NOW IS THE TIME.

(From The Columbus Telegram.)

So frequently the value of organization has been demonstrated to the democrats of Nebraska that there is no longer any call for argument in support of a proved fact.

By reason of circumstances not to be charged to anybody in particular the work of democratic organization was very much delayed this year, and only now has the work been well started. But there is a master workman in charge, and the work will go forward, rapidly, even though begun so late. However, the best of organizers in politics cannot carry upon their individual shoulders the burden of an effective political working force. And so it is—being fully conversant with the situation—that The Telegram makes earnest appeal to the democrats of the state to come instantly to the elbow of Chris Gruenther, president of the Nebraska Democratic club, and give him the assistance to which he is entitled. He did not seek the office of president of the club. He appealed to the conferring power to give the office to another. But the democracy of the state with one accord persistently insisted that he was the one man for the place, and at last he yielded to entreaty and took up the delayed work of organization. He is doing more than any other could do, but he needs help. He needs the help of every democrat in Nebraska who has been in the habit of taking part in campaign work. He needs that help right now. The Telegram believes that the working democrats of the state will go instantly to the help of President Gruenther just as soon as they can be made to believe that he needs them. The Telegram knows that he needs them, and needs them now. The democratic press of the state can do great service to the cause by urging the party workers in all the counties to get instantly in touch with President Gruenther and the Nebraska Democratic club. A perfect organization will accomplish much this year, and much more for next year.

The sole object of the Nebraska Democratic club is to promote real democratic principles and to aid in the election of democratic candidates, and should have the support of every democrat in the state.

Col. John G. Maher, formerly a well known resident of this county, now of Lincoln, was in the city the first of the week on business. Since leaving Valentine, Col. Maher has become a national figure in the political world. To him is given the honor of launching the political campaign of Governor Harmon and he is at present the Nebraska manager of the Harmon forces.

THERE is a great deal of difference in fountain pens. A cheap and nasty fountain pen wastes your time and temper, besides wasting your money.

It does not pay us to sell a bad fountain pen, for a pen is man's closest companion, and he often judges our other goods by the pen we've sold him. Therefore, we sell only the best fountain pens—the kind that will make a good impression on you and bring you to this store as a regular customer.
