THE CITY TICKET NAMED.

Republican Convention Does Good Work.

H. A. PASEWALK FOR MAYOR

He Accepts Nomination as a Duty he Ows His Party—Delegates all Present and No Friction in Convention—A Good List of Nominees.

The republican city convention met at the city hall last evening and placed in nomination the following named candidates:

- For mayor—H. A. Pasewalk. For city clerk—S. R. McFarland. For city treasurer—P. F. Bell. For city engineer—W. H. Lowe. For police judge—S. W. Hayes.

The convention was called to order by W. H. Bucholz, and the call was read by S. R. McFarland.

Temporary organization was effected by the election of W. H. Bucholz as chairman and S. R. McFarland as secretary.

Upon motion a committee of three, consisting of M. D. Tyler, E. O. Mount and H. A. Pasewalk, was appointed to notify Mr. Salter of his nomination.

After a short intermission the committee reported the names of those entitled to seats in the convention, a list of which was published yesterday, full representation being present from every ward.

The temporary organization was then made permanent, and motion was made to take an informal ballot for mayor. This motion was lost, and G. B. Salter was nominated for mayor by acclamation.

Upon motion a committee of three, consisting of M. D. Tyler, E. O. Mount and H. A. Pasewalk, was appointed to notify Mr. Salter of his nomination.

S. R. McFarland was nominated for city clerk by acclamation.

P. F. Bell was chosen as the candidate for city treasurer in the same hearty manner.

W. H. Lowe was nominated city engineer without opposition.

For police judge, S. W. Hayes, C. W. Mihills and Jack Koenigstein were placed in nomination. Informal ballot, taken by call of wards, resulted: Mihills 15, Koenigstein 13, Hayes 18. Koenigstein declined.

The first formal ballot gave Mihills 3, Hayes 19, J. A. Light 22, Koenigstein 1.

The second formal ballot gave Light 28, Hayes 13, Mihills 3, Koenigstein 1.

Mr. Light was declared the nominee, but he declined to accept and the convention proceeded to another ballot, resulting: Hayes 16 1/2, L. M. Gaylord 28 1/2.

Having received the majority of all the votes, Mr. Gaylord was declared the nominee.

Mr. Gaylord declined to stand as the candidate, and S. W. Hayes was nominated by acclamation.

E. O. Mount and Fred Hollingsworth were nominated by acclamation for members of the school board.

Members of the central committee were selected as follows: First ward, H. H. Patterson; Second ward, L. M. Gaylord; Third ward, J. Koenigstein; Fourth ward, J. L. Hershiser.

The committee appointed to wait upon Mr. Salter now reported that he declined to accept the nomination for mayor.

Mr. H. A. Pasewalk was then placed in nomination by acclamation, which he accepted in a neat speech. He said he did not want the nomination, but if it was the will of the convention, he would put aside his personal inclinations and accept it as a duty he owed the party.

This announcement was greeted with applause, and the chair urged all republicans to take an active part in helping elect Mr. Pasewalk as mayor.

After authorizing the central committee to fill all vacancies that may occur, the convention adjourned.

Third Ward Councilmen. Last evening F. E. Hardy notified the committee that he could not accept the nomination as councilman from the Third ward, for which position he had been placed in nomination Wednesday evening by the republican caucus.

The committee held a meeting this morning and placed the name of J. J. Clements on the ticket, thus making the nominees for councilmen from the Third ward C. C. Gow and J. J. Clements.

Luikart Declines. This morning G. A. Luikart filed with the city clerk his resignation as candidate for a member of the board of education, for which he was nominated at the democratic convention on Tuesday evening.

Nancy Catherine Upton. Nancy Catherine Upton was born in Clay county, Indiana, November 24, 1846. She came with her parents to Boone county, Iowa, in 1851. She was married to J. W. Upton, February 26, 1865. She came with her husband to Saunders county, Nebraska, September 26, 1871, from there to Madison, September 26, 1880, and from Madison to Norfolk, December 26, 1889. She died March 12, 1901, at the age of 55 years, 3 months and 18 days.

For the last four years she was an invalid and a great sufferer. Her suffering was marked by much patience and a true resignation to the will of God. A few days before her death she selected the chapter to be read at the funeral and one of the hymns, and made other arrangements regarding the funeral. The word of God was her comfort and she died in peace.

She leaves her husband, four boys and one girl to mourn her loss. The sons are Albert and Robert of Norfolk, and William and Frank of Madison. The daughter is Mrs. Rosella Dopson of Madison. She leaves also two brothers and two sisters living in Saunders county, all of whom were present at the funeral.

The funeral was held from the home in Norfolk on Thursday, March 14, at 11 a. m., Rev. G. H. Main of the M. E. church officiating. The remains were interred in Prospect Hill cemetery.
