VALENTINE LOCALS

Ira Spencer and A. C. Stewart were in town Tuesday.

For Sale—100 feet of picket fence, painted and in good condition.—M. Christensen.

John Stetter installed a new billiard table Tuesday. The knights of the cue will rejoice.

Sylvester Roubideaux brought his wife down from Tripp county to consult Valentine physicians.

Pete Simons sold his grey team Monday to Clyde Kuskie for $300. Lester Green, we hear, also sold his team to one of the Grooms' for $315.

John Stetter and his wife moved their shop in the Union station. We regret to lose them.

A. O. Coleman was in town Tuesday. He says there's plenty of time to sow oats and wheat after the winter snows cease and the weeds have started to grow so as to give the grain a fair chance.

Two loaded wagons pulled up at the Chicago House Saturday evening and proceeded to unhitch without due reverence to the host. Their lodging over Sunday of $5 and $8, with a few extras, should be a gentle reminder for quiet behavior.

Wednesday, May 1, the Woman's Improvement Club will serve breakfast from 7 a. m. till 1:30 p. m., in the T. C. Hornby store building. Everybody turn out and give the ladies of this town encouragement in their efforts to raise money to build their opera house.

A "flying machine" was unloaded here last week, leastwise it was so labeled. Drayman Randall did the unloading, and it was some task, the machine weighing about 15 tons. After closer investigation of the machine if proved to be a 10 ft. ditcher, with which John Bachelor intends to drain the swamps on his home ranch.

C. A. Hamilton, the Omaha Bee solicitor, was in Valentine Wednesday taking orders for the Bee and a half dozen other machines, giving away maps and fountain pens. He worked us. Bob Thompson and J. W. Meredith were in our office and he worked them too. Even our faithful foreman did not escape. But they are all easy and still believe they got their money's worth. Come again, Bro. Hamilton.

Joe Boyer and Allen T. Forgy had a two days' trial of a land case before Judge Quigley Tuesday and Wednesday. Judges Harrington and Walcott were attorneys for Boyer, and Capt. Fisher and Tucker for Forgy. Boyer bought a quarter section of land of A. J. Anders about six years ago and believed at that time that it lay in a valley, as did Anders who filed upon the land. A government survey made by Sweitzer and Tufts since the purchase ran the lines leaving a considerable portion of the valley out, and threw this quarter partly in the hills. In the meantime Forgy had filed on the land adjoining and gets the valley according to the survey as established. Boyer is now trying to get the numbers of his land to include the valley which he and Anders thought it covered. The case will go to the general U. S. land office and will be watched with interest. Floyd Pool, Charles Long, Tom Boyer, Jones Kirk, Enoch Anders and Geo. F. Gruenig are witnesses for Boyer, and A. K. Johnson, V. S. Swan, John H. Jacobson and John Peterson for Forgy.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, April 23.—Cattle receipts were moderate, about 4,500 head, and two days' supply tails 2,500 sort of last Monday and Tuesday. Choice 1-450-pound heaves brought $8.35 and choice fat heifers sold as high as $7.50. Veal calves, bulls, stags, etc., were also in active demand and strong. Only a light supply of sheep and lambs showed up again today and under a keen demand from both local and outside buyers the market was active and strong all around. Choice Mexican lambs made a new high mark of $8.35, the highest since June, 1910.
