Lincoln, Sept. 29.—Lincoln is putting on her gayest apparel for the welcome to President Taft next Monday. Committees are rapidly working out the details necessary to a big reception, and if the day is fair an immense crowd of Nebraska people will see and hear the nation's chief.

The Lincoln Commercial Club and other civic organizations, now at work on the preliminaries of the reception, hope to make this a welcome of the state to the distinguished guest. He will here be in the capitol of the state. Here he will be greeted by the senators and representatives of the state. Here Governor Aldrich will extend him a welcome in the name of the state and its people. Here he will be greeted by citizens of every county in the state. Lincoln's welcome will be the state's welcome.

President Taft will reach Lincoln at 12 o'clock noon, Monday, October 2, 1911. Received by a reception committee, of which Elmer J. Barkett is chairman, he will be conducted to the Lincoln Hotel where he will lunch as guest of the Lincoln Commercial Club. He will then be driven by automobile east on O street to Sixteenth street, and south to M street, and west to the auditorium at Thirteenth and M streets. The big auditorium will be thrown open to the general public. The president's escort of honor will be G. A. R. veterans, and the Lincoln post issues a cordial invitation to all G. A. R. men of the state to participate with them in this capacity.

Captain H. E. Yates and the university cadets will assist in keeping the streets open along the line of march, so that the president may greet and be greeted by the thousands of people who desire to see him. The university cadet band, and the Lincoln concert band and a fife and drum corps of the G. A. R., will furnish the music for the parade.

The president will speak about three-quarters of an hour, and will then be conducted back to his private train, which will proceed westward on his trip.

The men in charge of this reception have this to say of the president's visit:

Ex-Senator Burkett, chairman of the reception committee.

"We are trying to make the welcome here a state-wide affair. We want the co-operation of all Nebraska. Lincoln is easily accessible to thousands who want to see and hear President Taft, and I have every reason to believe there will be a great gathering on our streets to welcome him."

A. H. Armstrong, Mayor of Lincoln:

"The gates of the city are wide open. We want all the people of Nebraska to feel that here in the capital of the state, the president is being welcomed by the state."

George J. Woods, president Lincoln commercial club:

"Lincoln business men want to co-operate with the people of the entire state in this welcome to the president."

Arthur Bowring of Merriman spent Saturday attending to some business matters here.

There was a dance at the Adamson school house south of town last Saturday night. Several from Valentine went out for a good time.

In A. John & Co's. display window there is a head of cabbage weighing 22 pounds, grown by John Borman. This is not a freak or an unusual size for the cabbage family to attain on Mr. Borman's place and he has others as large and solid.

Joe Ablallah lies at his home suffering with a broken knee-cap. While out hunting with A. John Sunday he was kicked by one of the horses. The knee-cap was broken in half on the right knee, letting out some of the joint water. Mr. Ablallah has about an even chance for recovery without any stiffness in the knee.
