Did You See It?
About twenty people have called at this office the past week to see the picture of the writer of the "Husband Wanted" letter in last week's Democrat. Some have said they would write and ask a few questions, etc. Others only smiled and looked guilty. We have not learned yet just who will be the favored one, but from talk we have heard, the second third and fourth callers have a bout an equal show. It may be well to state here that this Miss Hutchinson was born and raised in Kentucky and has never been west of the Mississippi, and so far as known has no relatives in Nebraska.

A Bank Draft is the safest, cheapest and most convenient and business like method for sending money through the mails. Safest because paid only upon your order. If lost or destroyed you can easily get a duplicate. When paid it is filed away in our fireproof vault and furnishes a legal receipt of payment made.

The cost is very small—much less than for money orders. No application blank to fill out. No "red tape" of any kind. Domestic and Foreign drafts issued in any amount.

Theobaldi Concert.
All music-loving people should avail themselves of the rare opportunity of hearing the world famous violinist, Ole Theobaldi, who will appear in Quigley's Hall on Tuesday night, October 17.
It is very seldom that we have an opportunity of listening to one of the world's greatest musical artists and especially the successor of Ole Bull whose violin Theobaldi will use in his local engagement.
Theobaldi will be supported by Mme. Dorothea North recognized as one of the foremost young soprano vocalists in Europe. Mme.
North possesses a voice of rare purity and clearness of tone and was one of Alexander Heineman's favorite pupils. Theobaldi has also with him Landborg, Norway's greatest pianist.

The following is what some of the world's greatest papers say in regard to Theobaldi:
"It is incomprehensible how he can make the rustle of leaves and the sound of the waterfall."—Petit Journal (Paris, France)
"When Theobaldi played the music of Ole Bull and Paganini, it seemed as though the masters of former days were themselves playing."—Nowje Wremje (St.
Petersburgh, Russia).
"It appeared to the musicians there as a reminiscence of the days of Remenyi and Ole Bull." Chicago Record Herald.
