The proposed extra session of congress will have to amble along without the assistance of either Pettigrew or Towne. A fact that should be considered before any rash move is made.

Tobacco sance has no terrors for the Nebraska youth. There are nearly 300 candidates for appointment to the West Point military academy cadetship in the Fourth congressional district, examination for which will be held in Beatrice March 12.

Members of the South Dakota Press association contemplate a trip to the Buffalo exposition this summer. All roads will lead to Buffalo when the big show opens and the South Dakota brethren are planning to successfully handle the inevitable longing that will then be felt.

The Hundred-Year club of New York has for six months been searching for the oldest man in the world. They confer that distinction on Isaiah Rodofsky of Moscow, Russia, who is in his 136th year. The oldest woman is said to be Mrs. Nancy Hoffield of Battle Creek, Mich., who is 117.

Dodge county has one honest citizen at least. A farmer living near Fremont recently walked into the Security savings bank of that city and laid $10 on the counter with the explanation that some years ago when he was given some money he found two $10 bills stuck together. May his tribe increase.

General Funston goes into the work before him with the characteristic energy that first brought him fame, and it is said in late dispatches that he has subdued the insurrectionists in his district and dispersed hostile bands. With a few more officers like Funston the Philippine war would soon be settled.

The Sioux City Journal says: "The Missouri legislature is a little slow about passing a resolution of sympathy with the Creek Indians." Ex-Senator Towne also lost a grand opportunity for a display of originality by not demanding that they be given their freedom from the galling yoke of this imperialistic nation.

J. H. Owen, night chief telegraph operator at Omaha, has published a statement in which a denial is made that the Pearson printing telegraph, recently tested in his presence, is a success. He states that not one word was received or transmitted during the test. It is likely that typewriters who had contemplated working a machine in San Francisco and having the printing done in Chicago will be disappointed, for some time, at least.

The rumor that Mrs. Nation has been invited to Washington for the purpose of bombarding some of the gilded halls of sin at national headquarters has caused a flutter of excitement. The event was set to take place on the birthday of the father of his country who was a pioneer in creating fame with a hatchet although the cherry wood he demolished had not been polished up for a bar over which hard and soft drinks were dispensed to the weary.

Representative Johnson of Douglas county proposes to compel the street car company of Omaha to run cars at all hours of the night as well as day for the convenience of those who wish to ride about the city after most people are asleep, if his bill can be made into a law. This may be all right for the night owls, but we heartily sympathize with the people who would like a few hours sleep without the whirr and clang of the cars to furnish matter for night marish thoughts.

It is a common thing for the whites to dislike the negroes as a race, especially in the south, but the hatred of a negro for his race and color is as uncommon as a white man's hatred of the white race. Dempsey Bare, the richest negro in eastern Virginia, who recently died, is said to have hated the people of his race and color with a deep and abiding hatred. He once applied to a surgeon to have the negro blood removed from his veins and disowned his daughter because she married one of her race.

An Illinois farmer has conceived the happy idea of making sausage out of oom meat and is finding a ready market for his product. The quality requisite for sausage has generally been considered the peculiar attribute of pork, and now that the Illinois man has broken away from the popular tradition a revolution may be expected, with chicken sausage, fish sausage, mutton sausage, veal sausage, venison sausage and bear sausage as common articles of commerce. Tomorrow, however, nothing but ground hog goes.

CUBANS IN A DEADLOCK.

Friends and Opponents of Gomez Clash in Convention.

BITTER FEELING AROUSED. Contention is Over a Clause in the Proposed Constitution Which Would Make the General Ineligible for the Presidency—Neither Side Seems to Weaken.

Havana, Feb. 1.—At last night's session the Cuban constitutional convention finished a lot of business up to section 12. The article in section 7 was modified to make any native born Cuban eligible to the senate. A similar clause in article 2 of section 12 brought about a deadlock. It was in reference to the qualifications of the president and the old Gomez fight was revived.

The anti-Gomez faction, led by Sanguily, favored the eligibility of only native born Cubans, while the admirers of General Gomez, headed by Senors Quesada and Nunez, advocated the retention of the clause in the original draft, making a naturalized citizen who had served two years in the wars eligible. Three members, Senors Rivera, Genor and Lorente, were absent. After a discussion lasting two hours, Senor Genor, who is a Gomezite, entered and a call was made for president to reassemble the convention. The opponents of Gomez, however, refused to take their seats, and after several efforts the delegates withdrew from the hall. The feeling engendered by the controversy was very bitter, several opponents of Gomez asserting that they would resign if the clause making him eligible to the presidency were adopted.

The evening session was passed through want of a quorum. The deadlock threatens to continue indefinitely. The delegates have agreed to assemble this afternoon, but neither side has weakened.

NO CHANGE IN VOTE. Totals in Fourteenth Ballot Looks Very Much the Same. Lincoln, Feb. 1.—The senate spent most of the time prior to the joint convention in discussing bills as a committee of the whole. The resolution authorizing the holding of a constitutional convention was debated at some length, a number of senators both for and against the retention of the resolution making amendments, with the result that the resolution was finally reported for indefinite postponement.

Senate file 34, an act to restrain male animals from running at large, was recommended after a half hour's discussion. No material changes were noted in the senatorial ballot. The vote:

Refuse to Sign Bond Bill. St. Louis, Feb. 1.—Mayor Zelgenheim to whom the bill passed by the municipal assembly authorizing the issuance of $5,000,000 of bonds for the World's fair, to be held in 1903, had been sent, refused to sign the measure, saying that it was the loosest measure of its kind that he had ever seen. The point which he raised most recently against the bill was that no provision was made for refunding to the city treasury any surplus over $5,000,000, which might be realized from the sale of the bonds.

Governor Gage sent a message to the California senate regarding federal investigation of the alleged existence of plague in San Francisco. The national maritime congress concluded its business at Brunswick, Ga., Thursday with the endorsement of government aid to American shipping and the creation of a permanent organization.

FOR ASKING HUSH MONEY

Prominent Pythian's Trusted Secretary Arrested at Cincinnati as Alleged Blackmailer.

Cincinnati, Feb. 1.—A sensational arrest for alleged attempted blackmail was made yesterday by the United States deputy marshal. The persons are Dr. Fred B. Horman, his wife, Dr. Adah S. Horman, and her son by a former marriage, Clyde Sheehan. The parties who were the intended victims of the alleged attempt at blackmail are Howard Douglas, an attorney, prominent in Pythian circles, being past supreme chancellor of the world in that organization; his wife, and Dr. Crank, his family physician.

Dr. Horman has been for 25 years confidential secretary and office man for Mr. Douglas and is a fellow member in the same castle of the Knights of Pythias. Anonymous letters were received by Mr. and Mrs. Douglas and Dr. Crank, demanding $7,000 for suppression of alleged information which the writer said would ruin them if made public. The money was ordered placed in the hands of Dr. Horman, who was to place it in the office window, when the writer, who gave the name of J. W. Morrison, would call and get it. These letters were placed in the hands of postoffice inspectors. It was found that suspicion pointed to Horman and marked postage stamps were placed in his desk. These were found on letters sent to the intended victims.

The arrest has led to the discovery of a letter in Mrs. Horman's room which is said to be in the same handwriting as the "Blouse T" letter sent to Mrs. Cudahy in Omaha offering to reveal the kidnaper of Eddie Cudahy for money. It is understood that there will be some sensational developments and the authorities of this city as well as of Chicago, and Omaha still think that the arrest will throw some light on the Cudahy case at Omaha.

Wanted for Kidnaping. Springfield, Ills., Feb. 1.—Dr. John Wright, a prominent physician and his wife, Mary Wright, who are wanted in San Jose, Cal., for kidnaping, have succeeded in evading the officers, and their present whereabouts are not known. They are charged with having kidnaped their little granddaughter, Fannie Marie Campbell, aged 5 years, daughter of William H. Campbell, a wealthy oil merchant of Santa Clara county, California.
