If you have contest notices or final proof notices you can have them printed in THE DEMOCRAT if it is as near your land as any other paper. Ask to have your legal notices published in THE DEMO-CRAT and call and see us. This is a late ruling of the commissioner of the U. S. land office that the register and receiver of the U. S. land offices are not to discriminate politically between newspapers.
After sixteen years of almost absolute control of final proof and sale notices by the local registers and receivers, they are now notified to desist from the practice. It has built up the republican newspapers and made slim picking for the democratic papers, while the homesteaders paid the bill.

Let Him Off Cheap.

"In the spring of 1870," said Colonel Mike Connelly, a noted newspaper man of Memphis, at the Renner. "I was in the little town of Lampasas, in the Long Star State, and while waiting to take a stage for Austin went into a barber shop on the main street of the village. The proprietor seemed a very friendly citizen and I was impressed with his air of kindness and good humor. He was so mild mannered that I wondered while he was lathering me if he were not a Sunday school superintendent. While still revolving this speculation he suddenly laid down the razor and, catching up a vicious looking six shooter from a table, murmured 'Excuse me, sir, for just a minute, but there goes a chap I've got to settle with,' and thereupon he dashed into the street. Before I could climb down from the chair the report of a Colt's '45 reverberated on the air. I didn't know what trouble might ensue, and so concluded to stay where I was, but in a trice my barber was back, as smiling as ever and, begging my pardon profusely, resumed operations on my face.

"I didn't want to kill the dirty prosser, indeed," said he in relating the episode, "but just sent one bullet into his left eye." Baltimore American

The ladies are improving these nice days by renewing the social life of the community.

There is evidence that a ladies' club will soon be organized. This is a step in the right direction.
With the modern conveniences enjoyed by most of our rural people, a ladies' meeting would almost do away with the monotony which has been the bane of the country woman's life.

Our ranchers are studying a new phase of agriculture. They have been taught how to make two blades of grass grow where but one grew before. Also how to grow two ears of corn where only a small nubbin grew before. Now they are grappling with the problem of making one ton of hay feed where two tons fed before. And to make matters worse February has 29 days.

We tried to find another item, but there was nothing new. We can't talk politics. Real estate does not begin to move until in March or April. There were no business transactions of importance. No entertainments. No candidates in this neighborhood.
The ducks have not started north yet. The fish will not bite. There is nothing but fine days, quiet and peace prevailing around Simeon.

IN order to furnish proper banking protection, President Lincoln and his first congress established the National Bank which operates under government supervision.

From time to time additional laws have been passed under the different presidents shown above strengthening the protection a National Bank affords.

Thus the confidence and security that comes with the possession of money in the bank is greatly enhanced when it is in a National Bank, for here it has every safe-guard possible for human ingenuity to devise.

In selecting a bank in which to deposit your savings or surplus funds the one thing to be considered is safety, and we ask for your business only on the basis of absolute safety. Call at our bank and let us explain to you how safe your money is here.

JUST A REMINDER OF SOLID LAND.

What a Seasick Statesman Desired Above All Things.

A few years ago the late Senator Carmack of Tennessee was put on a special committee of the senate to make some sort of cruise in Boston harbor. The senator from Tennessee was not used to big bodies of water, for they are not to be found in the section of the country he came from.

The vessel had not been tugging with the billows long before Mr. Carmack began to get a trifle sick, and in a short while he found it necessary to slip away to some place where he could repose himself. The man in command of the vessel had instructed one of the men under him to look out for the comfort of the members of the distinguished party. Knowing that Mr. Carmack was violently seasick, having helped him to his room, the man went back to see how he was getting along.

He found the senator rolling and tossing on the couch of the stateroom to which he had been assigned.
"Is there anything you want?" he asked the senator, after indulging in the conventional ceremonies.
"Yes," said the senator, as he pulled himself together. "I would give anything in the world right now for a pinch of dry dirt."
