VALENTINE LOCALS

Remnant sale at the Red Front.

E. Barnes had business in town last week.

Ed Heelan has rented the Gerber ranch of Messrs. Ruby and Kuhn.

John Stetter spent several days in Omaha the past week on business.

William Harnan, candidate for representative, was in town yesterday.

George and William Roan of Wood Lake were in town Tuesday on business.

Judge Walcott returned Sunday night from a business trip to Washington, D. C.

John Grange and son, Howard, of Oasis, and Wm. Hobbs of Simeon were in town Monday.

J. W. Daniels and Grandpa Davis came in Monday with a wagon load of potatoes from near Oasis.

Neil Hanna came up Monday and says they have some hay but not much and most of their stock is on the range.

Ross Rash, Helen Jacobson and Glenn Gealy, the Gordon high school debating team, won the debate with Chadron.

C. W. Lattin has 6 or 7 bushels of artichokes which he offers at $1.00 per bushel, or $1.00 per peck Valentine, Neb.

Morris Walker and Mitchell De Sersa were callers at our office while in town Monday. Mr. De Sersa is a carpenter at Rosebud agency.

Fred Schaffer, who was taken to the pen last October, sentenced to three years for taking a suit case and suit of clothes from Charles Gassan, escaped Sunday night.

It is with deep sorrow that we received the news from our early home at Kandolph, Kan., of the death of Peter Heller and S. P. Johnson, both old pioneers of that place.

Cyrus Hagen, Wm. Gulick and J. S. Burleigh were up from Wood Lake Monday. Mr. Hagen is the assessor in Wood Lake precinct and enrolled for The Democrat while in our city.

A band concert will be given in Quigley's hall Friday night, April 26, 1912, by Weber's band. Dance after the concert. Everybody invited. Good music and a good time guaranteed.

The speakers, who went from here to the declamatory contest held at Chadron last Thursday night, returned with honors, Spray Gardner having won out in the oratorical division. Misses Minnie Adamson and Gussie Graeff also did well and received high markings.

Last Thursday a lever of our newspaper press broke as we were about half through printing the last side and we called upon our neighbor Breuklander, the village blacksmith, for repairs. Charley, the son, came over and put a couple of ankle braces upon the injured member and the press now works as before. Charley is a good, honest worker and if he will stick to the business is bound to win out.

$200 REWARD

will be paid for information that will lead to the conviction of the party or parties who burned four stacks of hay on the old Gulp place, 4 miles north and 1/2 miles west of Sparks, Neb., on the night of March 15, 1912.

JOHN H. NEISS,

144 Valentine, Neb.

Simeon.

J. W. Daniels was a Valentine visitor Monday.

W. L. Cohee was hauling corn for C. S. Reece lately.

Miss Moore attended the wedding of her friend, Miss Vivian Clarkson, last week.

An Easter party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harms. The children invited their young friends and an all round good time was enjoyed.

Mrs. Crowe of the Simeon school has moved on her homestead. We have not learned if school will be reopened. The fever caused it to be closed.

Miss Andrews is preparing a program for the close of her school. She has given splendid satisfaction and will leave a number of warm friends when she leaves us.

P. H. Young has been very busy with his county assessor's work lately. This is Mr. Young's last year and he desires to leave the affairs of his office in first class condition. He has made Cherry county a good officer.

Mr. Hudson has been confined to his bed with an attack of la grippe. However, he has recovered sufficiently to partake of an Easter dinner at the Hobbs home. Such dinners as Miss Eve and her mother prepare may not cure la grippe but have a very beneficial effect on those they serve.

A. E. Spall has sold the Simeon store to H. F. Kime of Kennedy, who will take charge soon. Mr. Spall has not decided what he will do. We regret to see Bert and his wife leave our community but wish them success in their home. Mr. Kime will find a welcome among us and we believe he will do well in his new undertaking.

Don't Miss It.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Gazette says: Eugene Perry's production of "Our Village Postmaster" held the boards here last night to a delighted audience. Mr. Barrington as the Postmaster was a scream and the company as a whole was all that was expected.

At Quigley opera house, Thursday night, April 18.

The capitalists and money kings are behind Taft. It has been circulated by Frank Harrison of Lincoln that they were behind Roosevelt and certain other interests behind Taft, but be that as it may, if I were a republican I should support La Follette as the progressive and this I believe him to be. It is all bosh about Wall street backing Gov. Harmon. His whole record shows up to the contrary.

Women!

If weak, you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from gentle herbs, acts in a natural manner, and has no bad results, as some of the strong drugs sometimes used. As a medicine—a tonic—for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui has been a popular success for over 50 years.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Lula Walden, of Gramlin, S. C., followed this advice. Read her letter: "I was so weak, when I first began to take Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Now, I can do all the general housework for a family of 9." Try Cardui for your troubles. It may be the very remedy you need.
