reflection. RASH ALL OVER BABY'S BODY

Itched So He Could Not Sleep

"On July 27, 1909, we left Boston for a trip to England and Ireland, taking baby with us. After being in Ireland a few days a nasty rash came out all over his body. We took him to a doctor who gave us medicine for him. The trouble started in the form of a rash and was all over baby's body, head and face, at different times. It irritated, and he would scratch it with all his might. The consequence was it developed into sores, and we were afraid it would leave nasty scars on his face.

"When we reached England we took baby to another doctor, who said his condition was due to change of food and climate, and gave more medicine. The rash got no better, and it used to itch and burn at night so bad that the child could not sleep. He was completely covered with it at different nw times. It was at this time that my mother advised us to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment for about nine months the places disappeared. There are not any scars, or -other kind of disfigurement, and baby is completely cured by the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We have no further trouble with baby's skin. Nothing stopped the itching, and allowed baby to sleep but Cuticura Soap and "Cuticura Ointment." (Signed) Mrs. Margaret Gunn, 29 Burrell St., Roxbury, Mass., March 12, 1911.

Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere, a sample -of each, with 32-page book, will be mailed free on application to Cuti-«cura," Dept. 14 K, Boston.

was his copyright and imitations were 177.2 52.61 30.55 prohibited. Seeing a building in Paris some time afterwards which had just been completed, the architect thought 72.87 that the facade, which was also of colored bricks, was nothing but an 179.55 imitation of his own. He began a 17.86 lawsuit against the owner and the architect for infringement of the copy-74.68 right laws, but soon afterward he died. His heirs, however, continued 15.84 the lawsuit, which has now been decided by the court. Three experts were called. They agreed that the facade of the house at Boulogne-sur-Seine was peculiar, and might even be allowed the protection of the copyright laws; but, on the other hand, the house built in Paris was equally original and there was no proof that it had been copied from the others. The architect, or rather his heirs, therefore, lost their case. 12.1

The making of wine is said to have originated with the Persians, who discovered the process quite by accident. One of their earliest kings, Jensheed, who, it is said, was only five or six generations from Noah, was the discoverer, or rather a woman of his household was.

Popovers .--- Ingredients two cupfuls of milk, two cupfuls of flour, two eggs (whites and yolks beaten separately,) salt to taste.

Mix salt and flour well together. Put the beaten yolks with the milk and then add them slowly to the flour, making a smooth batter. Then turn in the whipped whites, folding these gently into the mixture. Put the batter immediately into hot greased pans, half filling them, and bake in hot oven for thirty minutes. As popovers fall when cold they must be eaten as soon as baked.

Raised Cornbread .-- Ingredients one cupful of fine sifted cornmeal, one and a half cupfuls of milk, two eggs, one tablespoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of baking powder, one teaspoonful of sugar, salt.

Scald the milk and pour it over the meal. Let cool and then add the butter (melted), salt, sugar, baking powder and yolks of eggs. Stir all together quickly and thoroughly; and then fold in the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Bake in a flat pan in a hot oven for thirty minutes.

Canape Careme.

A fanciful concoction is "canape Careme," which calls for the chopped meat of half a small lobster, a truffle and two tiny pickles. Dredge them with pepper and salt and mix all with two tablespoonfuls of mayonnaise dressing. Spread the mixture over round pieces of toast about two inches in diameter and decorate the center of each canape with half a teaspoonful of caviare.
