Geo. Herrick's little 4 or 5 year old boy was run over by a wagon about ten days ago upon which he had been riding, and rolled off with a sack of corn, the hind wheel running over the sack and the boy beside it. The boy was badly hurt.

Chas. Reece was in from Simeon last Friday. He tells us that his wife and her sister, Miss Cora Thackrey, returned the week previous from a two week's visit at their former home in Manhattan, Kansas. They had a family reunion, all the brothers and sisters being present excepting Ed. and Frank.

Harold Kuskie and wife came to town Sunday from a visit with Geo. Ladely's and the Kime families. They are stopping at Mr. Laport's for a few days because of Roy Kuskie having the measles, and is making his home this summer at the farm with Harold, south of Sparks, until Roy recovers. He prefers to keep away.

J. F. Naylor, of Merriman, filed on the democratic ticket for county commissioner last week. Mr. Naylor is a man of splendid qualifications educationally, and is highly recommended by his friends who have induced him to file his name for the office. We hope to get better acquainted with him personally, but we are assured that Mr. Naylor will take an active interest in the work and together with our two remaining commissioners, Rowley and Adamson, will make a strong and well balanced body to do the county's business.
