S. Q. Spain reports the marriage Sunday evening of Nicholas Asher and Mrs. Roda Ruley.

P. H. Young, Lines Gheens, II. P. Clapp, Sam Hudson and Charley Latta were in town last Friday.

Bruce Moore spent a couple of days in the city this week. He is just recovering from a spell of typhoid fever.

Ernest J. Cabana has purchased the Owl saloon of G. N. Hershey and will apply for license May 1. He comes here from Sioux City.

John Bowers, Sam Burget and John Wolf and family are going to Alberta, near Edmonton, and have been waiting several days to ship out.

D. M. Sears has bought a Buick and has been in town several days. Yesterday, he and Alex McAlevy started out home in their new autos.

Charley Sparks thinks he has the finest fox terrier in the state. He just got him from the east and says he's a registered pup and very valuable.

C. W. Cramer has sold his residence south of the Catholic church to Wm. Seaver and has purchased the John Bowers residence in the east part of town.

George Tobien stopped in Valentine a couple of days visiting relatives and friends last week, returning to Crawford Sunday night, having been to Omaha with stock.

Anson Newberry and wife and Mrs. Mary Carter of Cody were in the city Saturday on business. Mr. Newberry has been quite ill the past winter but is getting stronger.

Jim Hull and wife are visiting in town. They live in Hudson, Wyo., and Mrs. Hull met Jim here, returning from a visit in Iowa where she has been since the last of November.

George Rose of Merriman was in the city Tuesday on business. He has sold his business in Merriman to Dick Lessert and will take up the Ford auto to sell and expected a car at Cody today.

John Kazda and wife are home from the Pacific coast, where they spent the winter. Mrs. Kazda stopped in Northeast Colorado for a few days' visit and arrived yesterday. John got back Friday.

C. A. Lovejoy and sons have purchased a 45-horse power Avery auto truck to use on the hay flats, hauling. They loaded it with all the men and boys they could get onto it and hauled them around town Friday, but broke a chain going out to the ranch when they got into the deep sand. They have wide flanges on the wheels but don't seem to work very well in the sand. They are going to try a wide flat surface flange.

Clarkson-Jennerjahn.

August John Paul Jennerjahn and Miss Vivian Clarkson were united in marriage Wednesday evening, April 3, 1912 at 6 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church by the Rev. D. B. Ralston, in the presence of relatives and a number of friends. The ring ceremony was used.

The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, and the guests were seated when the bridal party marched down the aisle to the strains of Lohengren wedding march, played by Miss Gertrude Quigley, the minister leading, followed by little Irene Clarkson, bearing the ring upon a plate of cut glass, the bridegroom accompanied by Mrs. Clarkson and the bride resting upon the arm of her father, W. D. Clarkson, and followed by Miss Flora, sister of the bride, and F. A. Cumbow.

Without going into details of wearing apparel, of which in particular we are not able to describe, the wedding was the most beautiful and pleasant ceremony we've witnessed recently.

Many guests were present and found autos in waiting, conveying the party to the Clarkson home, where refreshments were served and guests congratulated the bridal couple. At eight o'clock the party met at Quigley's hall and spent the evening pleasantly in dancing to Kreycik's orchestra music.

The newly wed departed this morning on No. 6 for Wisconsin to visit with relatives of the bridegroom and spend their honeymoon. Many beautiful and valuable presents were received.
