Make Somebody Happy with a KODAK

Home memories that are cherished most are those of the great home day—Christmas. Better than mere memory, though, is the pictured story of the family reunion, the happy children, the gay young folks, the grown-up boys and girls back home again. The pictures taken with the Christmas Kodak will give pleasure the whole year round and for all the years to come.

Let us show you the simple Kodak way which makes picture-taking so much fun. We have Kodaks at $5, others up to $65.

Arthur Bowering of Merriman was down Monday on business before the special term of district court.
Leone Anderson accompanied G. H. Hornby to University Place last week where she will visit with Miss Helen.
E. Stillwell was in from his ranch on Hackberry lake Saturday attending to some insurance matters.

Mrs. George Lamb and Miss Hazel Graven of Long Pine, visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Johnson.
August Thieme of near Purdum came to Valentine on business Saturday. He has secured a position in Chas. Brinda's tailor shop.
James Carr was up from Red Deer Tuesday attending to some matters in connection with his naturalization papers.

L. C. Peters of the Canton Bridge Co., was here the first of the week conferring with the county commissioners.
Mrs. George Christopher is seriously ill at her home near Simeon. A trained nurse came up from Omaha Sunday.
Dr. A. J. Plumer formerly a wealthy ranch owner in Mother Lake precinct, was in town on business this week.

Capt. Fischer of Chadron was in town Wednesday having come down from Cheyenne where he had been working on some important cases.
A man and woman, giving the name of Sailor, were arrested last week at a local rooming house and charged with disorderly conduct. The man was fined $10 and costs Tuesday which he paid. The couple immediately left town, going in opposite directions.

Annie L. Sullivan of Omaha, and Augustine P. Murphy of Banner, were married at 8 o'clock, Nov. 25, at St. Philomena's Catholic church in Omaha. Rev. Father Stenson officiating. Only relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will make their home at Banner, Nebr.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Quigley and Judge and Mrs. J. C. Quigley will start next Monday on a tour to the Gulf coast where they expect to visit until about Christmas studying the merits of a winter residence. Mrs. J. C. Quigley goes this week to visit her parents at Wahoo.
George F. Beaman of Lincoln was here Wednesday in the interest of the Redpath Chautauqua Co., and put up a proposition to the business men to hold a chautauqua here during the summer. The movement is meeting with good support and should be boosted by everyone.

L. C. Sparks is improving in health.
Mr. and Mrs. Alva Green went up to Merriman to spend Thanksgiving.
Pete Hoffman of Nenzel was in town yesterday. He likes to meet his old friends and enjoys a few good stories to remember the occasion.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Improvement Club will be held on Dec. 7th, in the court room.
Mrs. C. H. Cornell entertained at "500" on Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Elden Sparks. The favors were symbolic of Thanksgiving.
Rev. Basil Hunt died suddenly of apoplexy at his home near Cody on Tuesday. He is survived by a wife and ten children. The funeral will be held at Merriman today (Tuesday).

On account of the storm not very many farmers listened to the excellent address given by W. E. Taylor on Tuesday. Several farmers from near by districts and the high school pupils were present in a body and were delighted with his talk.
St. Nicholas' Church.
Services will be held in the Catholic church as follows:

In Nenzel on Friday, Dec. 8, Feast of the Immaculate Conception of the B. V. M.
LEO M. BLAERE, Rector.

Stockmen—Attention!
Owing to the severe cold weather and the snowstorm last Tuesday, the date heretofore set for the meeting of Cherry county stockmen to be held at the district court room in Valentine, said meeting was postponed until Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 9, 1912, at 2 o'clock p. m.

It is important to each cattle owner in Cherry county to keep this date in mind and make it a point to attend the meeting without fail. Matters of interest and importance to stockmen will be taken up and discussed and a more permanent organization of cattlemen effected.
GEORGE CHRISTOPHER,
Pres. of the Ass'n.

Henry Stehr, convicted of manslaughter in connection with the death of his 3-year-old stepson, Kaurt Stehr, whose feet were frozen in the New Year's blizzard last winter, was denied a new trial Tuesday and sentenced by Judge Welch to serve an indeterminate sentence of from one to ten years in the state penitentiary. If released before ten years it will be on the order of the state board of pardons. Stehr will be taken to prison the first of next week.

The death of Stehr's stepson was alleged to have been due to inhuman treatment. Kaurt Stehr died last January following amputation of both feet, which had been frozen and allowed to rot with gangrene before a physician was called.
Mrs. Stehr probably will be tried for manslaughter at the January session she having also been indicted by the grand jury last spring as an accessory to the death of Kaurt Stehr.

The primary room of the Crookston school will give a "Riley program," followed by a basket social and home-made candy sale on Dec. 8th, at Woodman Hall. The proceeds will be used for purchasing new desks for the primary room.
