

BRYAN IS GUEST OF HONOR

FAIRVIEW MAN ON FIFTY-FIRST BIRTHDAY IS GIVEN GRAND OVATION

TRIBUTES PAID TO HIS WORTH

Lincoln Bryan Club's Annual Was a Record Breaker—Prominent Democrats From Other States Were Present

Thirteen hundred enthusiastic democratic banqueters celebrated the fifty-first birthday of W. J. Bryan at the Lincoln auditorium Monday night. Enthusiasm was at a high pitch during the long program. No one minded the hot, stuffy hall, but listened intently to the principles advocated by the speakers, without an exception progressive in tendency. No effort was made to hide the fact, by Nebraska speakers, that the democratic party is divided between progressives and standpatters, just as much as the republican party is divided. The applause showed plenty of sympathy for the sentiment advocated.

It was an open secret that the big banquet had been planned to show to the majority of the democratic party of the state that Bryan was not the dethroned leader he is fondly hoped to be by the men now in the saddle guiding the democratic party. It was in order to indicate that all democrats had not severed allegiance to and empty seats in the gallery, much of which had previously been preempted by the townspeople who came to listen but not to eat. There were many women in the gallery.

The number of persons to be fed was so formidably large that the girls and colored waiters began work early in the morning. By 11 o'clock all the plates and goblets, the celery and the buns had been arranged as well as the silverware, while half-gallon bottles of mineral water stretched their long necks into the air from all the tables, proclaiming the distinctly temperate character of the spread.

At the Speakers' Table.

The speakers sat at the head table in the following order from the toastmaster's right to his left: Rev. Rudolph Caughey, Representative E. B.

HON. CHAMP CLARK
U. S. Senator From Missouri and Speaker of the House

the "Sage of Fairview" because of his attitude on the liquor question last fall. As the plan grew the managers became more optimistic, speakers of national prominence readily agreed to be present and the demand for reservations at the "dollar dinner" came in thick and fast.

The managers arranged for the largest hall of the city and ordered that all plates possible be laid. Republicans and democrats alike asked permission to attend. Delegations from many outside towns came in to be on hand to pay tribute to the leader. Legislators who had said bitter things against him at times caught

HON. JOHN W. KERN
U. S. Senator From Indiana

the spirit and were on hand at least to listen.

The result was that not in its history has Lincoln seen a greater gathering of banqueters for any purpose, and seldom has such wild enthusiasm been invoked as at times responded to the clear-cut convincing declarations of the speakers.

Auditorium Filled.
The Auditorium, in which the banquet was held, seats 2,500 people. It was full. The floor was taken up with rows of tables extending from the stage to the foyer, while across the stage ran a table at which were seated the speakers. Far down the hall hung the banner of the Lincoln Bryan club, the promoters of the birthday banquet.

Owing to the fact that more tickets were sold than places could be provided for on the floor, the overflow gathering was fed at the Lindel hotel across the street. These diners came in later and filled up the aisles

HON. GILBERT M. HITCHCOCK
U. S. Senator From Nebraska

Quackenbush, R. L. Metcalfe, Governor John F. Shafroth, Senator John W. Kern, W. J. Bryan, O. W. Meier, Dr. P. L. Hall, toastmaster; Champ Clark, Senator Robert L. Owen, Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Congressman John A. Maguire, State Senator C. M. Skiles and lastly Mr. Bryan's Japanese boy.

This was the toast list: Lincoln Bryan club, O. W. Meier, president.

Invocation, Rev. Rudolph Caughey. Toastmaster, Philip L. Hall.

"Progressive Democracy in the Nebraska State Senate," C. M. Skiles.

"Progressive Legislation in the Nebraska House," E. B. Quackenbush.

HON. JOHN A. MAGUIRE
Congressman From Nebraska

"Mr. Bryan at Home," John A. Maguire.

"Message from Japan," Y. Bryan Yamashita.

"Election of Senators by the People," G. M. Hitchcock.

"Mr. Bryan vs. Special Interests," Richard L. Metcalfe.

"Initiative and Referendum," John F. Shafroth.

"The Tariff," John W. Kern.

"Arizona," Robert L. Owen.

"Cannanism Overthrown," Champ Clark.

Address, W. J. Bryan.

The large audience, both of banqueters and listeners, stayed on after the cars had stopped running, stayed on to listen to Champ Clark and to hear Mr. Bryan, who was the guest of honor of the evening.

As Mr. Bryan arose to speak, continued and loud applause greeted him from the house. In opening he thanked the Lincoln Bryan club for the celebration of his birthday. He declared that he had asked clubs over the country not to connect his name with their organizations for fear that his motives might be impugned thereby.

He reviewed his early political life briefly and brought lessons down from the past to the present activities

HON. JOHN F. SHAFROTH
Governor of Colorado

of the democratic party. He paid tribute to both Senator Hitchcock and Congressman Maguire.

Mr. Bryan said he did not believe all that had been said of him during the evening, notwithstanding that he fully appreciated the sincerity of the utterances of his friends and co-workers.

"And I assure you that these tributes will not swell my egotism, or cause my head to grow," he said. "A man is only one small unit amid the mass of humanity, and his efforts at the most can exert only a small comparative influence. It would be more than any man could do to cause the mighty moral revolution which we now have in the country. But to aid in calling attention to these mighty changes is all the honor that I can claim."

HON. ROBERT L. OWEN
U. S. Senator From Oklahoma

"What matters it if today you turn me down in a convention? I live and they who turned me down will die. What matters it if they don't send me to a national convention? God doesn't require me to go to a convention, but he does require me to be a man every day. Where it used to be necessary, perhaps to send me, there are now enough good men to go without me. It simply means that right will triumph ultimately."

"It is of little consequence to the great democratic party of America that there may be men in Nebraska who, because of his conscientious convictions on questions of religion and morality, may seek to discredit him. There are nearly six and a half million of men who so appreciate his unselfish work of the past fifteen years that they will see to it that neither jealousy, nor prejudice, nor petty animosity shall for a moment prevail against him."—Senator John W. Kern of Indiana.

HOW TO CARE FOR THE FEET

Nothing So Good as Alcohol Rub After Pedal Extremities Have Been Chilled.

No other part of the body except the waist suffers so much abuse and distortion as the feet. They are susceptible to all sorts of deformities and the subject of all sorts of neglect.

Many people do not bathe them sufficiently often, do not change their stockings with sufficient frequency and do not care for them in other ways as they should.

The soldier who cares for his feet is the one who holds out on the march, and many foreign armies have doctors who see that the men care for their feet. The dead skin which hardens and produces callous spots needs to be removed twice a day if the feet perspire freely.

To rub the feet with alcohol refreshes them wonderfully, and nothing is as good for them as a vigorous alcohol rub after they have been wet or chilled.

A rub with cocoa butter is a fine thing for the feet at all times. Get a cake of this and give them a five-minute rub at least once a week after the daily bath and you will save yourself many a groan.

We should wear rubbers whenever we need them and take them off as soon as we can. The feet must be kept warm and dry.

A famous physician is reported as saying that his income would dwindle to a half if women kept their feet warm. And it may be added that a woman's chance of being a comfortable soul and a jolly person to have around would be improved by three halves if she would wear the right kind of shoes, care for them and her feet properly and try to have everybody else to the same.—New York Mail.

Almond Tarts.

For tarts make shells of rich puff paste or get patties. Filling for one dozen tarts: Put three tablespoonfuls of almond paste in a double boiler with a little milk to dissolve; add half a pint of rich milk and lumps of butter. When it boils add the beaten yolks of two eggs mixed with three tablespoonfuls of sugar and two of flour; let boil till thick; when cool, add fifteen cents' worth of ground almonds and a few drops of almond extract; fill shells. Whip the whites of the two eggs stiff, add two tablespoonfuls of sugar, spread top and sides of tarts, sprinkle with powdered sugar and set 'n oven till a light brown.

Rice Prune Pudding.

To one cup of rice add one quart of water and boil slowly for about an hour, or until rice is nice and tender; add one-half teaspoonful of salt and one-half cup sugar, also the juice in which one pound of prunes has been previously stewed; from the pound of stewed prunes remove the pits (two silver forks do this nicely); dry half the pits, crack them and chop the meats; mix the prunes and meats with the rice. This is nice eaten either hot or cold with a little sugar and cream or milk.

Potato Croquettes.

Take sufficient mashed potatoes salt and pepper to taste; and, if liked, a very little minced parsley, egg, and bread crumbs. Boil and mash the potatoes; add a seasoning of pepper and salt, and a little minced parsley may be added, or not. Roll the potatoes into small balls, cover them with egg and bread crumbs, and fry in hot oil or drippings until light brown; let them drain before the fire, dish them on a napkin, and serve.

Potato a la Lyonnaise.

Cut parboiled potatoes into dice Chop an onion and fry it with a little minced parsley in good drippings or butter for one minute. Then put in the potatoes. Stir briskly until they have fried slowly for five minutes. They must never stick to the bottom nor brown. Sprinkle with pepper and salt, drain free of fat by shaking them in a heated colander and serve hot.

Fudge Frosting.

One and one-half tablespoons butter, one-half cup unsweetened cocoa, one-fourth cup confectionary sugar, a few grains of salt, one-fourth cup of milk, one-half teaspoon vanilla. Add cocoa, sugar, salt and milk, heat to boiling point; let boil for eight minutes; remove from fire and beat until creamy; add vanilla and pour over cake.

Dried Beef Gravy.

Take a 15-cent glass of dried beef and shred the beef into small pieces. Heat two cupfuls of milk in a spider and thicken it with two tablespoonfuls of flour. Then put the shredded beef into the thickened milk and serve with mashed potatoes. This makes an excellent dish for any meal of the day.

Care of Water Bottle.

When the water bottle becomes lined with a sediment from the water an easy way to remove it is by putting a teaspoon of hydrochloric acid, with a little water, in the bottle. The sediment will entirely disappear in a few moments, leaving the glass clear and clean.

To Prevent Cooking Odors.

Fill a tin cup with vinegar and place it on the back of the stove. This will prevent the spread of cooking odors throughout the house.

WHEN IT REALLY WAS WARM

Incident Related by Mr. Bings Put an End to the Hot Weather Stories.

"Hot in Brazil!" said the young man who had just returned from a trip to South America, according to the Chicago Daily News. "Well, I should say so. Do you know, for days at a time we couldn't take our after dinner stesta on account of the peculiar noises." "What noises?" asked the blonde stenographer, innocently. "Why, the coffee popping on the trees. You see, the sun was so hot the grains just roasted before they were picked." The old traveler yawned. "Rather warm down there, huh," he rejoined, laconically. "but when I was down there you couldn't sleep at night. Every once in a while there would sound the most extraordinary crackling noise that ever fell upon the human ear." "What were the sounds, Mr. Bings?" And Mr. Bings yawned again and replied: "The rubber trees stretching themselves."

DISFIGURED WITH ECZEMA

"Our little boy Gilbert was troubled with eczema when but a few weeks old. His little face was covered with sores even to back of his ears. The poor little fellow suffered very much. The sores began as pimples, his little face was disfigured very much. We hardly knew what he looked like. The face looked like raw meat. We tied little bags of cloth over his hands to prevent him from scratching. He was very restless at night, his little face itched.

"We consulted two doctors at Chicago, where we resided at that time. After trying all the medicine of the two doctors without any result, we read of the Cuticura Remedies, and at once bought the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Following the directions carefully and promptly we saw the result, and after four weeks the dear child's face was as fine and clean as any little baby's face. Every one who saw Gilbert after using the Cuticura Remedies was surprised. He has a head of hair which is a pride for any boy of his age, three years. We can only recommend the Cuticura Remedies to everybody." (Signed) Mrs. H. Albrecht, Box 883, West Point, Neb., Oct. 26, 1910.

Woman's Power

Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still lives on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

Keep Watch on the Tuberculous.
The Italian government, on account of the number of tuberculosis cases among the Italian emigrants sent back from America, has appointed boards of examiners in the seaports, whose duty it is to report the arrival of tuberculous persons. These are then kept under observation in those places where they settle, to prevent further spread of the disease. The erection of new sanatoria and other tuberculosis institutions is being urged in Italy, and the number of beds for consumptives has been considerably increased in different places.
