Mrs. Brosius and LeRoy are visiting Mrs. Brosius's daughter Mrs. Moran in Ainsworth this week.

Gertrude Quigley returned Sunday night from Lincoln, where she has been attending the state university.

Rev. W. W. Wells went to Omaha Monday morning as a delegate to the grand lodge of A. F. and A. M. in session this week.

Miss Bessie Gaskill returned from Norfolk Saturday evening and is now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gaskill, near the fort.

John Bachelor, J. H. Quigley, Chas. Lewis, Judge Quigley and Mr. Young spent Monday at Dewey lake. They all had pretty good success with the black bass.

H. E. Layport drove out to Kennedy in his new Midland auto. On the way back Monday morning he picked up a party of Pine Ridge men at Hackberry Lake.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grooms was very sick Tuesday. Mrs. Grooms is in an Omaha hospital. Mr. Grooms was called there Monday night.

Russ W. Carter came up from Wood Lake, Saturday on business. He says grass is fine out around Goose Creek and predicts a great hay crop for that section of Cherry county.

Chief Game Warden Miller and Mr. Breackmier came up from Lincoln Saturday night, and with Howard Layport and Deputy Warden Clarkson, went to the lakes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Walcott and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Webb motored to the Mission last Sunday morning in Mr. Walcott's car. They returned to Valentine about noon having had a very pleasant trip.

G. N. Thompson was down from Cody Monday after some blasting powder. Mr. Thompson is making a road through McCann canyon to the table land. This improvement will add about five acres of tillable land to his farm.

Columbus W. Goforth was arrested last week, charged with shooting five head of cattle belonging to John Roseberry, Pray Bros., Thomas Dowell and John Bachelor. The hearing will be before Judge Quigley, June 10.

Prof. Gregory was in town Tuesday inspecting the work of the Junior Normal which opened Monday. Mr. Gregory praises the corps of teachers, and says a student here has many advantages that they cannot have in the Normals where the attendance is larger.

H. M. Lunham and Miss Pearl Rogers were married on Monday, June 5, 1911, by County Judge Quigley. Only relatives were present. They will spend the summer on the reservation, later moving to Valentine.

The Democrat wishes this happy couple a life full of success and happiness.

Archie Folsom came up from Elsmere last Thursday. He tells us that Elsmere now has a hall 24 x28 and a stage 12x24. Mr. Folsom says they have a brass band and something going on every week or so around Elsmere, a home talent occasionally and a big fair in the fall. They offer $10 cash for the ten best ears of corn this fall at the fair.

Licenses to Fish and Hunt are in Demand.

The demand for license to fish and hunt by residents of Cherry county has been steady since the season opened. About 125 local licenses have been issued at the county clerk's office, and Deputy Warden Clarkson disposed of about 73. Only five non resident license (to fish only) have been issued by the county clerk, and these were taken out by residents of South Dakota. The money derived from the sale of these licenses is sent to the office of the chief game warden. Anyone wishing a copy of the 1911-1912 game and fish laws can get one at the county clerk's office.

Gypsies are Arrested.

A large band of Gypsies went through Valentine Thursday plying their trade of fortune-telling, begging, etc. They were traveling east and at the William's place near Thatcher one of the band robbed William Boyer of two or three dollars. Sheriff Rosseter was notified and overtook the outfit three miles west of Wood Lake but brought only one of the men to Valentine. He was fined $26.60 which was paid.

Quigley and Bachelor buy Land Near Merriman.

J. H. Quigley and W. D. Bachelor have purchased the Fred Robinson ranch northeast of Merriman. This is one of the oldest ranches in Cherry county and consists of 2,240 acres, all under fence with good ranch buildings and other improvements.

They will stock the place this fall with native cattle. Alfalfa has been doing extra well on this ranch for some time and there are now many acres of this valuable forage crop. Alsike clover has also gotten a good start in the meadows and the place will turn out some of the best grass fed cattle in the northwest.
