From Our Exchanges.

(Cody Cow Boy.)

Mrs. Dodd of Mullen has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Nellie Carter of this place.

Frank H. Leighton, aged 22, and Lucile B. Meyers, aged 18, came up from Cody last Thursday and were married at the court house by County Judge Edmunds.

The above item appeared in the Rushville Standard of May 5, but escaped our notice until this week. The contracting parties are well known in the vicinity of Cody, the groom having grown to young manhood here, and the bride residing here for the past year and a half. The wedding has been kept secret here and the bride left with her parents a few weeks ago for Belgrade, Neb., but it is rumored that she will return in a short time.

(Ainsworth Democrat.)

Elza Smith, a seventeen year old boy who lives with his mother in the Remy property on Third street, came down town very much excited Tuesday evening about 9:30, with one arm slashed in a number of places. He was looking for help and claimed that when coming from a closet in the rear of the house he was attacked by a man who had a knife. He asserted that he fought the man the best he could, grabbing the arm in which he held the knife. Smith's arm was cut in three places and scratched in several more. Smith claims that he finally fought his assailant off and knocked him down, after which he ran to the house. When he came down town his arm was bleeding profusely, and sought a physician who dressed his wounds, which are not dangerous.

Bloomers 4-8—Valentine 5-8.

The Boston Bloomers played with our home team last Saturday afternoon and evening, our boys defeating them with a pick up team about town, composed partly of high school boys with Gorrill and Campbell as battery, defeating the bloomers 5 to 4 in the afternoon and even tally of 8 to 8 in their own game at night our team making their tallies mostly in the last half of the game and had the Bloomers stayed for another inning could have easily defeated them as our boys were gaining on them fast as they became accustomed to the game which was played with a soft ball five or six inches in diameter and a slender stick bat on a small diamond. Couldn't knock the ball more than twenty to thirty yards but our boys out batted them and were fast getting onto the game when they announced they'd have to quit to make their train. Of course they didn't want to get beat at their own game and was glad to get off with a tie.

Only four or five girls played, the remainder being men in the Bloomer team and our boys can beat them bad if they had a few games practice and beat them as it was.

George Stetter made one of his sensational hits which sent the ball way over the right and center fielders, who ran for a long time to overtake it. This so astonished and dumbfounded the little girl team that they didn't make another tally, George making an easy home run.

They had a good crowd at a half dollar a ticket each game and 10c extra for a seat. Too much, many said, for their game.

W. E. Case and son were in town from King this week. They farm and raise horses out there and 68 out of 70 is the colt crop. He has 60 acres in oats and barley this year and looking fine. Mr. Case tells us that he took Charley Brown to Whitman May 21 and sent him to Hot Springs to doctor for rheumatism. Couldn't turn over in bed. Has it in knees, ankle and wrist. Was to have met Mr. Case here but was not well enough yet to leave the hospital but expects to return to Whitman June 3. Charley has a claim between Mr. Case's and Charley Hoyt's.

Read "Crawford's Quarto Centennial" advertisement elsewhere in these columns. It clearly demonstrates that Crawford is again in the swim this year with a pace-setting celebration that defies competition. With its beautiful electric lighted city park, its enviable position from a railroad standpoint, backed by the cooperation of Col. Dodd and his army at Fort Robinson, Crawford easily outstrips all competitors in giving of carnivals and celebrations. They claim that their "Quarto-Centennial" this year will out rival even their own past efforts. It is an old saying among the people of the northwest towns and cities that "if you want to have a right, real good time go to Crawford." Read their display advertisement. 20-2

The Cow boys did wonderful service in searching for little three year old Lucy Stillwell of the Hackberry Lake country. The boys are now planning to have a big celebration of the event on Saturday June, 10, at Hackberry lake at Milt Latta's place. It will be a big day as planned with all kinds of rejoicing and horse maneuvering. The Red Front is fitting little Lucy out like an angel with a thousand ribbons and all kinds of decorations presenting a picture perhaps never before seen in the history of this county. Everybody in the county is invited to come and bring tents and covered wagons and basket dinners. The men of the west have no equal. Come and everybody take part in the mounted parade. A picture will be taken with little Lucy's rescue for a big story later to be published. Saturday June 10 at Hackberry lake, at Milt Latta's place. Everybody come.

CRAWFORD'S QUARTO-CENTENNIAL

And Grand Fourth of July Celebration
In Crawford's Beautiful Electric Lighted Park
Four Big Days July 1-2-3-4. Recreation Fun and Frolic

PONCO, THE DIVING HORSE, born and reared on the broad prairies of the northwest, a home product—will dive from a platform, erected 35 feet in the air, into a vat of water at Crawford's Quarto-Centennial on July 1 and 2, and two performances on July 4, at Crawford's beautiful city park. This feat alone is worth your visit, but there will be much more. Col. Dodd, Commander of Ft. Robinson, will give a full dress parade and drill at the park, in which his entire army will join. There will be relay, hippodrome, chariott, hurdle, rescue, running, trotting and pacing races; bronco breaking contest, steer riding contests, steer roping contests. In fact there will be one continuous "something Doing" from early Saturday morning until late Tuesday night. Sunday will be set apart for religious services in the big tent at the park, in which all denominations of the city will join. Speakers of note, as well as famous singers, have been engaged for this day.

All the races are open to the world—no one barred. Get a program and you will be convinced that Crawford is going to properly observe its 25th birthday.

All trains will be met by one or more brass bands and a hearty welcome will await you. Come For information regarding prizes, programs, camp privileges in the park, etc., write the secretary.

Roy Crowder, Sec. Arah L. Hungerford, Pres.

Last Thursday evening word was sent over the wires that Lucy the three year old daughter of E. R. Stillwell and wife had wandered away from the home and was lost. In a short time neighbors began arriving. A lantern brigade was formed and the ground where she was supposed to have gone carefully searched. Small foot prints in the sand gave us hope but as the hours of darkness wore away and no trace of the missing child was found the weary searchers halted at 2 a. m. to await day light. With the first signs of morning the hunt was again taken up. The fore-noon passed all too quickly for the anxious throng, who with no sleep and with but little time devoted to eating, covered seemingly every foot of territory for a long distance in every direction. Noon came and still the search went on others came and joined. Despair was showing plainly in the weary faces when about 2 p. m. a rifle shot announced the glad tidings that she was found. George Wang had heard her cry and in some ruffies by the lake side she was lying. The child is recovering from her experience and will soon be well. Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell are very grateful to all who assisted in their time of need.
