ROSEWATER MAKES GAIN.

Shows Increased Strength In Republican Caucus.

GOES INTO SECOND PLACE.

Six Ballots Taken Without Result. Changes In Joint Session More Numerous Than of Late—Calkins, Fusionist, Offers to Help Out Republicans.

Lincoln, Neb., March 15.—Six ballots were taken without result in the Republican senatorial caucus last night. Significant changes were made in the vote, the most important gain being that of Edward Rosewater, who on the fifth ballot ran up to 23.

Several changes were recorded in yesterday's joint ballot for United States senator, principal among them that of Wenzl, who went to Martin and Kinkead, leaving Thompson and Currie.

Rosewater gained Steinmeyer from Melklejohn, while the latter got back Broderick from Currie and Swanson from Crouse. Owens also left Crouse for Currie. Calkins, fusionist, with a long explanation offering to come to the rescue of the Republicans, voted for Allen, fusionist, and former James W. Dawes, Republican, the latter coming from the same county as Calkins.

The senate adopted a resolution ordering the flag over the chamber placed at half mast until after the funeral of General Harrison.

Pan-American Exposition. Nothing since the World's Fair at Chicago in 1893, has elicited the widespread interest that is manifest all over the world in the Pan-American exposition, which is to be held in Buffalo, from May 1 to November 1, 1901.

The purpose of the exposition is to illustrate the progress of the countries of the western hemisphere during a century of wonderful achievements, and to bring together into closer relationship the people composing the many states, territories and countries of the three Americas.

For this important event the Nickel Plate road has issued an attractive, descriptive folder pamphlet elaborately illustrating the Pan-American exposition, the buildings and the grounds.

The Nickel Plate road is the short line between Chicago and Buffalo and affords competent train service from Chicago to Buffalo, New York City, Boston and all points east.
