Valentine

David Hanna was up from Wood Lake on Thursday.

S. B. Weston was over from St. Francis, S. D., on Tuesday.

T. C. Clark and George Marcus were down from Rosebud Monday.

Harry Beauchamp of Chesterfield was here on business this week.

Mrs. George Lamoureux went to Calome, S. D., Monday for a short visit.

George Stotts and T. E. Reynolds came down from Cody Sunday night.

P. C. Shockley of Brownlee came to Valentine last week on business.

Miss Winnifred Keeley spent the past week visiting friends out south of Arabia.

Geo. E. Hornby has resigned his position as teacher of a school near Johnstown and is now visiting in Valentine.

F. M. Walcott returned from Omaha Tuesday night and on Wednesday made a trip to Rosebud on legal business.

Cramer & Johnson, real estate agents, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Johnson retains the office on Main street.

J. M. Tucker went to Lincoln the first of the week to take the depositions of George and Alma Weed, Harry Heath and Kenneth Murphy for use before the grand jury.

Through an oversight we gave notice of Catholic services in Arabia on February 11th, and it should have been Nenzel. Remember Catholic services at Nenzel on February 11.

The Commercial club committee interviewed Mr. Sherman about opening the post office after the evening passenger and Mr. Sherman agreed to open the office for fifteen minutes after the mail from the evening train was distributed.

Miss Van Ordol's classes gave a party at the home of Clair McLeod on Friday night. The evening was spent in playing games and the children had a delightful time. The boys provided dainty refreshments. There were more than forty young folks present.

It is expected that with the opening of Spring weather a number of Indian houses will be erected on the Rosebud Indian reservation, and contractors or others who desire to bid on such constructions will have an opportunity to do so by submitting their names and addresses to the Superintendent of the Rosebud Indian Agency, Rosebud, So. Dak.

Charles F. Junod of the firm of Mann & Junod of Omaha, general agents of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Milwaukee, is in the city this week visiting I. M. Rice, the local agent for that company.

Mr. Junod reports that the Northwestern Mutual wrote $2,018,200 of new insurance in 1911 on the lives of Nebraskans. The company closed the year of 1911 with $121,234,473, of new business throughout the United States. It is one of the old Western Life Insurance Companies, established in 1857 and now has $1,147,273,523 of insurance in force with its assets totaling $285,575,219.

This Company believes in the future of Nebraska and has $3,852,621 loaned on Nebraska real estate and to its policy holders. Its policies are written on the annual dividend basis and its contract contains everything that is desirable in life insurance.

Simeon

Robert Ellis reports a shortage of coal since the recent cold wave.

Mrs. C. W. Bennett was visiting at Frank Ballard's last week.

C. A. Daniels is finishing his house on his Kinkaid. J. E. Thackrey is doing the carpenter work. Carl seems to take a new interest in his claim recently.

Lineas Gheens made final proof on his homestead Tuesday. Messrs Young and Spall were his witnesses. When returning from town he had the misfortune to fall from the freight wagon sustaining serious injuries. However he is on the road to recovery.

Ground Hog day has come and gone. He saw his shadow, which means more winter. Some of our settlers had planned to cause a large smoke so he would not be able to see his shadow, but their plans failed hence more cold waves.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillon of Oakdale, Nebr., who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Dillon's sister, Mrs. Grey Miller, returned to their home Friday. They have visited here before and we would not be surprised to hear that they decided to make Cherry county their future home.

Mrs. C. S. Reece made a business trip to Simeon Tuesday. She had in her possession a square box with a handle. Would the merchant buy them? He would be pleased to do so. Much interest was manifested by the bystanders. After a careful examination it was found that the box contained 11 dozen fresh eggs.

The Ranchers' Winter Song.
Forward, turn forward, O Time in your flight,
Bring us sweet June days just for a fortnight;
Over these snow drifts let mild zephyrs creep,
Lull me to sleep summer, lull me to sleep.

Summer, come back from that far distant shore,
The sun we will round up again as of yore;
Over my saddle horse mosquitoes will creep;
Lull me to sleep summer, lull me to sleep.

Re-stock our meadows with hay stacks so fair;
Relegate blizzards to the land of now-are;
From morning till night stop the hay wagon's creep;
Lull me to sleep summer, lull me to sleep.

Forward, go forward O time with a snort,
I am so weary of hay being short;
Weary of waiting a harvest to reap,
Lull me to sleep summer, lull me to sleep.

Summer, dear summer, you've been gone so long,
Thought up to the present the herd's fine and strong.
Please bring on the grass with a hurricane sweep;
Ease me to sleep summer, ease me to sleep.
