LET the name Taylor tailoring be photographed upon your mind. It is a good thing to remember, when you want a suit or overcoat of style and distinction. Just now is a good time to look over the complete line of all wool fabrics and to see the new ideas which are going to be popular for the Spring. Taylor tailoring is thoroughly insured against dissatisfaction. A guaranty goes with every garment that makes it quite impossible for anything to be wrong. And most important of all, the prices we quote are the very lowest for high grade made-to-measure clothes. Polite service at

Miss V. M. Kellar and Mrs. Schosser of Crookston were transacting business in Valentine Tuesday.

Miss Carrie Harris arrived last week from Manhattan, Kan., and will keep house for her aunt, Miss Cora Thackrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hudson visited in town a couple of days this week. Mrs. Hudson is ex-county superintendent.

Furnished rooms to rent by day or week. Hot and cold water bath included. Valentine House, John D. Eaton, Propr. 32tf

Attorney C. A. Ruby returned last week from a two week's business and pleasure trip to Denver, where he visited his sister.

We noticed A. E. Barnes of Lake on our streets one day last week, but he seemed to be in a rush and we didn't have a chance to hail him.

The city dam is nearing completion and work is being done on the power house. The city ought to be using its own plant by March 1st or sooner.

Dave Dunn of North Table called yesterday while in town. He has a slight cold that he says he brought back with him which he overtook on a slow accommodation train back in Illinois while on his visit there recently, but is about to overcome it in this good, wholesome atmosphere.

We wish our correspondents would send in the news of their localities. Everybody. Every place. Send in promptly and try to get in Monday or Tuesday. We have to have some time to get it into the paper, so send early in the week. We are often crowded with other matter on Wednesdays and Thursdays.

The joint installation of officers of the Workman and Degree of Honor lodges was held Monday night in the fraternal hall, after which they had something to eat. It was only supposed to be a lunch but ham sandwiches, coffee and cake and pickles makes a pretty good meal if you eat enough of them and they had a plenty and lots to spare. This was prepared by the ladies, and the Workmen had agreed to get a piano and have some music for the occasion. After the supper the boys began to roll up the carpets and we knew then a little celebration was on. Mr. Shaul brought out his violin and began to thumb the strings to get in tune and soon started the music of the kind that makes the feet restless. Herman Reigle rattled the bones and Oscar Buechle manipulated the piano for a while and then gave way to Miss Pearl McNeal. A jolly good time for all and that's only once a year. Where's the harm? It made everybody feel younger.

Rock Springs coal at Fischer's Hardware. 51

Hon. Frank Rothleutner of Kilgore was transacting business in Valentine the first of the week.

O. W. Hahn was down to the joint installation of the Workmen and Degree of Honor Monday and seemed to enjoy being with crowd.

The ice harvest is progressing finely. The railroad company is shipping out a train load a day of ice 20 inches thick or better, clear as crystal.

Frank Roby of Springview called on us yesterday while in town on business. He went from here to Chadron and said he would probably make an extended visit and might go down on the other road to Whitney. We enjoyed a pleasant chat over the recent political campaign and the signs of the times at present.

Edward Satterlee, the Nenzel merchant, was in town yesterday on business and found time to run up to our office to hand in a subscription for Joe Lorenz who will read the doings of this county this year in THE DEMOCRAT. Mr. Satterlee is a splendid man to meet and converse with and this probably in part explains why he holds a good liberal patronage for his store in Nenzel.

Shipley—Gokey.

Frank M. Gokey and Mrs. Emma Shipley were married Dec. 31, by Judge Quigley at the Union Hotel in Valentine. They expect to make their home on the reservation.

This item like many others was not told to the newspapers. If we have to hunt for items they come out so much more of a surprise, but we'd appreciate a clue if they cannot tell us anything more. No crime to tell it.

Mrs. Theodore Hoefs has had a severe cold but is recovering.

A. E. Morris and wife are on the sick list with an attack of the grip.

James A. Morris and wife attended the funeral of Otto Schleuter's baby.

Martina, daughter of A. E. Morris, has been confined to her bed with the grip.

C. T. Miller has certainly had his troubles since New Years, having lost two horses.

Mrs. Herman Breitingner returned home with her baby Tuesday. The baby is doing nicely.

It is rumored that the Krampert & Uck ranch has changed hands, $10 per acre being the price.

Mrs. Albert Schleuter received the news of the death of her uncle at Norfolk, but was unable to attend the funeral on account of sickness at her own home.

On Saturday, January 14, 1911, occurred the death of the infant son of Otto Schleuter and wife of pneumonia. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Cumbow Sunday morning at the home and interment at Ainsworth.
