Post Office and General Store Burned.

The general store of Max E. Viertel at Crookston was burned to the ground Monday night. The blaze started in the rear end of the building about midnight and when discovered the interior was a sheet of flame. The post office was located in the north room and the flames had made such headway that nothing of value could be saved. The building on the north belonging to St. Francis Mission was also destroyed. By hard work the oil house and barn on the east were saved. The origin of the fire is unknown. Everything was apparently all right when the 10:30 passenger went through and the Viertels were aroused from their slumber to find the building on fire.

The loss is covered by insurance.
