F. J. WILSEY, Auctioneer

Box 826 Rosebud, South Dakota

In The District Court of Cherry County Nebraska.

In the matter of the estate of Sarah Woodson, deceased. Order to show cause. The case came on for hearing upon the petition of P. W. C. Lawson, executor of the estate of Sarah Woodson, deceased, praying for license to sell lot (18) Block (5) of the original village of Valentine, Nebraska. The sale to be made for the purpose of payment of the expenses of administration and that the residue may be divided among the heirs, and the estate finally settled up. It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in the said estate appear before me at Valentine, Nebraska, on the sixth day of December, A. D. 1910, at 9 o'clock a. m., to show cause why a license should not be issued to the said executor, for the purpose above mentioned. J. J. HARRINGTON, Judge of the District Court. C. A. RUBY, Attorney.

Mrs. Pat Peiper was in town Tuesday.

Charlotte Hanna has been on the sick list this week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Iott, last Friday a fine boy.

Mrs. T. L. Tinkham and daughter, Mrs. McVey, were business callers Monday.

Burnice Dower missed school Monday owing to the illness of her brother-in-law, Mr. Plum.

Miss Grace Waggoner, who is teaching near Sparks, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her parents.

Elvina Tische has been on the sick list the past week. We hope she will soon be well and back in school again soon.

Mr. Emery and wife came in Sunday, the latter returning home Monday and the former remained to build a house on Mrs. Latta's homestead.

Miss Jennie Dew is spending a couple of weeks at home. Her school, having been closed, on account of the children of the neighborhood having the measles.

G. Welkers, have again moved to town in order to send their children to school. We are glad to have them back again. If there are any more pupils to enter school we hope they will do so at once as they will be hardly able to keep up in their grade if they enter so late in the term.

Another death, also occurred the night previous to Dick Groves' death. Mr. Layton, south of town died at his home Sunday night. He was quite an old man from what has been learned and we are sorry to be unable to give any of the particulars. The deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones. The funeral was held in the church Tuesday and the remains were laid to rest in the Woodlake cemetery.

Dick, the third son of Jake Groves and wife, died at the parental home Monday morning. The funeral was held in the church Wednesday. Dick was only about 15 years old. Such a young life taken away it seems so sad that one just entering early manhood should be called "home" but "His will be done," and may He comfort the loved ones left to mourn his untimely death. The community extends the deepest sympathy to his mother, father, sisters and brothers.

HILDA THE HELPER

III.—She Booms the Town

Hilda the Helper settled down exactly as she uses, except that for her native town henceforth she was a booster.

SHE BOOMED THE BURG IN EVERY WAY; she praised it, tongue and letter; she strove with each succeeding day to make the village better.

She lent her aid to every cause that was in need of aiding. SHE WENT AHEAD WITHOUT A PAUSE, and work was never jading.

Contest Notice.

U. S. Land Office, Valentine, Nebraska, October 15, 1910. A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Michael W. Meade, contestant, against Homestead entry, serial No. 04714, made July 9, 1909, for all of Section 35 Township 29N, Range 22W of 6 P. M., by Ira Knite, contestant, in which it is alleged that said Ira Knite has abandoned his homestead entry for more than six months last past; that the land is now in its wild native state and that claimant maintains a home elsewhere than on said tract; that there are no improvements or mark habitation and that all the above alleged defects exist at this date and have not been cured. Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond, and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m., on November 23, 1910, before John H. Welton, U. S. Commissioner, at his office in Muller, Nebraska, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m., on November 30, 1910, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Valentine, Nebraska.

Said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed October 15, 1910, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

E. OLSON, Receiver, Record address of entryman Loyal, Nebraska.

Avoid Caustic and Acid Use Old Dutch Cleanser

This handy, all-round Cleanser is entirely free from caustic, acid and alkali; it is hygienic, cleans mechanically, not chemically. It is not only the safest, but also the easiest and quickest cleanser ever discovered for Cleaning, Scrubbing, Scouring, Polishing

It is the only cleanser to use on milk-pails, pans, separators and on all cooking utensils. Use it for all cleaning throughout the house.

How to Clean Windows The Best Way—Sprinkle Old Dutch Cleanser on a cloth or sponge, just dampened sufficiently to hold the powder, without dusting, and apply to the glass, rubbing briskly. Then polish with a dry cloth and a very little Old Dutch Cleanser.

If the above directions are followed excellent results will be secured with less work than by ordinary methods, or with other articles.
