PRECAUTIONS.

"I mustn't color my lips tonight, for I'm sure to sit out half a dozen dances with Charlie, and he's such a boy for kissing."

IF YOU WOULD BE WELL KEEP YOUR KIDNEYS WELL.

The kidneys filter the blood. When they are sick, the uric poison is retained and various troubles result. No kidney symptom, however slight, should be neglected. There is no better remedy for sick kidneys than Doan's Kidney Pills.

George Selder, 632 Pacific Ave., Alameda, Cal., says: "I could not lie on my side owing to the soreness over my kidneys. My limbs swelled badly and the flesh was soft and flabby. After beginning to use Doan's Kidney Pills, the swelling vanished and the pain in my back disappeared."

Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Bo'sun and Sir John Fisher. Admiral Potter told a new one on Sir John Fisher. When Sir John was at the head of the British admiralty he was most inaccessible. One day an old boatswain appeared. He would not take "no" for an answer. Finally a secretary went into Sir John's office, leaving the door ajar. He told the admiral that a sailor demanded an interview.

"Tell him to go to hell," roared Sir John. "Aye, aye, sir," piped the boatswain, who stood in the doorway at a respectful salute; "I know I'll meet you there, sir, but I want to talk to you now, too."

A Settler. Maud—Jack said when he proposed that he could give me only the necessities of life.

Ethel—And what did you say? Maud—I told him that one of the necessities of my life was a husband who could supply me with the luxuries.

If I were an inventor I would expend all my energies in trying to patent a collar button that would come when it was called.

CONSTIPATION

Munyon's Paw Paw Pills are unlike all other laxatives or cathartics. They coax the liver into activity by gentle methods. They do not scour; they do not gripe; they do not weaken; but they do start all the secretions of the liver and stomach in a way that soon puts these organs in a healthy condition and corrects constipation.

Munyon's Paw-Paw Pills are a tonic to the stomach, liver and nerves. They invigorate instead of weaken; they enrich the blood instead of impoverish it; they enable the stomach to get all the nourishment from food that is put into it.

These pills contain no calomel, no dope, they are soothing, healing and stimulating. They school the bowels to act without physic. Price 25 cents.

VERY USEFUL CAN OPENER

Contrivance That Takes Top Off Bottles and Has a Corkscrew Besides.

A can opener that is a regular cabinet of tools has been designed by a New York man. In addition to opening tin cans and boxes, this implement will remove the paper tops from milk bottles and the crown caps from beer bottles, take out the corks from mustard bottles and jars and draw the cork of any other kind of bottle. In general appearance the tool resembles most other can openers, but there is a spiked projection above the main blade and a hook in the rear of it. This upper spike is for lifting out milk bottle caps, which are often hard to get out with the fingers or a fork, and for extracting the flat corks, for which it is scarcely worth while to use a corkscrew. The corkscrew, by the way, is hinged to the tool and folds into the handle when not in use. The hook is for removing the caps from beer and soft-drink bottles. As a matter of fact, this implement is more of a bottle opener than a can opener.

EASILY WASHED AT HOME

Handkerchiefs With Careful Handling Can Be Made to Last Much Longer.

Delicate handkerchiefs can be done up easily at home, and careful handling causes them to wear much better. Wet them, rub each gently over with good white soap, and soak in tepid water overnight. Squeeze out (do not wring), put them in a small enameled pan, cover with cold water and half a teaspoonful of powdered borax. Boil slowly, pour into a basin, add cold water and squeeze out all soap.

Next immerse them in clear tepid water, rinse about in this; then plunge into cold water tinged with blue. Leave in this for half an hour, squeeze and dip into a slight stiffening (one teaspoonful of corn flour to a cupful of boiling water). Squeeze and roll carefully each handkerchief in a towel, and iron with a moderate-hot iron.

A Home-Made Present.

A row of hand-embroidered scalloped trim a corset cover is not an unacceptable gift for a friend. Just enough to apply to neck and armholes (but enough without a doubt) is a reasonable amount to make. Get handkerchief linen and stamp upon it tiny scallops, with an eyelet in each or in every alternate scallop, if simplicity is the point you strive for. This bit of handwork, perfectly padded, buttonholed, eyeleted and then cut out, pressed and mounted upon colored tissue paper, will not be scorned by the friend in need or the woman who never embroiders. It is entirely applicable to the next corset cover, and easily done at that.

Cider Pie.

Mix together one cup of sugar, two tablespoonfuls of flour, four tablespoonfuls boiled cider, one egg, one-half cup boiling water; stir all together and bake with one or two crusts.

No. 2.—One cup of sugar, one egg, yolk of one egg, one teaspoonful cloves, one teaspoonful cinnamon, one-half cup boiled cider, one-half cup water, one tablespoonful flour, pinch salt; bake with one crust.

Meringue—White of one egg, one tablespoonful sugar; return to oven and brown slightly.

Jumble Cake.

Two cups sugar and one cup butter creamed together with the hands. Add four eggs well beaten, one cup sweet milk, one teaspoon cream of tartar, one-half teaspoon soda, three cups sifted flour and one cup of chopped raisins and one cup chopped walnut meats. Spread in shallow tin about one-fourth inch thick (or little more), bake in quick oven (not too hot). When done remove from oven and sprinkle sugar over the top and sift grated nutmeg over the sugar. This flavors it. Set away to cool. Cut into squares.

Bread and Prune Pudding.

Soak a pound of prunes in warm water all day. Butter a baking dish and put in a layer of stale bread cut in thin slices and buttered a little, then a layer of stoned prunes, and so on until the dish is full, the last layer being bread. Beat two eggs with one-quarter cup of sugar, add a pint of milk, pour over the prunes and bread, and bake one hour.

TAKING THE HOPEFUL VIEW

Jury in Case of Man Charged With Stealing Ham Find Him Guilty Despite Brilliant Plea.

The prisoner's lawyer was addressing the jury. "Gentlemen," he said, "the attorney for the prosecution refers to my client as a 'double dyed villain.' That's what he is, gentlemen, and that's all he is! He is only a villain by reason of the dye—the double-dye, if you please—with which the infamously false testimony in this case has colored him! And those dyes are not fast colors; they will come out in the wash. I confidently look to your verdict, gentlemen of the jury, to remove those spurious stains from the character of a cruelly and unjustly persecuted man and reveal him as he really is, an upright, honest citizen, white as the driven snow!"

Thereupon the 12 jurors, good men and true, without leaving their seats, unanimously found the defendant guilty of stealing the ham.

In the Far West.

What is the cause of such uproarious mirth?" demanded the new arrival in the western town.

"Lot of motorists have arrived on a tour," explained Amber Pete, "and the cowboys are laughing at their funny-looking bearskin coats."

"And what are the motorists laughing at?"

"Oh, they are laughing at the cowboys' bearskin trousers."

Sorry He Asked. "Have you any special terms for automobilists?" asked the man in bearskin and goggles.

"Wal, yes," responded the old toll-gate keeper, whose gate had been broken down by speeding machines. "Sometimes I call them dead beats and sometimes I call them blamed rascals. Anything else you want to know, mister?"

DIFFERENT WAYS.

He—When a woman says no, she is always ready to be convinced.

She—Yes; and when a man says no, he only wants a little persuading to make him say: "I don't care if I do."

Not Always.

"Distance lends enchantment to the view," remarked the man with the quotation habit.

"It doesn't," objected the man with the quotation habit.

"It doesn't," objected the contrary person, "when you have to go the distance!"

Reputation Is Known.

"I say, a man of the same name as mine has just been run in for fraud by credit. Beastly awkward, you know."

"Don't alarm yourself, my dear fellow. Everybody knows you can't get money or credit at all."—Flegende Blatter.

All Off With Them.

"The Chinese government has issued an edict commanding all the Chinese to cut off their queues."

"But it has been a life-long custom with the Chinese to wear queues!"

"Well, they will be ex-queused from it from this time on."

After Her Gum.

"Why did you ask Miss Rich to change places with you at the dinner table?"

"I left my gum under her chair and I wanted to get it before we left the dining-room."

Almost a Necessity.

"I see where a writer says some snakes are useful."

"Trained biting snakes are very useful in prohibition territory."

SUBURBAN FEUD IS DEADLY

Pretty Little Garden Scratched Up by Neighbor's Chickens Causes Amusing Squabble.

"Yes," sighed the suburban man, who had just moved in, "at the place I've come from I had the prettiest little garden that ever bloomed until my neighbor's chickens scratched the roots up."

"And did you complain?" asked his new acquaintance.

"I retaliated. I got a big cat that soon made mincemeat of his chickens."

"What then?"

"Why, the next I knew he had bought a ferocious bulldog to watch for my cat."

"H'm! And did that end the trouble?"

"Oh, no! I borrowed a wolf from an animal trainer to kill the bulldog."

"Gracious me! What was the next chapter in the bitter feud?"

"There was none. I heard that he was about to purchase a tiger to kill my wolf, and, as I couldn't afford the price of an elephant to kill his tiger, I thought it best to move."

TAKING NO CHANCES.

Don—I see that President Taft attends baseball games.

Dorothy—They ought to let him umpire.

Don—He'd know better than to do that; he isn't ready to give up his job to the vice-president just yet.

Always Take Father's Advice.

"Why did you go home before quitting time last night and leave all that work to be done?"

"I thought it was quitting time."

"Thought it was quitting time? Why in blazes didn't you look at the clock?"

"My father told me that when I got a job I should never look at the clock."

Goats.

Rumor has it that Queen Wilhelmina will promote a goat colony in either Alabama or Pennsylvania.

We don't suppose the colonized goats will recognize any difference in states—there being no politics about a goat.

But, really, we can't take any stock in this goat story.

It sounds too much like a kid.

Not Yet.

"Well, now that you have succeeded in mounting to a greater height than any other aviator has reached," his wife begged, "won't you please give it up and be satisfied to rest on your honors?"

"My honors?" he replied. "I haven't won any honors yet. Nobody has given my name to a cigar."

Her Foolish Fear.

"The trouble is, dear," she said when he urged her to consent to be his at once, "that I am afraid I should not be able to live on your income."

"Oh, that's no reason for putting it off. Hardly any married man is able to get his wife to live on his income nowadays."

Doubly Thankful?

"Have a nice Thanksgiving this year, Uncle Josiah?"

"Hain't had a more thankfuller one, by heck, for ten year!"

"Don't say! City cousins up to share it with you, as usual, I suppose?"

"Nope!"—Brownings Magazine.

How It Happened.

"I understand that while in South America Puffkins ran his automobile into a tree at high speed. Was he seriously hurt?"

"Not so badly as he might have been. You see Puffkins ran into a rubber tree and bounced back."

Greater Love Than This, Etc.

"What would you do to prove your love for me?"

"Dearest, I will cook all your meals when we are married. But what will you do to prove your love for me?"

"I will eat the meals you cook."

The Bonds.

"So you wish," asked the father of the beautiful heiress, "to assume the bonds of matrimony?"

"Yes," replied the titled foreigner, "if you will guarantee that they will pay regular dividends."

And Puzzled Still. She (to student)—But what are you studying here?

Student—That's what I've been trying to discover for four terms.—Utk.

A Christmas Criticism. Orville Wright, discussing flying in New York, said to a reporter:

"The French claim to make the best machines, but our foreign order books tell a different story.

"Our foreign order books give the game away like the little Dayton boy at the Christmas treat. He got from the tree at this treat a pair of trousers, and, waving them around his head, he electrified the entire Sunday school by shouting in a loud and joyous voice:

"Oh, ma, these pants must be new. Pa never had a suit like that."

Malady Worth Having.

"I can't understand my husband, doctor; I am afraid there is something terrible the matter with him."

"What are the symptoms?"

"Well, I often talk to him for half an hour at a time and when I get through he hasn't the least idea what I've been saying."

"Don't worry any more about your husband. I wish I had his gift."—Stray Stories.

44 Bu. to the Acre

is a heavy yield, but that's what John Kennedy of Edmonton, Alberta, Western Canada, got from 60 acres of Spring Wheat in 1914. Reports from other districts in that province showed other excellent results—such as 100 bushels of wheat from 25 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of oats from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of corn from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of soybeans from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of clover from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of alfalfa from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of timothy from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of red clover from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of white clover from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of lucerne from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of vetch from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of sainfoin from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of alfalfa from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of timothy from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of red clover from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of white clover from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of lucerne from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of vetch from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of sainfoin from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of alfalfa from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of timothy from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of red clover from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of white clover from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of lucerne from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of vetch from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of sainfoin from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of alfalfa from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of timothy from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of red clover from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of white clover from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of lucerne from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of vetch from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of sainfoin from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of alfalfa from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of timothy from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of red clover from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of white clover from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of lucerne from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of vetch from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of sainfoin from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40,000 bushels of alfalfa from 100 acres, 25,000 and 40
