Charles Edwards, a retired salesman, is the new clerk at the Donohoe.

J. H. Wilson and Wm. Bourdeaux were down from Kilgore Monday.

Miss Phoebe Jacobs of Rushville visited in Valentine several days the past week.

James Hudson was here Saturday with a bunch of cattle which he sold on the local market.

L. W. Lennox, O. A. Schlueter and W. R. Churchill of Wood Lake were here on business Monday.

C. E. Magness of Clearwater was here the first of the week buying hogs. He shipped a carload Monday night.

Miss Josephine Bruder of Atkinson came to Valentine Sunday evening for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Fred Grace.

Wm. Bordeaux went to Deadwood Tuesday night having been subpoenaed as a witness before the federal court.

May and Everett Goodrich, Alta and Lottie Jones came down from Cody, Sunday night and started to school on Monday.

Bert Grace and family and Mrs. Carpenter of Long Pine visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Grace over Sunday.

A. M. Morrissey came up from Lincoln Friday night and will remain until after the preliminary trial of Eunice Murphy.

O. O. Newman and family of Dorsey, Nebr., have been visiting with Mrs. Newman's father W. H. Hooper for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ransbottom, who came to attend the Cramer golden wedding, returned to their home in Delaware, Okla., Monday morning.

Pearl McNeill returned to Valentine last week. Miss McNeill had spent several weeks at the S. H. Kimmel home on the reservation.

A. J. Wallingford who resides near Lake postoffice came to town Tuesday with a dozen nice Early Ohio potatoes and has placed them with the exhibits at the corn show.

Pat Phemerling was very sick Monday. It is thought he was poisoned from eating canned herring. Max Viertel and Dr. Vandeen came down from Crookston Monday to see Mr. Paemerling.

John Slonecker and family returned Sunday. Mr. Slonecker has been putting up hay on his place north of Ainsworth. The hay yield on his place this year is greater than last and corn is excellent.

The Dawes county fair will be held at Chadron on Sept., 13-15. Aeroplane flights, horse races and broncho riding, besides the Saville Carnival Co., which is now running in connection with the Fraternal Picnic.

C. H. Cornell and party returned home Sunday evening, having been over the route for the proposed electric line. Mr. Cornell says everything is progressing nicely. He will go to Naper, Nebr., to attend a meeting of the business men on Saturday.

The Citizens' meat market was entered Sunday by a sneak thief and the cash register robbed of several dollars. The robbery occurred between 10:30 a. m. and 3 p. m. The back door was left unlocked and at 3 o'clock Mr. Stetter found it standing open but the theft was not discovered until Monday morning.

Land Office Notes.

In the contest of John R. Rodman vs. Margaret A. Siders, whose homestead lies southwest of Johnston in Cherry county, the decision of the local office is in favor of the entry woman.

In the contest of Ernest Bussinger vs. Eleanor E. Overholt, involving a homestead in Rock county, the decision of the local office is against the entry woman.

In the contest of Amos Gudgel vs. Ann M. Day, widow of Lewis F. Day, the general land office sustains the decision of the local office in favor of the widow.

In the case of the United States vs. Lizzie B. Sherbins, involving Mrs. Sherbin's original entry near Brownlee, the general land office sustains the decision of the local office in favor of the entry woman, but requires further evidence in her final proof.

By a recent ruling of the secretary of the interior, the constructive residence which has heretofore been allowed to entryman who established and maintained a residence on their claims within six months from date of entry, has been abolished. Heretofore it has always been the rule that when the entryman established residence on his claim within six months from date of entry, he was allowed credit, when making proof, for the entire six months. In all final proofs taken on and after Dec. 1, 1911, this credit will not be given, but five years of actual and continuous residence will be required in every case. This constructive residence was abolished in the case of cash proofs some time ago, and now the same rule will apply to five-year proofs. In this connection it should be remembered that all who are absent under the present leave of absence act until April 15, 1912, must make up the time they are absent before offering final proof. Thus all who are absent under the Warren act are delaying their final proof just that much longer.

The Phelps Photo Studio is open the first Wednesday and Thursday of each month. 16tf
