Washington News

By C. H. TAVENNER special Washington correspondent.

By what possibility could the United states become involved in trouble with foreign nations by participating in the celebration of Lake Champlain? Or by sending delegates to the International Congress of Collisions and Salvage? Or by having a representative at the meeting of the International Seismological association, which has to do with earthquakes?

Congressman Courtney W Hamlin, of Missouri, has asked the Republicans of the House for an answer to these queries. He has a reason.

President Taft and Secretary of State knox spent large sums of money for above mentioned purposes, and when Mr. Hamlin, as chairman of the committee on Expenditures in the State Department, asked how the money was spent he was denied all information. "We couldn't possibly give you any information as to these expenditures," declared Mr. Taft and Mr. Knox, in chorus, "could not possibly think of it! You see, these expenditures were made under a statute which permits us to withhold all details on the ground that it might involve us in trouble with foreign nations!"

Mr. Hamlin said he found that the State Department spent $125,-000 secretly every year, and he declared it was ridiculous to assert that some of the things for which this money was spent "might involve us in trouble with foreign nations." "We of course do not know," said Mr. Hamlin, "whether the $10,000 expenditure authorized by secret certificate, of President Taft, for participation in the Mr. Norten, who was lately secrecelebration of the Discovery of Lake Champlain was spent for the writer hastens to answer, as folpurpose appropriated or not, but lows: Mr. Norten is alright. It is only automobile hire, banquetings, a short jump, after all, from wine, etc. "To permit any man, even though he be the president of the path is much traveled, both the United States, to spend an average of $339 45 of the people's money each and every day of the year, without compelling him to account to anybody as to how, and for what purpose he expended this money, does not accord with my idea of properly regarding the treasury."

The Stanley steel investigating committee will continue its probe of the trust. The efforts of Wall street to bring the investigation to a halt have failed. It being ob vious that the House will not heed the command of special privilege to stop the inquiry, it is doubtful now whether the proposition of forcing the investigating committe to abandon its inquiry will even come up on the floor of the House. But if the attempt is made, it is certain that the House will stand by the committee and order it to proceed with the hearings. This marks a new order of things. In the past the steel trust has been able to have bills side tracked, delayed, and finally chloroformed in committees of the House. All this is today impossible.

thing occured in Washington during the week following the convening of the present session of Congress on Dec. 4, although the country may have been too busy of John D. Rockefeller and other to have noticed it.

The Democratic House met on every one of the six days following the opening day, remaining in session throughout each day, every moment consumed in real the lamps. This policy is in con- men maintaining them had violat-

In the meantime, of $20.83 per day, $156 per week and on, the people paying the bill.

The new policy simply means this, that the Democrats mean basiness.

"If anybody thinks this will be a 'do-nothing' Congress they are badly mistaken," was the answer made by Champ Clark to the proposition that the Democrats proposed to devote the present session to efforts to "put the Republicans in a hole," so as to strengthen their own position for next year.

"The Democratic party made | joined. the definite promise to give the people relief from conditions which have come to be regarded as intolerable," the speaker continued. "The best way for us to play politics is to carry to a conclusion, in-so-far as we are able, the excellent record we have already made. The people are looking to us for the accomplishment, rather than for strategy, and we need have no fear of the future if we go along with our program as we have started." Mr. Clark has been telling his co-workers in the House that if the party goes to dilly-dallying around, trying to put the President, and the standpatters, and the insurgents in a deep, dark hole, the result will be more disastrous to the hole diggers than to those whom they might intend to engulf therein.

Mr. Clark, in other words, realizes that the present is his party's opportunity, and that the best way to take advantage of it is through action, rather than with attempts to shift the blame to the other fellow.

Somebody wrote to Washington to ask what had become of tary to President Taft. The retaries and is now in one of Mr. White House to Wall street, and coming and going.

The Chicago beef barons, charged with conducting a trust to squeeze the people on the price of beef, declare they are innocent, which would lead one to think that they would be in a hurry to get to trial. Query: Have they been battling in one court after another for nine years just to keep the public from finding out that they are innocent?

The President's Message.

In his annual message the president says: "It has been said that the court, by introducing into the construction of the statute common law distinctions, has emasculated it. This is obviously untrue. By its judgment every contract and combination in restraint of interstate trade made with the purpose or necessary effect of controlling prices by stifling competition, or of establishing in whole or in part a monoply of such trade, is condemned by the statute. The most extreme critics can not instance a case that An entirely unprecedented ought to be condemned under the statute which is not brought within its terms as thus construed."

If that is true then why has Mr. Taft neglected to cause the arrest Standard Oil leaders, together with the Tobacco trust magnates, under the criminal clause of the Sherman anti-trust law? The supreme court in the oil and tobacco decisions declared that work, until it was time to light these particular trusts and the
