nebraska, deceased.

You are hereby notified that on the 25th day of May, A. D. 1910, E. D. Clarke filed a petition in the county court of Cherry county, Nebraska, praying that administration in said above estate be dispensed with, and that the probate court make a final decree naming the heirs of the decedent, and that said petition will be heard in the county court room in Valentine, in said county, on the 11th day of June, A. D. 1910, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m.

It is further ordered that notice of said hearing be given to all persons interested in said estate by the publication of this notice for three successive weeks in the Valentine Democrat, a newspaper printed and published and circulated in county.

Dated this 20th day of May, A. D. 1910.
JAMES C. QUIGLEY, County Judge.

[SEAL] 20 3

Last week a day operator at Cody, A. H. McShever, who had been there a short time, imbibed too freely of the cup that cheered him, going into the Cody hotel kitchen and raising a disturbance. When ordered out by one of the girls he slapped her and brandished a revolver in her face. The cashier ordered him out and he called her vile names, pointed a gun at her head and threatened to shoot her full of holes. His abuse was endured until the landlady arrived home. She applied to the justice of the peace, F. Kemp Heath, to get papers served on the outlaw and hold him in custody until the sheriff could arrive from Valentine, but the justice of the peace didn't act in any way.

When Deputy Sheriff Francke arrived some persons hid the outlaw away, but he re-appeared after the sheriff left, brave and fearless, as before. Complaint was made to the railroad officials, who reported him and he was immediately discharged.
