Talk of the Town.

Born to John Borman and wife Saturday, a daughter.

Felix Nollette was transacting business in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornell returned home Friday from a visit in Omaha for a few days.

C. W. Bush of Prentice was in town Thursday and enrolled for THE DEMOCRAT a year in advance.

Mrs. Marsden of Ainsworth is visiting at the home of her daughter Mrs. John Slonecker and family.

Wm. Steadman of Pass and Ben Steadman of Oasis spent a couple of days in town last week on business.

Mrs. Haley and son Clarence went down to Omaha Monday where Clarence will receive medical treatment.

Frank Sedlacek and Miss Arta Hattan were married Monday by Judge Quigley. The Democrat extends congratulations.

Two or three new cases of scarlet fever has caused the school's to remain closed this week, though no cases seem severe as yet.

L. J. Conklin and wife came from Oakland last week and Mr. Conklin is employed in Forest Shepard's barber shop again.

Mr. Harry Totten of Manhattan Kansas returned home Monday after a few days visit at the home of the County Superintendent.

Dr. Noyes went down to Omaha Saturday to the hospital. Reports from there say his foot can be braced up and made a useful factor yet.

Don McLeod returned last Saturday night from Lincoln and other points where he was called on account of the death of his brother.

P. F. Simons, the Sparks mayor, was in town yesterday on business and informs us that he is about to sell out his store and move to a farm near Sparks this season.

Eugene Grace has leased the Church hotel for five years and at present will have it fitted up for rooms to accommodate his trade. Steam heat and water is to be provided in time.

Dell Query was in town yesterday proving up on his homestead. Andrew Benson and Wm. Heelan were in with him as witnesses and we enjoyed a pleasant visit with them while in town also in company with a neighbor, E. W. Johnson. Mr. Query has lived a dozen years nearly on his homestead and has succeeded fairly well by industry and careful investments. He is now going to sell out his stock and personal effects and expects to go to Oregon. He and his wife have done well here and we believe they will do well anywhere, but Mrs. Query's health has not been good of late and he hopes a change will benefit her.

Hackberry Thompson was in town yesterday.

Tom Hornby is home from Omaha with a new auto.

On Friday evening, March 31, at 8 o'clock, a declamatory contest will be held in the M. E. church. Admission 15c. The following are the contestants. Minnie Adamson, Edna Brown, Hazel Carlson, Gladys Jackson, Mary Jacobs, Ruth Quigley, Maude Rector and Maude Rowley. The judges to decide the contest will be secured from out of town.

Henry Morris, a farmer of north table, halted us last Thursday to extend his subscription a year in advance.

Mr. Morris once owned a newspaper plant by virtue of a loan and might have made a success in running the paper if he had felt inclined to the business, but he is making a success as a farmer and lives at ease.

On account of the scarlet fever cases in town public meetings have been closed and the Chase-Lister Co. had to pass us by. They were to have showed here three nights. There are only four or five cases that we have heard of, but not knowing how they were contracted or from what source it was thought best to be careful until it is under control, as last year there was a bad siege of it.

J. H. Bachelor, E. M. Brass and E. P. Meyers have incorporated a company to be known as "Sand Hills Land and Cattle Co." with E. M. Brass, president; J. H. Bachelor, vice president; N. J. Johnson, secretary, and E. P. Meyers, treasurer, for the purpose of conducting a general live stock ranch and land business. This company recently bought the Standard Cattle Co. ranches in this county.

A letter from Senator Norris Brown informs C. H. Cornell that there will be no army maneuvers this year at army posts excepting possibly to send a few officers around to assist in militia encampments for practical army exercises or in some instances a company of regulars to assist such exercises. Ft. Niobrara is not slated for abandonment but it is to be retained for future use as a post and there is no use talking of opening it up for settlement. This gives hopes that at some time the government will rebuild and make one of the best posts in the U. S. of Ft. Niobrara which is an ideal place for many reasons for army purposes. Don't forget that Fort Niobrara will yet come to the front and be known far and wide as the greatest reserve post for quartering U. S. troops in times of peace or for a recuperating station.

The boxing contest came off last Saturday night between Kid Ryan and Lee Davis. It was a tame affair, Ryan laying down in the third round. He was no match for Davis and probably thought he'd live to fight another day by not going too strong here. The preliminary contests between Bryan Quigley and Othel Bachelor and of Roy Brosius and Billy Keeley of two rounds each were fast and furious and no faking. They pummeled each other all the time and the cheering was loud and hilarious. They gave a good exhibition and spectators got their money's worth in those two events, but were disgusted with Kid Ryan, though perhaps he did his best while he stayed but was outclassed and after the first round was chased around the ropes, knocked down three or four times and finally with a bloody nose layed down in the third round.
