Moses Warner is editor of the Lyons Mirror in Burt county. "Mosey," as his wife calls him, and as he is known around home, aims to be right and gets very enthusiastic at times for democracy, but just now is hollering' his head off for Wilson and Bryan's mule. We wonder how he'll take defeat and hope to let him down easy by suggesting that he make a parachute leap before the Bryan balloon gets into the brush.

"Mosey" Warner in the corner of this big old state,
Thinks he's willin' for the killin'
With the Bryan slate.

Mose is purely democratic
From the cellar to the attic,
But his leader is erratic,
And he's leading "Mosey" wrong.
We have fought straight from the shoulder,
'Long with "Mosey" 'till we're older,
For the great opinion moulder,
And to him we did belong.

When the leader of this nation,
In his brilliant conversation
Spoke aloud to all creation,
Saying, "Let the people rule,"
Millions vied with one another;
Crowded round almost to smother,
And they loved his younger brother,
And his democratic mule.

We had need of Mr. Bryan,
And for years we'd all been tryin',
Did our best for him to pry in;
Tried three times to make him land;
Wanted him for other places—
Governor and senate races—
Wouldn't take 'em, not by gracious!
But for president he'd stand.

Makes me sad to note the alling
Of each candidate availing,
As denounced by Bryan's railing,
Call attention if you will—
Not to slander, nor denote him,
Greater honors we would vote him—
But we now would like to quote him—
*Words from Edward Rowland Hill:

Now, let other standard bearers
Take the lead, and, we as wearers
Of the faith, that title wearers
Faithful unto little things,
Shall be chosen to inspire us,
And we don't like Bryan's virus—
Judson Harmon doesn't tire us—
He shall stand before the kings.

OPPORTUNITY.

This I beheld or dreamed it in a dream:
There spread a cloud of dust along the plain,
And underneath the cloud, or in it raged
A furious battle, and men yelled, and swords
Shocked upon swords and shields. A prince's banner
Wavered, then staggered backward,
hemmed by foes,
A cruel hung along the battle's edge,
And thought, "Had I sword of keener steel—
That blue blade that the king's son bears—
but this Blunt thing!" he snapped and flung it from
his hand,
And lowering crept away and left the field.
Then came the king's son—wounded, sore
bleaded
And weaponless—and saw the broken
sword,
Hit buried in the dry and trodden sand,
And ran and snatched it, and with battle
shout
Lifted afresh, he hewed the enemy down,
And saved a great cause that heroic day.
—Philadelphia North American.

One week from tomorrow will be primary election day in Nebraska. When you vote your choice, considering the availability of the man to make a good race in your party, you will have acted wisely. Ex-Governor Shallenberger will make a strong race and will be a good man in the senate. Judson Harmon or Champ Clark should be your preference for candidate for president on the democratic ticket, or La Follette on the republican ticket if you are a progressive. We suggest this to you for earnest consideration. For governor, John H. Morehead is a strong candidate and will make a good governor we can believe because of the faithfulness of his work in previous positions, and his having lived the life that nearly all of us have experienced and wasn't born with a silver spoon in his mouth. It is everybody's interest to see that he is not defeated. Wm. Harnan, for representative of this district, will insure our interests protected as far as he is concerned. Ben A. Brewster, for state senator, will represent us correctly and we will have a live wire in him. We might name a few others, but for fear of being considered a dictator, we announce the foregoing as only a suggestion to those who will appreciate our thought.

The Gordon Journal came out last week with a new heading.

Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio will speak in Omaha Friday night. We would like to go and hear him.

Senator La Follette made a tour of Nebraska this week, making speeches to thousands of people, and was well received.

James A. Donohoe of O'Neill is the democratic candidate for congress of the Sixth congressional district subject to the primaries. He will make a strong race and your vote for him will need no apology.

Is it not time for the people to rule and cut out these arrogant bosses who have tried to dictate and rule or ruin? It's up to the voters to decide this. After the primary comes the convention at Baltimore. We will all then fall in line for the democratic nominees, whether they be our choice, your choice, or their choice. But let us act wisely in this selection to nominate men who stand some show to win in the election.

The people who call themselves the democratic progressive league are trying to have the Wilson delegates elected to the Baltimore convention and Mr. Bryan as one of those delegates announces that he will not support Governor Judson Harmon if the people of the state should vote their preference for him. The delegates who will support Governor Harmon or Champ Clark or any candidate we as voters should give the preference are G. M. Hitchcock, Tom Smith, Fred Volpp and Geo. L. Loomis. H. H. Belwood of Alliance, as our district delegate, will also be faithful to the people.

Will Maupin's Weekly came to our desk this week chock full of his writings which proclaim him to be a versatile man of Nebraska, where he has lived a quarter of a century. Mr. Maupin prints his picture, surrounded by his wife and six children, which he gives as seven of the many reasons why he wants to be elected state railway commissioner. He is a pleasant man to meet and his wide range of experience qualifies him for most any position requiring ability. Frank and honest, and an untiring worker, with a large family, a cheery disposition to do whatsoever his hand findeth to do, will make him a hard man to beat.

The Valentine Democrat hopes to offend no one who has a favorite candidate for any office. We, in expressing a favorable opinion of Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio, believe he is a strong candidate and at the time we did so it was not certain that Champ Clark would be a candidate. However, of late, since he got into the race, he seems to be running a close second to Mr. Harmon and may lead. That remains to be seen and we want to say that he will suit us as a candidate and we can endorse him as heartily as Gov. Harmon. Both have made good and they are great men. One for president and the other for vice-president would make just the team to suit us and they can win.

Mr. Bryan accused Parker of being Wall street's candidate in 1904, but the campaign of the year showed that he was wrong and that Mr. Parker was shamefully abused for no purpose but to gratify Bryan and give him the next nomination, only again to go down to defeat. If Mr. Bryan was as loyal to democracy as G. M. Hitchcock or Judson Harmon, we wouldn't have all this hullabaloo within our party at a time when victory is in sight. Now, candidly, shouldn't Mr. Bryan ease up a little and let the people rule? Instead of bracing him up in his dictation, should we not turn on a little cold air? If Mr. Bryan was right, would he make our chances stronger for winning out in such methods of denouncing Governor Harmon who gave Bryan loyal support in 1908 during his campaign for governor of Ohio in which he was elected by 19,000 and two years later by over 100,000. He represents a big following in the eastern states that will not take kindly to Mr. Bryan's onslaught and will defeat the party if Mr. Bryan is made the dictator. Much as we have loved Mr. Bryan, it is now necessary to discredit his action and set him straight. We can never win if he is permitted to rule and ruin, until he is silenced. He wouldn't run for U. S. senator two years ago. He wouldn't accept the nomination for governor of the state when it was offered him at Grand Island in 1902. Just now he is making speeches in Ohio against Harmon, saying he (Bryan) is an "elder in the Presbyterian church, and a high priest in the democratic party," and that he doesn't intend to retire. At the solicitation of his friends, Governor Judson Harmon will come to Omaha Friday of this week and will address the people, answering the criticisms of Bryan and Mike Harrington.

President Taft is strong in New York and Illinois. With a good candidate we stand a show to carry New York. Who can do it? Wilson is not strong in either state, nor in Ohio. Where then can he get votes sufficient to be elected? If he can't carry New York, Illinois nor Ohio, then it is most likely that he cannot carry any but the solid south. He couldn't carry Nebraska, nor Kansas, nor Iowa, nor Missouri. What's the use of going into the fight with a losing race? That's why we are not for Wilson and further we don't believe he stands any show of being nominated. Champ Clark can carry Nebraska and so can Gov. Harmon if Bryan will keep fighting him on the same grounds he has started. We believe Gov. Harmon is the strongest and most available candidate to carry the pivotal states that go to make a majority. Any of the candidates can carry the solid south but that won't be enough.

The Woodrow Wilson League of Nebraska and the Progressive Democratic League of Nebraska have endorsed the following four men as delegates to the democratic national convention at Baltimore: William J. Bryan, William H. Westover, George L. Loomis and I. J. Dunn. These delegates are all for Woodrow Wilson for president, and if he can not be nominated they favor Champ Clark as their second choice. The Woodrow Wilson candidates for delegates in this Sixth Congressional district are James W. Finnegan and Frank J. Taylor. Cut this out and take it to the polls with you on primary election day, April 19th.

Dr. M. F. Meer has decided to visit Wood Lake the first Monday and Tuesday of each month to do dental work.
