Debate by Noted Speakers Results in No Decision.

CHAMP CLARK IS THE REFEREE

Decides to Refer Entire Question to Committee Which Has Wool and Hair Schedule Under Consideration and Bout Is Declared a Draw.

Washington, May 3. - Whether whiskers are a greater detriment to a man than a bald head is still a mooted question. Four of the ablest men in public life debated the subject before the National Press club here. The bout was under Marquis of Queensbury rules and when the bell rang the referee threw up his hands in deto the ways and means committee of the house, which now has the wool and hair schedule under consideration. The bald headed side of the question was in the hands of Senator Robert L. Taylor of Tennessee and Representative Nicholas Longworth of Ohio. The chin curtains found their champions in former Senator Thomas H. Carter of Montana and "Uncle Joe" Cannon of Illinois. Messrs. Taylor and Longworth entered the ring am ! cheers. Their hairless domes sparkled beneath the radiance of myriad of electric lights. Senator Carter and Order of Hearing and Notice on Petition for "Uncle Jce" came with their whiskers combed for the fray. The shouts that greeted them were deafening. Senator Carter was introduced as "exhibit A" for the whiskers. "No man," said he, "ever voluntarily wore a bald head. A bald head is an affliction, a standing joke, a physical crat, a weekly newspaper printed in said infirmity. We pity, but do not blame county, for four successive weeks prior to our opponents."

Senator, Carter insisted that the "beard" was the real thing.

Senator Taylor, introduced as an "ivory-pated Moses of the Tennessee Democracy," said that when Mr. Cannon was speaker of the house he shook pestilence and war from his horrid beard. He dwelt upon the nobility of the bald peaks of mountains and the bald head of the American eagle circling about them in the azure atmos-

INFORMER TAKES THE STANS

Abbatemaggio Tells of Organization of the Camorra.

Viterbo, Italy, May 3.-Gennaro E. Abbatemaggio, on whose revelations the state has built its case against the Camorra, was called to the witness stall to verbally confirm the written confession made for the carabineers after he had been tricked into damaging admissions by the police spy, Marshall Capizzuti.

The informer stood the supreme test of his courage well, repeating his story coolly and at times eloquently, while he was assailed with the curses of the other prisoners in the great steel cage. Every statement that he made was denied in chorus and when he concluded Enrico Alfano, the alleged head of the Camorra, rose and shouted.

"Abbatemaggio deserves thirty years in prison.'

The informer began with the statement that the Camorra existed in a well organized form, both outside and inside the prisons of Italy. Recruits who are on probation may become Camorrists proper only when they have proven their ability to commit crime without detection.

The witness said the rank of the prisoners in the society was asked in order that the Camorrists and the Picciottis might be grouped separately and communication between the older members and incoming candidates be Abbatemaggio's testimony was constantly interrupted by protests from the prisoners, accompanied by ugly epithets and imprecations.

WETS GET LINCOLN IN CITY ELECTION

A. H. Armstrong Elected Mayor of Capital City.

Lincoln, May 3.—Reversing its policy of one year ago, when it went dry by 935 majority, this city voted for a wet policy the coming year by a majority closely estimated at $20 votes. A. H. Armstrong (Rep.) defeated Robert Malone (Dem.) for mayor by the decisive majority of 1,275 votes. Practically all of the other Republican candidates went in with the head of the ticket and Republicans will control the city council.

The voting was unusually heavy, due to the activity of the women upon the proposed $350,000 school bond issue, which is thought to have carried by a close majority.

A lengthy electrical ordinance submitted to the people was defeated.
