When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by Chapman, the druggist.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by Chapman, the druggist.

W. B. Grace, for the past year clerk in his father's hotel, is now working for the railroad company in the freight and express depot at Long Pine.

Martin Becker departed Monday evening for a visit with his brother in Minnesota, and from there may visit a sister in Ohio before returning home.

It's too late to say so but we forgot to mention that A. H. Stees returned the day before election from a visit with relatives in St. Paul, Minn.

H. H. Wakefield of Crookston was in town Monday and informs us that he purchased another quarter section of land 1 1/2 miles from his other place.

We want correspondents from every important locality in the country where news items will not be duplicated. Send us the news and subscriptions to the paper. We want 200 more subscribers which will make nearly 1200 copies per week. Send us the news of your locality.

T. W. Cramer reports the Wm. Grooms sale last Tuesday a success. Everything sold and the auctioneer didn't try to stop the bidding, but took off the lid and cows went as high as $62.00, and yearling heifers as high as $30.00. The sale amounted to over $2,000. Max E. Viertel was clerk of the sale in place of Haley.

Frank Carroll went back to Iowa Sunday night to attend the wedding of his sister, Miss Katie Carroll, who was married Tuesday. Valentine people have kindly remembrances of Miss Carroll and we join with friends here in hearty congratulations and wish her and the husband she has chosen a prosperous and happy life's journey.

Stinislav Krajewski of Nenzel brought his son Edward to Valentine last Saturday to have his teeth fixed by Dentist Meer and called at our office to say hello and tell us that he had four cattle die in the stalk field a few days ago, which is the first he ever lost in that way and he has been here 22 years. He wants to warn people who have stalk fields to keep the cattle out, as he thinks there is danger this year. If they must turn into the stalks do not leave them in over an hour a day.

We wish to call the attention of our readers to the whole page advertisement of the Red Front Merc. Co., on the fifth page of this paper. This is perhaps the largest, most complete and comprehensive advertisement ever printed in a local paper in this city. The subject matter was arranged by Mr. Fred A. Busse of the dry goods department, whose thorough acquaintance with this line of goods and the shoe department assures the public of valuable assistance in selecting what they need. Mr. Busse has had 16 years experience in handling general merchandise, advertising and window trimming. He was born and received his education and some of his experience in Chicago, but prefers the smaller towns to the big city. His name and initials are the same as the present mayor of Chicago, but he assures us that he is not the mayor, though by chance they bear the same name. Mr. Busse's intentions will be to learn the wants of the people of Valentine and surrounding country and to supply them with all the latest, as well as a complete line of staple dry goods, footwear and wearing apparel.

School Notes.

Mabel Ricketts of Eli entered the high school this week.

Grace Fast of the Juniors is spending her vacation at her home near Johnstown.

Blanche and Ballard Hutchison are enjoying turkey at home in Keya Paha county.

County Supt., Mrs. Story, went down to Lincoln Tuesday to attend the association.

Nearly all the out of town high school students have gone home this week to enjoy the annual festival.

The sophomores gave a "Lady of the Lake" program Tuesday afternoon which was highly appreciated.

Misses Carlson and VanDriel of the high school faculty are in Lincoln attending the state teachers' meeting.

The new texts in physical geography are fine and up to date. The freshmen are getting a more thorough knowledge of the subject because of them.

The air of thoughtfulness and reflection that is so apparent about every high school student this week means that they are in the midst of a rigid examination. But thoroughness has been so characteristic of every study that failures will be few.

The enrollment for this month is as follows:

Miss Gordon's room.....	58
Miss Nelson's room.....	53
Miss Driscoll's room.....	49
Miss Carroll's room.....	37
Mrs. Miller's room.....	42
High school.....	75

A House Warming.

One of the most enjoyable socials of the season occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Faulhaber on the evening of the 11th of November. It was in the form of a real house warming, Mr. Faulhaber having just completed a handsome cement house, with all the modern conveniences. The house contains ten rooms and two halls, three porches and a large basement, in which is situated the furnace. The house is lighted throughout with gas.

The evening was spent in dancing and social conversation. Music was furnished by Messrs. Pritchard, Farlow and Belsky. At midnight an excellent lunch was served, just such a one as women such as the estimable wife of Mr. Faulhaber are able to prepare. The lunch consisted of ham and bread and butter sandwiches, roast chicken, cheese, pickles, various kinds of cake, and coffee. The supper was served on plates and was passed time and again until the inner man (and woman also) was satisfied.

Dancing was again resumed and continued into the wee'sma hours of the morning, when all departed for their respective homes, thanking the host and hostess for one of the pleasantest times of their life, and hoping soon they would give another. Sixty-five persons were present.
