

SATURDAY SIFTINGS.

N. A. Rainbolt is reported on the sick list today. Frank McGhan is the new assistant at Christoph's drug store. Miss Hattie Allberry was a passenger for Lincoln this morning. C. J. Chapman, master mechanic at the F. E. & M. V., is in Rapid City on business. O. Headman of Madison was in the city yesterday afternoon on his way home from Wayne. Services will be held at the First Congregational church tomorrow morning, conducted by the pastor. The March term of district court in this county will convene in Madison on the 11th of the coming month. C. A. Blakely returned yesterday from Beaver City, where he had been to attend the funeral of his father. L. C. Bargelt of THE NEWS force, who has been quite sick for several days, is reported somewhat better today. Superintendent D. C. O'Connor left today for Chicago to attend the meeting of the National Superintendents association.

The postoffice at Butterly, Stanton county, has been discontinued. Mail for that office should be addressed to Stanton. Miss Anna Heller, who was considered dangerously ill with pneumonia early in the week, is now out of danger and able to sit up. A number of applications are to be balloted upon and it is expected there will be work in the lodge of Elks, which will be held this evening in I. O. O. F. hall. Miss Nettie Nelson will entertain a number of teachers this evening at tea, complimentary to Miss H. C. Wood, who leaves soon for her new home in Kansas.

Bishop Williams of Omaha will conduct services at Trinity church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Holy communion will be administered at 8 a. m. Morning prayer and sermon at 10:45; preacher, Rev. Chas. Deuel of Boise City, Idaho. Rev. J. J. Parker has been confined to the house with grip all the week. He is considerably improved today and thinks he can undertake to conduct services at the Congregational church tomorrow morning.

A special meeting of the Woman's club will be held with Mrs. Huntington Monday afternoon. This is to take the place of the Household economic meeting. Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Morrow will read their papers and if there is time the constitution will be read. Regular gospel meeting at the Y. M. C. L. tomorrow afternoon. The report of the convention work will be continued. Mr. H. L. Snyder will speak on the Y. M. C. A. work in the railroad department, and also the work among the colleges. W. W. Hughes will talk on the evangelistic work in cities and towns.

Sam Meek has accepted the position of head butter maker in the Amelia, Holt county, creamery, and left today for that place. Mr. Meek was connected with the Harding Creamery company for several years and has a reputation of being a first-class butter maker. THE WEEKLY NEWS-JOURNAL will keep him posted on Sugar City affairs. "A woman will yank up the guy ropes of her corset until she almost squeezes her immortal soul out of place" says an observing and sarcastic philosopher, "put a dead bird on her hat and go strutting around town, selling tickets for an entertainment to raise money to help send missionaries to some foreign clime for the purpose of teaching civilization to the poor heathens who have never known what it is to wear a corset and who have been struggling on in the ignorant belief that birds were created to sing instead of to be worn on hats."

Governor Dietrich and his staff will leave on February 28 for Washington to be present at the inauguration of President McKinley. They use a special Pullman from Lincoln, and go over the B. & M. to Chicago and over the Pennsylvania railroad to Washington. There is talk of taking a band with the party, made up of members of the First regiment and Second regiment bands, in which event five members of the First regiment band living in Norfolk will probably go along. Colonel Huse of the governor's staff will not be able to be one of the party, although he realizes that he will miss a great time.

Mrs. Leon W. Brown, only child of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bates of this place, died at her home in Missouri Valley at 5 o'clock last evening. Mrs. Bates had been with her daughter since Thursday, and the first intimation that she was seriously ill was yesterday afternoon when a telegram came to her father, and in the evening another telegram came announcing that she had passed away. Mr. Bates is an engineer on the F. E. & M. V., and he was on a trip west when the telegram reached him. Meeting a train coming east he exchanged engines with Engineer Schramm, and started at once for Missouri Valley. Up to a year ago Mrs. Brown, then known as Miss Mae Bates, was one of the most popular young ladies of Norfolk, and the many friends who knew her, particularly among the young people, will be deeply grieved to learn of her sudden death. She was bright, vivacious and lovable, and at the time of her marriage to Mr. Brown on January 18, 1900, gave promise of a long and useful life.

BEGA.

Miss Anna Nelson of Hoskins visited in Bega Sunday. Fred and Andrew Lundquist were in Hadar Tuesday on business. Miss Lillie Burchmore visited in Pierce over Saturday and Sunday. Rev. Butler of Hoskins preached a very able sermon in Bega Sunday. Mr. Erickson of Bega is preparing to move to Wausa, where he has purchased a farm. Mr. Emil Norling came home from Wayne Saturday and spent Sunday with his brother. Andrew Olsen is slowly recovering from his illness. He will not return to Wayne for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Henrierson, who live east of Bega, attended church and Sunday school in this vicinity Sunday.

An Extract from Her Letter:

"If you could only be here this winter morning and see for yourself you would no longer doubt me. Roses are blooming in our front yard and all nature is as far advanced in this lovely American summerland as it will be in your cold eastern home by June. We made the journey from Missouri river to the Golden Gate on the Union Pacific to avoid the circuitous routes—an important item in the winter. A trip to California is made delightful by the perfect service and luxurious accommodation of 'The Overland Limited,' which is perhaps the most finely equipped train in the world." Detailed information furnished on application. F. W. JUNEMAN, Agent.

MONDAY MENTION.

W. D. Mixer of Lincoln is in the city today on business. E. H. Tracy made a business trip to Pierce this afternoon. Judge Powers was a passenger for Madison this morning. Dr. Bear was called to Pilger this afternoon to see a patient. Sol G. Mayer is expected home from New York about March 6. Thomas Donahue of Creighton spent Sunday in the city with friends. C. E. Greene left at noon today on a business trip to St. Joe, Missouri. Phil Kohl of Wayne was in the city this morning on his way to Omaha. Mrs. C. W. Inskip returned Saturday evening from her trip to Chicago. Hon. John R. Hays left this morning for Laverne, Minn., on business intent. H. E. Glissman went to Omaha on a morning train for a brief business visit. Max Lenser came down from Tilden on Saturday to spend Sunday with his parents. Miss Evans is home from Wayne, where she has been attending the Normal college. Geo. H. Spear is again confined to his bed today with a renewal of his attack of lumbago. Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Patterson have taken rooms with Miss Garlinger on Koenigstein avenue. Misses Emma Bauer and Pauline Newman of Stanton visited friends in the city over Sunday. Miss Mildred Frazer came up from Madison Saturday evening to spend Sunday with Norfolk friends. Miss Hanna Swanson, who has been assisting at the home of Rev. Mr. Wells, returned to her home in Omaha today. Geo. Lehman of Columbus, proprietor of the Thurston hotel, was in the city over night, the guest of Landlord and Mrs. Spear. On Saturday W. H. Loomis and family removed from the A. T. Pettitt residence to the Rogers farm on South Thirteenth street. W. M. Wheeler of Wakefield, engrossing and enrolling clerk of the house of representatives, was in town this morning enroute to Lincoln. Dr. Richards, the optician, came in at noon today from Omaha and will remain three days. He can be found at Christoph's drug store. The Norfolk Music Students club, which was to meet with Ludwig Koenigstein this evening, has been postponed to one week from tonight. Sioux City Journal, 24: Mrs. Robert Stewart has returned to her home in Norfolk, Neb., after a few days' visit with the family of Mrs. A. S. Gillette. Attorney A. W. Gross of Madison is in the city Saturday night. He is soon to leave for Seattle, Washington, where he expects to make his home in future. Frank McNeely went to Omaha Saturday evening where he will visit his mother a short time previous to returning to Leadville, Col., where he has work. Ferdinand Czering, wife and daughter, who resided on the Pasewalk farm east of Norfolk, will leave tomorrow for Berlin, Germany, via the Union Pacific. Omaha News: Now an Omaha girl has been robbed in Cleveland. If these occurrences continue to multiply Pat Crowe will be the only Omahan who can remain safely at home. Mrs. Warrick has returned from Carroll, Iowa, where she was present at the bedside of her mother when she passed away. The lady was 72 years of age at the time of her death. Wm. McEver and C. H. Young, traveling auditors of the Union Pacific and C. St. P., M. & O. railroads, are visiting Mr. Juneman, examining the accounts of the joint agency. Miss Mattie McNish received a telephone message last evening that her mother, living at Cummingsville, near Albion, was very ill. Miss McNish left on the early freight for that place. Wm. Warneke, editor of the Scriber News, came up last evening to visit his mother. He says his new venture in the newspaper business at Scriber is more successful than he anticipated. John Conway of Niobrara returned home Saturday afternoon. He had been in Omaha and stopped for a short visit with his daughter Nora, who is with the Johnson Dry Goods company.

Sioux City Journal, 24: Mrs. A. S. Gillette, mother and sister of Mrs. A. S. Gillette, who have been visiting at Norfolk, Neb., and Sioux City for the past five months, left on Wednesday for their home in Mercer, Pa.

C. W. Braasch returned last evening from Omaha, where he had been to visit his son Ed, who is in a hospital there. Mr. Braasch feels considerably encouraged over the outcome of his son's illness, as he found him very much improved.

The moving picture entertainment to be given at the Marquardt hall this evening by the Iowa Projectoscope company, under the auspices of the ladies of the Congregational church, seems to be worthy of patronage. Moving pictures are still a novelty in this city and the gentleman who has the affair in charge has some very good recommendations of his entertainment.

Miss Maggie Halpin, 19 years old, living with her parents on west Madison avenue, submitted to an operation for appendicitis this morning. At last reports she was resting nicely and there was every indication that the operation had been successful. Messrs. Powers and Hays are both out of town today, and this afternoon their better halves invaded the law office of their liege lords to clean out the place, not a la Carrie Nation with hatchets, but with soap and water, with which they are thoroughly renovating it. This rounds one of old times.

Omaha Bee, 24: When a freight train on the Burlington pulled into the local yards yesterday morning a man giving the name of L. H. Neal was found in a car on which the seal had been broken. He claimed to be only stealing a ride, but investigation showed that several boxes of merchandise had been broken open. He was turned over to the police. Neal said his home was in Pierce, Neb., and he was trying to beat his way there from Kansas City.

Blair Republican: William Rhea, on trial at Fremont for shooting Herman Zahn, of Snyder, was convicted of murder in the first degree. He showed wonderful nerve, but his old father broke down. He is a bright young man who ran away from a good home and became an associate of tramps and thieves when a boy. The lad had no thought when he began to play truant from school and frequent low resorts that in a few years he would stand in the shadow of the gallows.

Special meetings are to be held at the Salvation Army hall Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, which are designated in the announcements as "red hot salvation meetings." Brigadier General James Toft, assisted by Capt. T. F. Hartington, will conduct the meetings. On Tuesday at 4 p. m. there will be a children's meeting and wearing in of junior soldiers, and at 8 o'clock there will be salvation meeting. On Wednesday at 3 p. m. there will be holiness meeting, and at 8 o'clock a musical meeting and wearing in of soldiers.

Rev. Arthur L. Williams, bishop of the diocese of Nebraska, preached in Trinity church last evening. He was at Blair in the morning and came to Norfolk on the afternoon train, arriving at 7:20, which necessitated beginning the service at 8 o'clock, half an hour later than usual. The gentlemen of the congregation had been invited to meet the bishop after the service at the parlors of the Oxnard hotel, but on account of the critical condition of Miss May Wells he decided not to return to Omaha today, and the meeting was postponed until this evening at 8 o'clock.

The spring term of district court convenes in Madison on March 11, with Judge Boyd on the bench. The jury is summoned to appear on Tuesday, the 12th, at 11 a. m. The jury which was drawn Saturday will consist of the following named persons: Ed. Austin, Fred Brechler, Wm. Green, M. T. Brown, H. G. Brueggeman, J. G. Cleveland, J. R. Dow, Chas. Helm, Thomas Hight, C. D. Jenkins, L. M. Johnson, John Kost, Wm. Lehman, C. W. Lemont, J. H. Massman, Henry Mauer, jr., R. Pryor, J. F. Redman, J. H. Risser, R. Stitt, G. Vaage, F. K. Warwick, Laurence Wells, A. W. Whitehorn.

A number of Norfolk young people went to Missouri Valley this morning, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Leon W. Brown, whose sudden death Friday evening has been announced. Mrs. Brown left a 10 pound son about 12 hours old at the time that she passed away. Her death was from heart failure and came almost without warning, as she was apparently getting along nicely. Those who went from here this morning to attend the funeral are Misses McBride, Elizabeth and Mattie Davenport, Fannie Norton, Lillian Luikart, and Messrs. Arthur Pilger, Ralph Braasch and Leo Pasewalk, and Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Koenigstein.

Again the messenger of death has called at the home of Rev. J. C. S. Wells, this time claiming the daughter May. Although it was announced Saturday that she could not be expected to live through the day, her splendid will power carried her not only through that day but until 6:15 this morning, when she breathed her last. She was determined to live, and had she had more vitality she might have rallied from this attack, although her family have realized for some time that she could not expect to reach an old age. The day that her mother died, a week ago Saturday, she was obliged to give up and go to bed, and she has been gradually sinking since. Her funeral will be held tomorrow at 10 o'clock in Trinity church, one week to an hour after that of her mother and grandmother. The services will be conducted by Bishop Williams. It is certainly to be hoped that no further affliction is to be visited upon the family of Mr. Wells, and as Mr. Wells and John are now able to be dressed and Mrs. Deuel is much improved, the indications are that the worst is over.

When the Jossey Stock company was here last week, it was discovered that some enterprising boys had been arranging a plan whereby they could attend entertainments in the Auditorium without the usual necessary preliminary of contributing the price of admission.

On the north side of the building they had dug a hole about four feet deep, and from this had tunneled under the foundation and into the basement of the opera house, from which they could gain access to the floor above. When it was found what the boys had done Mr. Jossey, who was once a boy himself with a proclivity for attending shows, said that if they wanted to come to his entertainment had enough to do that much work he would raise no objection. But for fear that future managers may not look at it in the same light, this underground entrance to the Auditorium will be closed.

MOB STRINGS UP NEGRO

He is Taken From Jail at Terre Haute and Hanged to a Bridge for Murder of School Teacher.

Terre Haute, Ind., Feb. 27.—George Ward, a negro employe of the car works, was taken from jail and lynched by a mob for the murder of Miss Ida Finkelstein. Ward was arrested on suspicion. At first he denied any knowledge of the crime, but later confessed, saying the girl taunted him about his color and had slapped him in the face and in a fit of anger he had shot and cut her throat.

Ward was placed in jail and as soon as the fact became known a crowd began assembling before the structure, demanding that Ward be surrendered to them. Suddenly the crowd rushed at the jail door and in a moment had battered it down. They were driven back, however, by the jailer, who fired a shotgun several times over their heads. Three deputy sheriffs received slight injuries from the charges of shot, but no one in the mob was hurt.

The mob again rushed at the battered front door of the jail and swept all resistance aside. Ward was found crouching in a cell and he was dragged out. A rope was placed around his neck and he was dragged to the wagon bridge across the Wabash river, three blocks away, and hanged to a bridge stringer. It is estimated that 2,500 people formed the mob.

Not content with the hanging, the crowd cut the corpse down and laying it on a sand bar under the bridge, kindled a fire and cremated the remains. It was the first lynching that ever occurred in Terre Haute and the day abounded in exciting incidents. Sheriff Fassig communicated with Governor Durbine, but the mob accomplished its work before any effort was made to get the militia into action.

CROWE'S WHEREABOUTS.

Omaha Chief Doubts That He is on Bellevue Island.

Omaha, Feb. 26.—Chief of Police Donahue said that if Pat Crowe was hiding on Bellevue Island the police had no knowledge of it, and that he very much doubted if it were true. He knew that Crowe was at Bellevue, where he has relatives, a week prior to the abduction of young Cudahy, but he did not think he had been there since that time.

The story that Crowe had been traced to Bellevue Island and was being watched there probably originated from the fact that he has a brother-in-law living in that vicinity, and a number of captures of counterfeiters and other criminals, for which it affords an inaccessible hiding place.

Three Boys Meet Death.

Blwabik, Minn., Feb. 26.—A terrible accident, resulting in the loss of three lives, occurred yesterday at the Elba mine, six miles from here. Five boys were riding a car which is used in the shaft. One of the boys turned the switch the wrong way and the car descended rapidly from the top of the shaft house towards the shaft opening. One of the boys realized the danger and pulled his brother off the car in time to save him. The car crashed down the shaft opening, hurling the three young boys to the bottom of the shaft, killing them instantly. The boys were two sons of Joseph Leit, aged 10 and 12 respectively, and Andrew Schkaldich's son, aged about 8 years.

TELEGRAMS TERSELY TOLD.

Three small children of Daniel Ireland were burned to death Thursday in their home in Cold Springs Harbor, L. I., during the absence of their mother.

At a meeting of the new St. Louis board of police commissioners Tuesday Captain Matthew Kiely was chosen chief of police, vice John W. Campbell.

The senate in executive session Tuesday confirmed all the naval nominations for promotion sent in except those of Admiral Sampson and Admiral Schley.

The Windom block at Minneapolis was destroyed by fire Tuesday night, entailing a loss of $100,000. The Garrity block adjoining was also badly damaged. A dozen small business firms were burned out.

Governor Durbine Wednesday vetoed the railroad consolidation bill, which has been considered the most important measure in the Indiana legislature.

A fight with pistols, in which Bud Smith was killed and Silas Graham and his son were mortally wounded, occurred at Brush Hill, I. T., Wednesday.

At Grice, Tex., Wednesday, 12 women, with hatchets, went to the post-office and store run by J. J. Grice, in which bitters are sold, and taking the bottles outside broke them all.

PAT CROWE HEARD FROM.

E. A. Cudahy Receives Letter From Alleged Kidnaper.

DECLARES HE IS INNOCENT.

Fugitive Says He Will Show Up In Omaha Soon—Gives as His Reason for Keeping Under Cover That He Feared Summary Vengeance From Excited People.

Omaha, Feb. 23.—Pat Crowe has been heard from under circumstances which indicate that he is soon to make public appearance. E. A. Cudahy is in receipt of a letter bearing Crowe's signature. Crowe explains in the letter that he has heard that the Omaha police are looking for him and believes him to be one of the kidnapers of Edward Cudahy, Jr. He maintains that he is innocent and says that he has no knowledge of the affair, with the exception of what he has read in the newspapers. He says that he will drop into Omaha some day and prove himself innocent and that he would have done so long ago had he not been afraid that he might suffer the fate of the negro who was lynched at Leavenworth.

Crowe says that Omaha people must have cooled off considerably by this time and expresses the opinion that he will soon be able to come here with safety. He makes an appeal to the chief of police and Mr. Cudahy for protection and says that he will expect them to stand between him and violence. In conclusion, he says that he is much hurt to think that Mr. Cudahy suspects him of being guilty of the kidnaping and expresses his appreciation of the kindness Mr. Cudahy has shown him in the past.

What Mr. Cudahy Says. "When I received this letter," Mr. Cudahy explained, "I was determined not to take too much for granted, so I sent it to Chicago, as I knew Mr. Pinkerton had samples of Crowe's writing and would be able to identify it without difficulty. A few days later I heard from Mr. Pinkerton. He said he had compared the writing with a sample of Crowe's chirography and that they were the same beyond question. I wouldn't be surprised now if Crowe should show himself almost any time. I believe the letter was written in good faith.

"I don't think the letter was written in either Omaha or South Omaha. It bore the date line, 'South Omaha, Neb., Feb. 15,' but the postmark on the envelope showed that it had been mailed in Omaha. It was probably written some distance from here and sent in a separate envelope to some friend in Omaha or South Omaha, who remailed it. This was done for the obvious purpose of keeping his present whereabouts a secret. He evidently wants to come in voluntarily, without giving detectives the honor of having captured him."

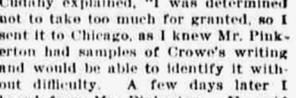

David Martin Seriously Ill. Atchison, Kan., Feb. 28.—David Martin, former judge of the state supreme court and brother of ex-United States Senator John Martin of Kansas, is critically ill at his home here with pneumonia and drowsy.

Strife Begun In Macedonia.

Constantinople, Feb. 23.—Fighting has begun between a large body of Bulgarian agitators and a force of Turkish troops at a village near Ghevghel, Macedonia. Six Bulgarians were killed and three taken prisoners. Several of the Turkish troops were wounded.

Natives Attack French Garrison.

Paris, Feb. 23.—During an attack on the French garrison of 160 at Tuni-moun, Algeria, by 1,000 native Barabos, three officers and six men were killed and twenty-one men wounded. The natives were repulsed with 100 killed and about the same number wounded.

Women are Like Flowers.

Healthy and strong they blossom and bloom. Sickly, they wither and die. Every woman ought to look well and feel well. It's her right and duty, but she might as well try to put out a fire with oil as to be healthy and attractive with diseased corroding the organs that make her a woman. Upon their health depends her health. If there is inflammation or weakening drains or suffering at the monthly period, attend to it at once. Don't delay. You're one step nearer the grave every day you put it off. Women can stand a great deal, but they cannot live forever with disease dragging at the most delicate and vital organs in their body. You may have been deceived in so-called cures. We don't see how you could help it—there is so much worthless stuff on the market. But you won't be disappointed in Bradfield's Female Regulator. We believe it is the one medicine on earth for womanly ills. There is as much difference between it and other so-called remedies as there is between right and wrong. Bradfield's Female Regulator soothes the pain, stops the drains, promotes regularity, strengthens, purifies and cleanses. It does all this quickly and easily and naturally. It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. Bradfield's Regulator lies at hand. $1 per bottle at drug stores. Send for our free booklet.
