M. W. A. CONVENTION

defeat the putting into effect of raise but was not in favor of secession. The purpose of the Hastings camp was too radical a measure and favored the call of the Columbus camp to appeal to the Head camp to delay putting into effect the new rates until a vote can be had at another meeting, or to ratify by a vote of the members in each lodge. Wanted to get an injunction against officers of Head camp and get a revision at another meeting. The rates were illegally raised and that the members were not duly notified of such contemplated action. Delegates were not elected for that purpose and that such matters should be fully understood when delegates were elected and the contemplated raise stated.

Max E. Viertel stated that he was in full harmony with the meeting in everything that had been said but thought we were in a measure to blame for not paying more attention at the time the raise was talked.

Mr. Kuble had visited a lodge at Galena, Ill., and that they were opposed to the Mobile bill and were working bitterly against it.

Mr. Quible had learned that incidental to the cause of several states passing such a law Talbot had been found to be lobbying for it.

Mr. Musser had a grown up family but his wife, yet strong and healthy, might need protection and his rate being too high was opposed to the raise. Would be satisfied with a reasonable raise but the raise was unjust and uncalled for.

Ben White spoke of the local committee on entertainment being disappointed by the mumps and other important business preventing them from doing what they had intended but said there would be supper at the Commercial hotel and had provided a box of Robert Burns.

B. E. White, an old member in the order thought our reserve fund was best appreciated in the hands of each member as in the past. He requested that the secretary make a record of I. M. Rice's talk to the Woodmen, which, briefly, was along the lines of what already has been said and explanatory of why the Woodmen order has been popular with the people.

Naylor says we don't want to secede but we do want to successfully fight the raise in rates.

On motion a committee of three, including the chairman, were appointed to draft resolutions embodying the sense of this meeting.

On motion two delegates were elected to send to the Columbus assembly, they to choose their alternates—Max E. Viertel, who chose I. M. Rice alternate, and Arthur Bowring, who chose J. F. Naylor his alternate.

On motion the resolutions were ordered sent to every camp in the county, asking them to help defray expenses in sending delegates to the Columbus assembly March 18, 1912.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

We, the resolutions committee, appointed by the Woodmen Assembly of the M. W. A., Cherry county, Neb., assembled at Merriam, Nebr., March 9, 1912, beg to submit the following:

First—Whereas, we consider the order consists of its members, that they generally have been ignored in the readjustment of rates, and that they should be considered in any readjustment, as has been the custom heretofore.

Second—We are opposed to the Mobile bill as detrimental to Fraternal societies, and ask the hearty cooperation of all members to oppose the same.

Third—We are opposed to the creation of a reserve fund more than specified in the proposed W. A. by-laws.

Fourth—Further, that the delegates to the Buffalo head camp were not instructed and were totally ignorant of the fact that they would be called upon to adjust rates, therefore were not qualified to act.

Fifth—We are opposed to secession. All we ask is fair play to old and young alike. Therefore be it

RESOLVED; That it is the sense of this meeting, that we cooperate with the state assembly called to meet in Columbus, Neb., on March 18, 1912, for the purpose of opposing the exorbitant rates forced on the members of this order by the action of the adjourned head camp at Chicago, Ill., on Jan. 23, 1912, by sending delegates instructed to further these resolutions.
