

A FOOT RULE

It is a good rule never to acquire corns.

They are painful, very much in the way, and by no means ornamental.

But when you do get them, remember we have a positive cure in the form of

POISONED CANLY NEARLY PROVES FATAL

Young Woman of Broken Bow Unconscious for Several Hours.

Broken Bow, Neb., March 8.—Miss Mante Painter, a well known young woman of this place, was accidentally poisoned, presumably by eating some chocolates that had been presented to her the night before. For three hours Miss Painter was unconscious and it was only by the greatest efforts that the attending physician succeeded in restoring her to consciousness. She is still in a precarious condition, but the doctor thinks her out of danger. The candies, which have not yet been analyzed, were purchased at a local confectionery store.

REV. SMITH READY FOR TRIAL

Former Head of United Brethren Hospital Makes Statement.

Beatrice, Neb., March 8.—At the quarterly conference of the United Brethren church at Blue Springs resolutions condemning the action taken by Rev. James Smith of Beatrice against the board of directors of the United Brethren hospital were passed. Rev. Mr. Smith has been cited to appear as defendant in a church trial to be held here soon in answer to charges of slander preferred against him by Rev. J. R. Mauer of Lincoln, presiding elder, who is one of the directors of the hospital board.

In reference to the resolutions passed by the church at Blue Springs Mr. Smith stated that the action was no surprise to him. "I received less than $400 for my whole year's labors at Blue Springs last year," he stated. "They are still owing me $57 for church janitor services and I drew on them last Saturday. This has probably incensed them. The people of Beatrice should know how this so called United Brethren hospital has been mismanaged, and that is just the information I purpose giving out when the proper time comes."
