LUDWIG LUMBER CO.

John Simpson was in town the past week, shaking hands with old friends.

Miss Estella Nicholson came home last Friday night from Lincoln to spend Christmas, and returned Monday night.

Charles Brown is visiting in town this week. He is teaching school in the western part of the county near King postoffice.

Lost—On Nov. 29, black cloth cape, between Herman Tate's and Woodlake. Finder return to Woodlake postoffice and receive reward.

Benjamin Mickey, Miss Hanna, John West and sister, Mrs. Leo Morris, came up from Woodlake to take in the Workmen dance and visit friends in town.

Mrs. J. C. Quigley went down to Wahoo to visit home-folks Christmas, and the Judge thought he wouldn't be lonesome for a few days but gave up and joined his wife after a couple of lonesome days at home.

Services will be held in St. John's church on Sunday, Jan. 1, as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m., celebration of the holy eucharist and sermon at 11. Evensong at 7:30 p. m. Choir rehearsal Saturday evening at 7:30 p. m.

Miss Ethel Estes of Omaha came up Monday to visit her cousin, Mrs. I. M. Rice. She was fortunate in arriving in time for the A. O. U. W. dance, which she says she saw in THE DEMOCRAT of last week, and, taking the morning train, arrived here at 7:17 p. m.

Dick Zielian came in from Grand Junction, Colo., Tuesday evening and is visiting friends around town. Mrs. Zielian came last week and will return after a few days' visit. Dick looks as young as ten years ago and the people all know him here as he hasn't changed.

Not much adoin' now-a-days; not much for us to state. We guess they're all at home these days, to eat and celebrate. These Christmas times for news are dull, except to tell who's come, and where they eat until they're full, and where somebody's gone. A dance or two, a Christmas tree; we rack our brains to tell,—is not so easy, you'll agree,—who's sick and who is well. Then if someone we should forget, as oftentimes we must; they fail to think of our regret, but think we've gone to rust.—I. M. Rice.

Two four-room houses for rent, one with cellar.—I. M. Rice. tf

W. H. Ross, one of the Rosebud teachers, was in town yesterday.

Chester Wells came up from Creighton university of Omaha Friday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with home-folks and friends.

A New Year's dance will be given in Quigley's hall Saturday night, "New Year's Eve." Dancing will start at 8:30. Music by Fischer's orchestra.

Miss Maude Ralya, who is attending the Wesleyan university and Claude, who attends Creighton college of pharmacy, are home spending the holidays.

A box of black and white cigars fresh from Chapman's drug store was our Christmas treat and they're turning to ashes, but we're having the fun of lighting the matches and watching the beautiful rings of blue smoke.

Mrs. T. C. Hornby entertained the vested choir of St. John's church to a chafing dish party at her home Tuesday evening. Jigsaw puzzles and games occupied the young people during the evening and a most enjoyable time was spent by all.

Allan Gould spent Christmas in Valentine visiting his mother and old time friends. He returned to Omaha Monday evening to be in attendance at a banquet given there Tuesday evening for commercial travelers. Alan is now traveling salesman for the Nebraska Electrical Co. of Omaha.

W. D. Clarkson informs us that the ice on Lake Minnechadusa is about 11 inches thick and ice cutting will not be delayed much, though, usually at this time of year, it has seemed to be much colder. Perhaps it is our hot water heating plant that has caused us to think the weather was warm.

F. J. Wiltse of Rosebud was in town last Thursday to meet his brother, William C., who brought a car load of stuff to go onto his ranch, which included farm implements, harness, wagons, a registered jenny and colt, and the champion milch cow of Minnesota, so Mr. Wiltse says. He is going to try farming in this country as he thinks land ought to be farmed and is an enthusiastic stockman. He is a great talker and runs an advertisement in this paper as an auctioneer. He has had considerable experience in that line and we believe he's worth trying.
