Champ Clark is Nebraska's first choice for president. Will Bryan now come out for that splendid Missouriian and do all in his power for him as a loyal delegate at large, or will he continue the "dog in the manger" course?

People who boast they don't read the newspapers often find themselves guessing at election results if they pay any attention to what's doing, and then in their disappointment dive into the newspapers to learn how it was done.

Bryan is campaigning for Wilson this week in Florida. He seems determined in his efforts to try to hold the presidential possibilities of the democratic party as nearly equal as possible to augment a fight in the convention. Perhaps he is looking for another stampede.

Did you notice the race Will Maupin made without a dollar investment, excepting to notify a few of his friends that he was a candidate for the office of railway commissioner. Everybody likes Maupin and his frank, honest way of putting things before the people.

Champ Clark is perhaps the most popular man in the democratic party and could easily be elected by the popular vote of the people. The present system of voting by states might defeat him if the republicans could unite upon a strong man, but they are at loggerheads also and have a worse fight on their hands than we.

Bryan refused to announce his favorite before the Nebraska primary, but since Wilson's overwhelming defeat in this state he has gone to Florida to campaign for Wilson. Why not take Nebraska's choice, Mr. Bryan, and work for Champ Clark or resign as delegate at large? We charge bad faith in your Florida campaign for Wilson, and you should either resign or take the stump for Nebraska's choice if you feel called upon to speak.

Judson Harmon can carry Ohio and New York, possibly Connecticut, and New Jersey, Maryland and Massachusetts. These states, or a majority of them, are necessary to win the election. Who else can carry them in the democratic party? Possibly Champ Clark can. He is a personal favorite with nearly everybody in the middle west, but the eastern democrat likes to vote for a man near to them and Champ Clark may be too far west to get sufficient votes to win.

It looks like Roosevelt was going to sweep the country and what will it mean? What will he do as president the next four years? Will he be a dictator? Will he think as he stated in Europe that more power should be vested in the president or ruler of a country. What class of people will vote for him and will he be opposed by one candidate or four to split up the vote and make his election assured? There are many other questions suggested but let us attempt to say a few words: The third term will stop many votes. The Taft pie hunters will fall over themselves to get into the band wagon and give T. R. as loyal support as they would give Taft and probably proclaim Roosevelt their first choice and beat the regulars at their own game, but there are a few republicans who are not admirers of either Roosevelt or Taft and good intelligent men too who will help to defeat T. R. and he will go down in history the victim of his own ambitions, a sadder but wiser man. The American people will shout for Teddy now to defeat Taft but not because they want him president again.

Alex Burr of Pullman was in town this week. He is out for Champ Clark and thinks he can carry Buffalo Lake. We'll go him one better that Champ Clark can carry more states west of the Mississippi than any other man. We do not know if Mr. Clark can carry enough of the eastern states to win out. We like him in the west but the west may not elect whomsoever they may choose without consulting those heavy voting eastern states. If Judson Harmon, or any other good democrat seems to be the general favorite The Valentine Democrat is willing to abide by the majority and fall in line. We do not think we know better how to pick out the best man for president than the whole people, or the majority of the democratic party, and do not accuse everyone, excepting our favorite, of Wall street connections. We want to suggest that it would be better for our party to let the people rule and then abide cheerfully by the result and be an asset to winning, rather than try to set our judgment up as knowing the only man who should be nominated, and if he is not nominated, to pout and go away from home and refuse to vote. We may not all have money to go away from home. Some of us will have to live here for awhile and we will have to submit to some one being made president. If not our choice then we may be wrong, or right, and the great majority wrong. Let us get ready to support Clark, if he is the nominee, or some other man whom the democratic convention may nominate.

There was very little loss from the storm. We now have an abundance of moisture. The first meeting of the ladies club was held Monday, having been adjourned from Saturday on account of the storm. The time was spent in sewing. We hope to see the interest continue and feel that such meetings would be beneficial to every neighborhood. The ladies departed feeling that they had had a splendid day, and are looking forward to future meetings with pleasant anticipation.

SIMEON.

Miss Andrews closed a successful term of school in district 109 Friday. She returned to her home near Valentine and has planned to attend the junior normal.

Primary election was very quiet though more interest was taken than in former primaries. In time, no doubt, it will fill the purpose for which it was intended.

Miss Stella Martin is visiting her sister, Mrs. Stilwell. She will return to her home in California in the near future.

Mesdames Yingst and Acord are visiting at the Reece homes. They arrived in time to attend the meeting of the club.

E. R. Stillwell is carrying the mail from Simeon to Dewey Lake.

Notice of Hearing on Probate Without Administration.

Grace Hetherington having filed in my office a duly verified petition alleging that Bert W. Hetherington died intestate, possessed of an equity in real estate in Cherry county, Nebraska, and that said real estate was wholly exempt from execution, attachment or other mense process and not liable for the debts of the deceased and praying for the probate of the said estate without administration:

Therefore all persons interested in said matter will take notice that a hearing will be had upon said petition at my office in Valentine, Cherry county, Nebraska, on Friday, May 3, 1912, at 1 o'clock p. m., at which time all persons interested in said estate may appear and show cause, if any there be, why said estate should not be probated without administration, and that notice thereof be given by publication of same in the Valentine Democrat for a period of three successive weeks.

MONEY! MONEY!

Do You Want a Bargain in Town Property?

I have three properties that are bargains and I am going to sell them at a bargain to some one who has a few hundred dollars laying idle.
I want to build a good building for a printing office and will sell property cheap, to carry out my plans.
Come and see me on any kind of a property deal. I want money and I'll give big value for it.

The Effective Laxative

Tastes Like and is Eaten Like Candy.

In our experience in the handling of drugs and medicines, we believe we have never had experience with any remedy that gave such great satisfaction to our customers as Rexall Orderlies. This remedy is not like any other laxative or cathartic. It contains all the good features of other laxatives, but none of their faults.

Our own faith in Rexall Orderlies is so strong that we offer them to you with our own positive personal guarantee, that if they do not thoroughly satisfy you, you only need tell us and we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for them. Therefore, in trying them upon our recommendation you take no risk whatever.

Rexall Orderlies taste like and are eaten like candy. They do not gripe, cause nausea, excessive looseness, or any other annoyance. They act so easily that they may be taken at any time, day or night. They are particularly good for children, aged, or delicate persons. They are put up in convenient tablets in three sizes of packages. Prices, 10c, 25, and 50c.

Remember, Rexall Remedies can be obtained in this community only at our store—The Rexall store. Chapman, The Druggist.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT
Longboat, Indian Runner, Who May Quit.

According to his most intimate friends, Tom Longboat, the famous Indian distance runner of Canada, is to retire from the game shortly. Report has it that his legs have at last gone back on him and that he is tired of the game. During the past six years Longboat has won many races at distances from five miles up to the full Marathon distance, 26 miles 385 yards, first when an amateur and later while a professional. The Indian may be offered a position as coach of one of the schools in Canada.

Bald Heads Not Wanted

Baldness is Too Generally Considered a Sign of Advanced Age.

A bald-headed person does not have an equal chance with one blessed with a healthy head of hair, because baldness is too generally accepted as an indication of age. Many large corporations have established an age limit, and refuse to take men over 35 years of age as new employees.

Probably 65 per cent of bald-headed people may regain a good head of healthy hair if they will follow our advice and accept our offer. We have a remedy that we positively guarantee to grow hair on any head unless the roots of the hair are entirely dead, their follicles closed, and the scalp has become glazed and shiny. We want people to try this remedy at our risk, with the distinct understanding that unless it does exactly what we claim it will, and gives satisfaction in every respect, we shall make no charge for the remedy used during the trial.

We know exactly what we are talking about, and with this offer back of our statements no one should scoff, doubt our work, or hesitate to put our remedy to an actual test.

We want everyone in Valentine who is suffering from any scalp or hair trouble, dandruff, falling hair, or baldness, to try our Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We want to use it regularly—say until three bottles have been used—and if it does not eradicate dandruff, cleanse and refresh the scalp, tighten the hair in its roots, and grow new hair, we will return every cent paid us for the remedy for the mere asking. There is no formality expected, and we exact no obligation from the user whatever.

We are established right here in Valentine, and make this offer with a full understanding that our business success entirely depends upon the sort of treatment we accord our customers, and we would not dare the above offer unless we were positively certain that we could substantiate it in every particular. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store.—The Rexall Store, Chapman, The Druggist.
