A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Frederick W. Wednesday afternoon we had quite a hard electric storm. M. Isenhart's house was struck by lightning, the phone being torn from the wall, and plastering and paper torn off at the northwest corner and then it ran across the roof to the southeast corner and took off the plastering there. The shingles were set on fire but this was soon put out and no serious harm was done. This might have been a serious accident as Mr. and Mrs. Sales were in the house at the time the bolt struck, but fortunately neither were hurt.

When we arrived at church Sunday evening we found the church dark and Rev. Carpenter there without a match, and no one there to even tell him the cause of this. We know the train was late but Mr. Carpenter had driven from Johnstown, ten miles, to hold his regular services and if he will drive that distance after 6 o'clock to "keep his word" we surely ought to try to at least have our church lighted. Even though Mr. Carpenter should be unable to get here it would look much better for us to go and have a little meeting ourselves rather than have this occur again. Come now, citizens. We have a nice church and plenty of people to take part in church work. Let us do better hereafter.
