Mrs. J. C. Quigley is visiting her parents in Wahoo this week.

Mrs. Helzer and daughter Bertha are visiting with John Helzer at Cut Meat.

Peter Lower returned from Hot Springs Friday night practically cured of rheumatism.

Wm. D. Clarkson and daughters Vivian and Flora left for Lincoln and Omaha Monday night.

John W. Bullis of Sturgis, S. D., spent several days this week visiting his brother Charles and family.

Mrs. B. I. Johnson offers several bargains this week. Look up the display ad in another column.

D. M. Sears, W. E. Packingham and G. J. Gaskill of Kennedy spent Friday, and Saturday in Valentine.

Forest Shepard went up to Crawford last Saturday, where Mrs. Shepard is visiting relatives. They will remain there until after the 4th.

B. Tinkham and Hans Micheals were up from Wood Lake Saturday to attend the Faddis, Steadman and Rowley horse sale.

Miss Edith Adamson returned home last week from Des Moines, Iowa, where she has been studying music in Drake university the past year.

Dave Hanna, D. J. Kirkman, John Herring and Nathan Kelly were up from Wood Lake Saturday. Mr. Herring bought some horses at the sale.

C. O. Goodrich of Cody was in Valentine Tuesday on business at the land office. He received the patent on his Kinkaid homestead, eight miles west of Cody.

Mrs. J. S. Kalblinger was painfully injured last Saturday. The team she was driving to town whirled around, throwing her into a wire fence, cutting her left arm quite severely.

Services in St. John's Church on Sunday, July 2, both morning and evening as follows: Sunday school at ten, Holy Eucharist with sermon at eleven a. m., Evensong with address at eight p. m., Choir rehearsal on Saturday evening July 1, at eight o'clock.

Despite the hot dry weather of the past two weeks crops on an average look good. The rain Saturday night and Sunday freshened vegetation considerably and the farmers of Cherry county are not yet giving up hope of good returns for their labor.

Frances W. V. Harden and George B. Cutler were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Harden, Rev. J. E. Parsons officiating. Only a few intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Cutler will spend most of the summer in Neligh.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Searby of Crookston started overland Friday for Colorado. They will be gone all summer and expect to have a delightful time camping in the mountains. Before coming home they will dispose of their team and wagon and return by rail.

The preliminary hearing of George and Alma Weed, Kenneth Murphy and Harry Heath was held on Tuesday, June 27, before County Judge Quigley. The defendants waived trial and were bound over to the district court without bail. Many people were down from Cody and Merriman, and the district court room, where the hearing was held, was crowded.

Tracewell & Hitt will open their new feed and sale stable on Saturday July 1. This barn is one of the largest and finest in northwest Nebraska having stalls for sixty head of horses in the main building and several stalls at the west end of the large feed corral. Stock sales will be held in the corral and seats are provided around the top of the high board fence. It is the intention of the proprietors to have auction sales of stock the last of each month. Col. Tracewell will sell several head of horses and mules on Saturday for Ferguson and Garet.

Mrs. Kennedy is visiting at her old home south of Ainsworth.

Fred Cumbow attended the Sorensen sale near Brownlee on Tuesday.
