Otto Micheel was a business caller Saturday.

J. B. Leader visited at home a few days last week.

S. R. Reed was on the sick list a few days this week.

Theodore Vian has gone to Lincoln to attend school.

Chris Wooster was in from the Sawyer ranch one day last week.

Albert Holden came in from the Leader ranch after a load of freight.

Miss Bess Dillon of Ainsworth was the guest of Mrs. Edythe Latta recently.

Bud Klingaman is visiting at the parental and also made a business trip to Valentine.

Don Parker is quite ill of tonsillitis. It is hoped he may soon be in school again.

Chet Emery went home on account of the illness of his children who have measles.

Miss Norma Kirkman has returned to Newman Grove to enter upon her school duties.

Miss Birdie Fogg left Sunday night for her home in Valentine, after a two week's visit here with friends.

Miss Grace Waggoner left Saturday for Sparks where she began her school work after a two weeks vacation.

Mrs. D. A. Hancock went down to Ainsworth recently to have dental work done and visit her numerous friends.

Misses Ethel and Echo Ralya left Saturday for Sioux City to enter a music college. They expect to be gone until June.

S. R. Reed of Iowa attended the sale of the "21" ranch. Mrs. Reed was unable to accompany him as she had expected to do.

Nick Uck and wife and Wash Honey and wife left Friday night for Florida, where they expect to spend the greater part of the winter.

Hazel Klingaman is quite seriously ill at her home this week. Dr. Tische is attending her. She is somewhat improved at this writing.

Jack Hickman and family expect to leave in a few days for Arizona for the benefit of Mrs. Hickman's health. The best wishes of all go with them.

The son of Herman Bradinger and wife is very ill. They brought the little one to town Saturday and Dr. Tische is waiting on him. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Little Nile Latta is out of danger now. It was feared he might not recover but Dr. Tische soon brought him out of danger and he was able to sit up at the last report.

Roscoe Ward is greeting friends in Woodlake and visiting his sister, Mrs. Walter Tinkham. Roscoe says Woodlake looks good to him and especially one of our citizens (a lady).

We understand Geo. Dew and family are to soon depart for Gordon where they will reside in the future. We are sorry to lose these excellent citizens but wish them success in their new abode.

Prin. H. E. Paine was unable to enter upon his school duties Monday owing to illness. We have not learned what his illness is but are under the impression that it is quite serious as he is in the hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery. Miss Grady is teaching the high school. Mrs. Latta is also unable to be at her school duties owing to the illness of her little boy. Mrs. Andrew Johnson has kindly helped us out on this vacancy and Miss Hazel

Shannon has charge of Miss Grady's room.

Nellie, the second daughter of Rev. A. F. Cumbow and wife, died January 5, 1911, at her home twenty miles southwest of Wood Lake. Nellie had been in very poor health for several years and after much suffering has found sweet rest at last. The funeral was held at the church and the remains laid to rest in the Woodlake cemetery. The deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones in this sad hour.

Roy Klingaman and wife have left for a few weeks' visit with the latter's parents, Milt Latta and wife until Roy is able to walk about. Soon after their arrival at Hackberry, Mrs. Klingaman was taken sick and at last reports was very poorly. Dr. Compton was called Monday and she was resting easier when he left her. Roy is getting along nicely with his broken limb. We wish them both a speedy recovery.

ALL IS QU ET IN MEX CO

Official Dispatch Announces That Complete Tranquillity Reigns.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Senor De La Barra, the Mexican ambassador, received the following telegram from Enrique C. Creel, the Mexican minister of foreign affairs dated Mexico City:

"Guerrero has been occupied by the federal forces. Rebels are in full flight and are dispersing in small bands. Complete tranquillity reigns over all the republic."

Fort Dodge Man Fatally Wounded.

Hornellsville, N. Y., Jan. 11.—A man who gave his name as James Norton Schenck of Fort Dodge, Ia., was shot in the Imperial hotel here and probably will die. Schenck told the authorities that he was shot accidentally, but refused to give the details. Schenck had made arrangements to purchase a job printing office. Schenck is twenty-five years old and had considerable money.

Stubbs Would Reform Courts. Topeka, Jan. 11.—To alleviate "the law's delay and mistrial of cases," Governor W. R. Stubbs in his message to the Kansas legislature recommended that the state law be so amended that nine jurors out of twelve shall decide all civil cases.
