President Taft opposes any amendment to the Canadian reciprocity agreement. He does it in very affective language, and says it is all right as it is.

Attorney General Martin has ruled that a county assessor is to be elected in Sheridan county this fall. Some time ago the county assessor resigned and the county commissioners appointed a man to fill the vacancy. In this case the attorney general holds that the appointment is good only until the next election.

J. Owen Evans, representative from Stark county in the Ohio legislature, has plead guilty to an indictment charging him with accepting a $100 bribe from L. C. Miller, a loan agent of Akron, in connection with a bill to regulate the loan companies. He was fined $500 by Judge Kinkead. Evans will tell all he knows about the bribery scandal to the grand jury.

Under New Management.

With this issue The Democrat came under my charge as editor and manager. I will give the people of Cherry county a bright and newsy democratic paper. In fact I want to make it something to be looked for each Thursday, not for the sensational news that it might contain, but for the local happenings, court house and state news, country correspondence and advertisements. Personalities, so far as injuring the character of any law abiding citizen, will not be tolerated, nor will I use the columns of the paper as a club against any one whom I may personally dislike.

The Democrat will not please all of the people all of the time. No paper can. Be liberal in your condemnations. Remember you are only one of the many hundreds of readers, and what displeases you may have the opposite effect upon your neighbor. Yes, be liberal.—GEORGE M. GASKILL.

Democrats of Northwest Meet at St. Paul, Minn.

Last Thursday night about 800 democrats, representing the progressive element of the party in the northwest, gathered about the banquet tables in the auditorium to celebrate the victory of the democratic party in the last state elections throughout the United States. Well known democrats from Minnesota, Iowa, North and South Dakota, Missouri and Nebraska were present. The delegation from North Dakota launched a well defined boom for Governor Burke of North Dakota as the vice president candidate next year. The Iowa delegates also supported Mr. Burke. The speakers were W. J. Bryan, Governor Burke, Former Governor Folk of Missouri, Congressman Hammond of Minnesota and J. E. O'Connor of Iowa. Mr. Bryan in his address praised Governor Burke and Former Governor Folk of Missouri, referring to them as candidates for the presidency and said should either be nominated he would work in their behalf.

The government printing office recently installed two large presses for printing postal cards. Each is capable of turning out 2,200,000 complete postals in an eight hour working day. The two presses are turning out between 3,500,000 and 4,000,000 cards a day, six days a week, this output being required to keep pace with the correspondence of the American people.

Newspaper Men Enjoy an Outing.

Saturday morning several members of the Elkhorn Valley Editorial Association went to Hackberry Lake on a fishing trip. Geo. A. Miles of the Holt County Independent, A. H. Backhaus of the Pierce County Leader, E. F. Hughes and Elmer Hight of the Norfolk Daily News, F. E. Cochran of the Carpenter Paper Co., I. M. Rice, former editor of The Valentine Democrat, and son Lawrence, comprised the party. They returned to Valentine Sunday night. It is said that Mr. Miles holds the record for the largest fish caught, and that no one could beat Mr. Backhaus eating bluegills. Mr. Cochran of course told the biggest stories as is his habit.

This outing will not be considered a regular meeting of the Elkhorn Valley Editorial Association to be held in Valentine; they will be here in regular session the first Saturday in June-1912.

It seems as though some people enjoy robbing the poor Kinkaiders who are endeavoring to improve their homes and meet the requirements of the law. We cannot help but think they have some object in view for doing this, but let them take care ere these Kinkaiders expose them to the public.
