

THE VALENTINE DEMOCRAT.

I. M. Rice, Editor and Proprietor

VALENTINE, NEBR., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1911.

Volume 26, No. 4

YOU are cordially invited to examine the big array of all wool Taylor fabrics whether you intend to buy or not. ALL we want is an opportunity to show you their beauty and to give you some idea of the masterly way in which Taylor Clothes are modelled. We would like also to show you how popular the prices are and how it is possible for the most fastidious man to dress ideally at small cost. Accept our invitation, please, and see for yourself what Taylor tailoring stands for.

Mrs. Elsie McClelland returned to her home at Fullerton Monday night, after a few week's visit in Valentine.

Sim Reinert was up from Ainsworth last Saturday night to attend the Eagle smoker and visit old friends.

Last week Wm. Bachelor made complaint against Slim Lawless and caused his arrest for killing one of his cattle.

Wm. Beamer came down from the west end of the county last Sunday night and spent Monday in town on business.

Mrs. George Chapman entertained a number of lady friends Monday night at the home of her mother, Mrs. D. W. Hilsinger.

Wm. Grooms and family has gone to La Junta, Colo. where his brother, Dick, and children are living. They went about two weeks ago.

Wm. Steadman came up last Saturday to visit R. M. Faddis and wife before Mr. Faddis start on a trip to Tucson where he expects to purchase cattle.

John Bullis and daughter, Inez Maurine, went back to Sturgis last Monday night. Mrs. Bullis decided to remain a couple of weeks longer with her folks at Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Sixteen ladies surprised Mrs. Wm. E. Haley Tuesday night, the occasion being her birthday. The evening was pleasantly spent playing 500. They presented her with a set of silver spoons.

The funniest of all dialect comedy dramas, "Tilly Olson," will appear at Quigley's opera house Thursday, Feb. 9. The play is the latest and most up to date version of the Swedish dialect comedy and presents Tilly amid new surroundings. Miss Phylis Daye, who assumes the central character of TILLY OLSON, is said to be the possessor of the most perfect Swedish comedy dialect yet presented to the public and her wit and humor permeates the piece during the four acts.

Furnished rooms to rent by day or week. Hot and cold water baths included. Valentine House. John D. Eaton, Propr. 32tf

Mrs. L. C. Sparks entertained fifty ladies Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Kate Driscoll who has resigned her position in Valentine schools to teach in the Chadron normal.

George Christopher returned last Saturday from his western trip well pleased. He journeyed to the western coast, saw his brother, visited in Washington, Oregon and California and has been gone a month.

On Sunday, Feb. 5th, there will be services in St. John's Church, both morning and evening. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Holy communion with sermon at 11 a. m. Evensong with address at 7:30. Choir rehearsal Saturday evening at 7:30.

This week the Red Front Merc. Co. sent out a lot of large posters announcing a big sale for two weeks, beginning Feb. 4. They say their mailing list is incomplete and if anyone was slighted they ask us to tell them to send a postal card and a bill poster will be sent them.

Sheriff Rossecer took Edward Horner down to the pen Monday night. This was the man who robbed a fellow employee of the telegraph company a couple of months ago up at Cody. At a special term of court last week by Judge Westover, Horner plead guilty and got a year.

The Eagle lodge gave a smoker and supper at their lodge rooms over the Davenport store Saturday night to fifty or sixty persons. It was a merry crowd and they spent the evening playing games and in social conversation. Cigars and plenty to eat all the time when they are hungry and a jolly time. The Eagle lodge seems to have all other lodges beaten in providing a club room and amusement for its members. The lodge is entitled to considerable credit for the successful and thoughtful efforts to show everyone a good time.

Charley Lowe, manager of the Barrington Stock Co., gave a three nights' show in Valentine the latter part of last week and a Saturday matinee which pleased Valentine people. Mr. Lowe is a star performer wherever he plays and like Clint and Bessie Robbins he and his wife are both emotional characters and the life of the play. If they should return to Valentine they will be greeted by a large crowd. Mr. Lowe is an ex-printer and a good fellow, a ready conversationalist and popular on the stage in his different roles. They drew good good audiences here.

John H. Bachelor went down to Omaha Sunday morning to meet with Ed P. Meyers of Omaha and Ed Brass of Grand Island for the purpose of forming a corporation in connection with their recent purchase of the 101 ranch, or Standard Cattle Co. ranch. These men purchased the remainder of that big ranch which is better or particularly known as the Marshall, the Carver and the Big Creek ranches comprising about 19,000 acres of land. This is the biggest land deal ever pulled off in this county. The new proprietors are experienced business and stock men and they expect to stock the ranch and utilize the rich grasses that grow in the valleys and on the range. The Pass ranch was also a part of this big ranch and was sold last spring to Milt Hanna and Harve Andrews.
