THIRD FRUITLESS BALLOT.

No Important Change In Nebraska Senatorial Situation.

MEIKLEJOHN LOSES A PAIR.

Crounse Retains the Same Position, While Other Leaders All Show Small Gains. Fusionists Vote for Allen and Hitchcock. No Indication of a Choice.

Lincoln, Jan. 18.—The third ballot for senator was taken in joint session yesterday and was no nearer conclusive than those which have preceded The feature, if any there was, was the loss of two votes by Meiklejohn. Crounse simply held his own, while Currie gained two, Hainer one, Hinshaw one, Rosewater one, with Baldrige absent, D. E. Thompson one. The scattering vote was even worse scattered than before, several who disappeared from the list Wednesday reappearing. The following is the vote:

	Ballots—
	1st.	2nd.	3d.
Allen	51	57	57
Crounse	8	10	10
Currie	20	20	22
Hainer	5	5	6
Harlan	2	2	2
Hays, J. R.	2	1	1
Harrington	1	..	1
Hitchcock	25	..	57
Hinshaw	14	16	17
Howe	4	1	..
Kinkaid	5	3	4
Lindsay	..	2	..
Meiklejohn	22	20	24
Morlan	1	1	1
Martin	1	..	3
Murphy	4	2	2

No Caucus In Sight.

So little success attended the effort to secure signatures to an agreement for a Republican caucus on the senatorship yesterday that the effort was abandoned for the time being. Of the necessary 67 members, only 36 have signed the petition.

A bill will be introduced in the house today providing that in a lynching the relatives of the person lynched can obtain damages from the county where it occurred.

Seventeen new bills were introduced in the house yesterday, one providing for two new normal schools to cost $110,000. The committee on elections recommended the seating of Coffee and Hawksby.

Breaks Up Hong Kong Junta.

Hong Kong, Jan. 18.—The adoption by General MacArthur of Consul Wildman's plan to deport the insurgent leaders to Guam has had a marked effect. The activity of the insurgents has been reduced, the Hong Kong junta has been breaking up and the poor people in the Philippines are being freed from the domination of the native army.

Troops Ordered to Corbin.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 18.—Governor Beckham last night ordered a company of troops from Lexington to Corbin. They will be in command of Colonel Roger Williams of the Second regiment.

FARMERS UP IN ARMS.

On the Lookout for a Gang of Blackmailers Near East St. Louis.

St. Louis, Jan. 17.—Farmers living between East St. Louis and Alton, Ills., are wrought up to a high pitch of excitement as the result of developments in the attempts to blackmail prosperous residents of that district. For several days past letters have been found nailed to posts in dooryards threatening to blow up the homes of four families if they did not at once put up $1,500. Armed guards were placed about the houses at night and on two occasions they fired at unknown persons, who it was believed were attempting to put dynamite under the houses. One of these parties was wounded, as was shown by a trail of blood he left. A mass meeting was held at Oldenburg and $500 was subscribed as a reward for the apprehension of any or all of the gang, dead or alive. Armed men patrol the roads throughout the neighborhood on the lookout for members of the gang.

CULLOM RENOMINATED.

Tanner, Cannon, Hitt and Prince Withdraw From Illinois Senatorial Race, Leaving Uncle Shelby a Walkover.

Springfield, Ills., Jan. 18.—The contest among Illinois Republican candidates for the United States senate came to an unexpected close yesterday with announcement that former Governor Tanner and Messrs. Cannon, Hitt and Prince had withdrawn from the race, leaving Senator Cullom a walkover.

The announcement of Governor's Tanner's withdrawal came first and was shortly followed by announcements from the other candidates. The exact causes that led Senator Cullom's opponents to leave him a clear field are not announced, further than that all the candidates and their friends, after several conferences, agreed that it would be difficult, if not impossible, to defeat Senator Cullom.

The Republican joint caucus last night unanimously nominated Senator Shelby M. Cullom for United States senator.

ARMED MEN ARE MASSING.

Troops Sent to Put Down Feud of Two Kentucky Families.

Corbin, Ky., Jan. 18.—Reports were received of armed men massing outside of the town, representing the factions in the feud that caused so much trouble Wednesday. The special train with troops from Lexington is due at 3 a. m. No attempt was made to clear away the debris of the White building, wrecked by dynamite. Everyone kept within doors, fearing further trouble between the Shotwells and Whites before the troops arrive.

Fifty of the Chadwells from Clay county have joined the Shotwell faction. Sheriff Sutton has sworn in a large force of deputies. The Shotwells occupy the hills near the town, while the White forces are mostly in Corbin. All the residences are barricaded. Roch White and Raleigh White were arrested and taken to Williamsburg. Roch White is crippled and will lose both eyes as the result of the explosion. It is believed he will die.

Sending Food to Circle City.

Seattle, Jan. 18.—Edmund N. Carpenter, the last man out from the Tananana district, says there is a great shortage of food at Circle City and that the government officials at Eagle City are sending provisions in as rapidly as possible. On his way out he met many teams laden with supplies for the famine-threatened district.

Hubbard Gets Another Chance.

Lincoln, Jan. 18.—The case of Hubbard Savory, under life sentence for murder in Richardson county, was taken up in the supreme court yesterday on error.

CALLS FOR MORE RECRUITS

Roberts Makes Stirring Appeal for 5,000 Yeomanry.

BOERS MAY INVADE NATAL.

British Authorities Still Take Hopeful View of Situation In South Africa—Little Authentic Information Concerning Cape Colony Invaders.

London, Jan. 18.—Lord Roberts has issued from the war office a stirring appeal to the country for a speedy response to the call for 5,000 yeomanry, whose past services in South Africa he commends to the nation.

The authorities continue to hold a hopeful view regarding the South African situation, but they seem to recognize that vigorous measures are necessary.

The proclamation of martial law throughout the whole of Cape Colony, Lord Kitchener's strong measures against the population of the republics, the placing on reduced rations of the wives of men in the field and similar measures go to show that there is still heavy work ahead.

British offensive operations have ceased for the present. It is supposed Lord Kitchener is collecting his strength for a final effort to crush or capture the commandoes by a repetition of the tactics which caused the surrender of General Cronje and General Prinzloo.

It is said the Boers are preparing to descend into Natal.

The casualty list issued yesterday shows that the Boers have released 297 British captured at Helvetia and Belfast. The facts regarding the captures at Belfast have not been allowed to transpire.

It is asserted that more heavy naval guns will be landed at the Cape. Information as to the doings of the invaders is hard to obtain, but it is clear that they are getting very little help from the Dutch. Twice they attempted to capture Barkeley East, but were repulsed. Small scattered parties are reported operating in various parts of the Ceres district.

Protest Against Kitchener's Policy.

London, Jan. 18.—"The stop the war" committee yesterday passed the following resolutions:

"Orders which a British officer reports he received reveal the adoption by Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener of a policy having for its aim the extermination of a heroic nationality by starving its women and children and the deliberate massacre of unarmed prisoners."

The latter clause alludes to General Kitchener's alleged secret order to General Dewet's pursuers to take no prisoners.

Colville Drives Off Boers.

London, Jan. 18.—General Kitchener, telegraphing from Pretoria under date of Wednesday, Jan. 16, says the concentration of 3,000 Boers at Carolina (Transvaal) is reported. He adds that Colville's mobile column was engaged near Van Tondes hoek. The Boers were driven off with heavy loss. Three hundred Boers entered Aberdeen yesterday, looted the stores and retired on the arrival of 100 British infantry.

Martial Law In Cape Colony.

Cape Town, Jan. 18.—Martial law has now been proclaimed in every part of Cape Colony, except the districts of Cape Town, Simonstown, Wynberg, Port Elizabeth and East London. It has also been proclaimed in Tombuland, Groqualand and in East and West Pondoland.

COLLEGIANS TO COMPETE.

Preparation s Making for Iowa's State College Oratorical Contest.

Des Moines, Jan. 18.—The plans are now almost perfected for the state college oratorical contest which is to be held at Mount Pleasant Feb. 28 next. There are 14 institutions of learning represented in the state association, and the orations which have been submitted to the judges on thought and composition have been sent to the committee in charge. These judges have not yet been selected, but will be very soon. The names of the contestants are not yet known, because the judges select eight who will be permitted to deliver the orations submitted.

Railroad Surveying.

Des Moines, Jan. 17.—The surveys of two railroads northward from Des Moines have been completed and the jockeying for rights of way and other things is in progress among the promoters and town siters. The survey of the line to Boone was completed this week. It runs north through Polk City, which is on the Northwestern, thence to Madrid, east of the Des Moines river and on to Boone, keeping west of the route of the Milwaukee to Boone. The route to Iowa Falls is also surveyed and the promoters are at work securing the necessary concessions in towns and along the way. Mr. Ellsworth, the chief promoter, declares positively the line will be built next summer.

Mrs. Hossack Indicted.

Des Moines, Jan. 18.—The Warren county grand jury yesterday indicted Mrs. Hossack for murder of her husband, near New Virginia. The case will not be tried at this term and the woman is out on bail.

TRIAL NEARING END.

Arguments Begun In the Bosschieter Murder Trial at Pateron.

Paterson, N. J., Jan. 18.—For the entire session yesterday the opposing counsel in the Jennie Bosschieter murder trial appealed to the jury. Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Shaw, in his summing up, claimed that the state had proven its case. He denounced the accused, who he said had taken the girl out to do her to death like a dog.

Judge Francis Scott led in the summing up for the defense. He was followed by Michael Dunn. Their addresses were very similar. They declared that no case had been made out against Walter McAlister, William Death and Andrew Campbell. They ridiculed the expert testimony and branded the hackman, Sculthorpe, as a man of the lowest type and of the basest motives. They maintained that the story told by him was not supported by evidence and that it was a lie.

KUHNS CAPTURED.

Indiana Outlaw Shoots Two Men and is Himself Shot In the Head Before Being Overpowered.

Logansport, Ind., Jan. 18.—Marvin Kuhns, the desperado who has terrorized northern Indiana for weeks and defied the officers of two states, by a singular fatality finds himself in the Cass county jail in the very town in which he made such a desperate battle for life and liberty on Dec. 10. Kuhns and his brother, who was released from the Columbus prison shortly after Marvin escaped, were taken after a desperate fight last night at Green Hill, five miles south of Otterbein. Before the outlaw was overpowered he shot two men and was himself shot in the head. Emboldened by immunity from officers, Kuhns and his brother and a confederate stole a team at Plymouth Sunday night and started south. Ex-Sheriff Marshall and Marshal Cheney traced them to Lafayette last evening and by telephoning neighboring towns located the men at Green Hill, near Otterbein. An Otterbein posse surrounded the house and rushed in at midnight. Marvin was awake and seized a revolver at his bedside. Before he could fire, Elmer Switzer shot him in the face and the posse closed in. One man jumped from the second story window and escaped, but the brothers were overpowered after a fight, in which shots were exchanged. Wounded as he was, Marvin partially shook off the attacking party and shot H. Volt in the back and Lewis Hawkins in the arm. Neither was fatally injured.

Women Plan an Exhibit.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 18.—Club women from 15 states representing the Louisiana purchase are here attending a conference called by Mrs. Edwin Harrison, president of the Missouri federation, to perfect organization for furthering the woman's exhibit at the coming St. Louis world's fair. The conference will consider a porposition to erect a memorial, to be completed in time for the opening of the fair, in 1903, and to take initiatory action to insure an elaborate display of woman's handiwork.
