The Norfolk News

The price of hogs has raised; now is a private citizen once more and there spot on earth. is no vacancy in the indgeship of the Ninth district.

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland has orfor editors' wives.

Mrs. Nation before the proper enthusi- might assist us. asm with which to celebrate General Funston's exploit can be obtained.

With Pettigrew defeated, Aguinaldo captured and Webster Davis lost, the the very near future is anything but

To be frank about it we cannot rave over this sleigh riding business just as tured by his American friends. April is about to dawn. It has a frigid aspect and don't augur well for early radishes.

The antis should at once begin at agitation in favor of life imprisonment for General Funston as a fitting punishment for capturing their great leader in the Philippines.

A white man living near Wabash Indiana, has turned black and the task of making a person believe that white is black and black is white is not nearly so difficult there as it used to be.

It is said that the illiteracy of the negroes of the south has decreased 50 per cent in the last 20 years. If such is compelled to look to their laurels.

Perhaps not another man in the army would live to tell of it if he took the risks that have been taken by General Fred Funston. He seems to bear a charmed life and is a winner in his undertakings

Governor Dietrich has signed the bill legalizing the practice of osteopathy in ment of this school may now take it experiment. without fear of being arrested for their choice.

Reverses of the usual order of things appear to be rife. A Kansas City man recently paid a lawyer $21 for getting him sent to jail for a year. Usually people will pay handsomely to be kept out of jail.

conduct a compaign in Nebraska this the peace. fall from an automobile. With an automobile, an auto-jaw and an autowatering can they auto attract some Sac City, Iowa, is said to have distribnted large lumps of baking soda. The people living there are now looking for a shower of ready baked biscuits and maple syrup.

The gold democrats are laboring to win in the St. Louis city election so Bryan column in 1904. The republicans are given a fair chance.

In regard to Lafe Young's statement that "Des Moines has railroads in every direction except straight up and down," the Boone Republican is unable to understand "why the devil has omitted such au important terminal."-Sionx City Journal.

The fast pace set in Washington was too much for Ex-Congressman Thomas J. Bradley of the Ninth New York district and he is dead as the result of indulgence and fast living at the national capital. He was a protege of Croker and Sullivan.

The fraud in the Philippines will undoubtedly be as promptly dealt with as that in Cuba. Because certain individuals get a long distance from Uncle Sam's headquarters they must not be allowed to form the opinion that the old man's arms are too short to reach

On being appointed to a captaincy in the regular army Adjutant General J. N. Kilian at once resigned and Col. Wm. H. Hayard of the second regiment has been appointed to the position of adjutant general. This leaves a vacancy at the head of the regiment which will be filled by election.

during which the church was relieved methods employed in the "Windy City" rare, even among ministers, while with the laity it is probably unheard of.

A Niobrara merchant advertises that in order to make room for a spring stock large deposits in the banks of that town there would be any choice. While the! "What bullet," they asked, "do you He wants eggs in exchange. He should "the poor farmer" is no longer in evi- commended for "getting together" none nse the utmost precaution that the two dence, but that they are strictly "it." deserve greater credit than Messrs. articles do not mix, for where some The same condition prevails in all parts Thompson and Rosewater, who cast matter finally and definitely.

that have acquired the aroma peculiar

Nebraska is not the only place where winter is lingering in the lap of spring. Pennsylvania has just experienced a Anyway "Emperor" McKinley doesn't | regular blizzard disastrous to traffic and have to line his bedroom with boiler telephone and telegraph communicairon as a protection against his enemies. tions, while Kansas is blockaded by an Senator Allen's status is settled. He all things considered, is not the worst

The Kennard Enterprise modestly duns its delinquents as follows: "What to Eat" is the name of a Minneapolis dered a $100,000 Easter gown. It is to paper that comes to us now and then. be hoped that she doesn't set the fashion We would respectfully inform the publisher that what to eat is not so important just now as how to get it. Kansas will be compelled to squelch Perhaps our delinquent subscribers

Emilo Aguinaldo has taken the oath of allegiance to the United States, which is perhaps the heaviest blow that the insurrection could sustain. He has investontlook for an "anti" demonstration in igated the conditions in the archipelago and is undoubtedly satisfied, not only that his cause is hopeless, but that American control is not as bad as pic-

> Nebraska's neighbor on the east is experiencing some excitement over the disas water. Then Rodkefeller and his oil trust can be successfully combatted.

Citizens of both political parties in St. Louis have signed an offer of reward for city election to be held this spring. The effort is being made for an honest electhe case the "poor white trash" will be ting so good recently that it will not be surprising if it goes republican soon.

> the democrats are again preparing for an assault on the American protective tariff policy, but they cannot win on that any more than they did on the antiimperialistic proposition. The people ago and the results were so disastrous into the status of their sweetheart's affecwhen he returned home and the girl had of disease and right living. The prohibitionists are planning to him arrested and tried for disturbing

George Milbank, a theatrical man, wants to engage Aguinaldo at $50,000 for a lecture tour of 100 leading cities in this country and offers to put up a A storm which lasted 20 minutes near gnarantee of $200,000 for the Filipino's good behavior. Of course he expects the American people to reimburse him by attending the lectures which in point of ability or entertainment would probably not be worth two cents per dozen.

Kansas farmers are organizing to handle this year's crop of wheat on the that they can take the state out of the co-operative plan. They believe that there is a combine among the elevators will probably do that for them if they to fix the price of their grain and propose to fight it. This is probably the forerunner of a farmers' trust, which, if fully organized, will undoubtedly be the most powerful ever conceived of, as it will control the food supply from first hands.

his oil lands near Corsicana, Texas.

The gallant death of Lieutenant Comall others on the boat were saved. A

A Methodist minister of Brooklyn has the men should awake in time to exer- may be of benefit, but they will not obdeclined an advance of $500 a year on cise their right of franchise before going ject to the right kind of advertising, prohis salary, tendered by the official board on duty and this method was employed vided it is free. after a successful two years' pastorate to bring them out. Modern political of a heavy debt. Similar instances are certainly testify to the push and progress of its inhabitants.

vestigation that about 70 per cent of the when many had given up hopes that pert. he will sell all limburger cheese at cost. belong to farmers. It concludes that members of the legislature are to be consider the deadliest?" people will eat limburger with impunity of the country, to a greater or less ex- aside personal ambition for the good and editor, also, will own plethoric pocket unquestionably been weakened by the books and bank accounts.

Conn., has endeavored to exhibit won- and the breach between leaders will derful gormandizing capacity by eating be quickly and firmly closed. 41 hard boiled eggs at a sitting. If he was not killed it is no credit to himself, unusually heavy snow fall. Nebraska, bility of his meal. If he broke a record physician diagnosed a case through the CHICAGO PICKS HARRISON. but rather a discredit to the indigestino one is likely to fall down before him and worship him for a hero. Such contests are more disgusting than the average prize fight and, it is presumed, more croup. The doctor, preferring the comdangerous.

> not because they are more handsome manded. The woman did so and the than a white woman or because they physician advised her that the child which has been a sore temptation to certain classes to become squaw men. The license is a sort of prohibitive tax on squaw men-a high protective tariff

Senate file No. 61, providing for a state veterinarian and for the control of contagious diseases among animals was passed by the legislature before it adjourned. The bill also calls for an appropriation necessary to carry out its covery of coal oil at Greenville, a small provisions. This is of importance to village near Spencer, Iowa. It is to be the veterinarians of the state, who will hoped that the find is valuable and that have a recognized official head under enough oil may eventually be discovered whom to work, and the law will be of to make it almost as readily procurable inestimable advantage to farmers and all others interested in healthy animals and the control of contagion.

The California Cured Fruit association proposes to take the prune-somethe detection of any fraud in the times despised and the subject for many a joke-out of disrepute if advertising will do it. The association has taken tion in the Missouri metropolis and it space in some of the larger papers and should be successful. Missouri is get- has filled it with recipes that are calculated to make the mouth water. The recommendation of physicians that the fruit is nutritive and at once a laxative It appears from recent utterances that and tonic is given emphasis. This method of giving the California product publicity will undoubtedly create an increased demand.

Governor Dietrich is impressed with tried their well worn idea several years the analogy between the different methods of curing corporal ills and the Nebraska and those who desire the treat- that few will care for a repetition of the various kinds of money. In discussing the osteopathy bill he said : "The greenback currency, like Christian Science is Young men should hereafter enquire based on faith. The silver, useful for subsidiary purposes, like osteopathy, has tion before making a public display of a ratio value, and the old schools like the their love. A Sioux City young man gold standard is after all the basis which who had been absent from home for must support and carry the superstruc some time saluted his adored one in a ture and be the dominant factor." The very demonstrative and public manner diamond then must represent prevention

> The governor's mansion appears to be an elephant on the hands of the state. much to furnish the mansion and keep appearance. They insinuate that it would be preferable to rent their own houses and conduct them in a manner that would not require all the salary of the office. Certain it is that if the governors do not appreciate the generosity(?) of the state in furnishing them luxurious quarters there is no excuse for state ownership of the building and it should be disposed of. They should not be required to spend all their income in the maintenance of a residence.

The republican electors of Norfolk have no excuse for not supporting the city ticket named by their party this spring. Good, clean, capable men have will grace the positions to which they Roger Q. Mills, author of the famons aspire. Several of them are old and sleeping with my head forward, and tariff bill, has joined the plutocrats well known residents and have been after awhile I discovered that the He is now making $15,000 a day from identified with Norfolk's progress and development since it was a mere village. What will become of the common people | while the others are so well known that if all their old time leaders desert their they need scant introduction. While ranks at the rate it has been going on there is no particular issue in the camin the last few years? They seem to be paign, care should be taken that trustfinding opportunities to make money in worthy and competent men are placed spite of the fear of some that the trusts in the offices and such men are presented had a corner on the wealth and power by the republicans for the consideration of the voters.

There are men who don't believe in mander Jesse M. Roper of the gunboat advertising, or say they don't, yet nine Petrel in the Asiatic squadron, appeals out of ten of them do, most emphatically. to all American people. The brave They may not believe in the kind that officer in endeavoring to save the lives advertises their goods and pays the of his shipmates from destruction by a printer, but if their name is used in confire in the sailroom, lost his own, while nection with an item which they may construe as harmful to their business. more gallant act, among the many re. there is a roar that would jar the foundported from the Philippines, has not ations of a brick block. Or should something to their discredit occur they will exert their best endeavors to keep it The politicians at Chicago awoke the from being advertised. What they probworking men, election morning, with ably mean when they say they don't bethe playing of bands and firing of can- lieve in advertising is that they object non crackers. They were anxious that to paying the printer for anything that Republicans continue to express their satisfaction with the action of the legislature in choosing Mr. Millard and Governor Dietrich for United States sena-The Irquois, S. D., Chief finds on in- tors. The decision came as a surprise they invariably draw the line on eggs tent. The time may come when the harmony of the party. The party had go Post.

long-drawn out contest, but the happy ending of the struggle will undoubtedly Another chump, this time at Winsted, unite it more firmly than ever before

The possibilities of the telephone seem to be illimitable. The latest is where a aid of the instrument. A Paris doctor was recently called out of bed by a wo- Again Chosen by Windy City Voters to man who thought her child attacked by forts of his home to a trip through the cold winter night, was struck with a The license to marry an Oklahoma novel idea. "Bring the child to the squaw now costs $1,000. Oh, no, it is telephone and let it cough," he commake better wives. It is because they hadn't the slightest trace of croup, and F. Wenneker, the Republican candiown considerable property and have a told her to go to bed. What the doc- date for city collector, conceded the deshare in all of Uncle Sam's generosity, tor's charges were for this sort of a night feat of the entire Republican ticket. call are not stated > have had a nice juicy piece of capital regarding state affairs it has been jerked ning a close race for second place. from them, and they are in sore straits to discover material against the present administration that will stick. When plurality of 10,000 rolled up. Some they were supinely confident that the of the Republican leaders claim that election of United States senators would | the Nesbit law has enabled the Demogo by default the republican majority crats to make such a strong showing rallied and elected two gentlemen, against whom the worst that has been said by the opposition is that they are corporation candidates-a cry that is raised by the fusionists against any and all republicans. Then when Governor local significance, as William J. Bry-Dietrich appeared to have decided to an, in his paper, the Commoner, and veto the bill providing for a supreme court commission they flattered themselves that he had made a mistake that would be of use to them and were muck disappointed when he allowed the commission and appropriation to stand. They are finding many a "slip twixt the crp and the lip."

BABY'S PRETTY CURLS.

Pulled Them Off In a Car and En barrassed Her Mamma.

A well dressed woman with a beautiful baby in her arms attracted the attention of all the passengers on a Germantown car. Every one was fascinated by the baby's pretty and smiling face and particularly by two golden curls which hung down her cheeks.

After awhile the child became nervous and began to tug at one of the curls which protruded from her hood. The woman, presumably her mother, quickly stopped her, but a few moments later she looked out of the window. No sooner was her face turned than the child seized her bonnet with both hands and pulled it off. It offerer little resistance, but to the astonishment of every one on the car the curls came with it, and the supposed golden haired baby showed that in reality its head was without the semblance of a fro and laughingly held it up for the The executives assert that it costs too inspection of the other passengers. It was almost a minute before the womit going at the rate befitting its outward an turned around. When she saw what the baby had done, her face flushed, and without a word she picked up the child and walked sedately out of the car. When last seen, she was trudging down Spring Garden street with the baby tucked under her arm like a sack of oats, but still holding tightly to the bonnet and cooing. "See my pooty hair?"-Philadelphia

> The Pitching of an Ocean Lines. E. W. Howe, telling in the Atchison Globe of his experience during a voyage across the Atlantic ocean, says: "I believe I made a discovery in sea-

sickness. One night when the ship was pitching badly I remarked that when there was a particularly hard lunge the screws came out of the wabeen named for the various offices and ter and whirled round so rapidly as to almost throw me out of bed. I was screws seemed to come out of the water when the prow was in the air. Then it occurred to me that this was impossible. Of course the screws came out when the stern was in the air.

"So my discovery was that in seasickness, particularly when you are in bed at night or have your eyes closed, the ship really pitches upward when you think it pitches downward. This confusion may assist in muddling the brain and stomach. I certainly had this experience all through one night. When my head seemed in the air, the screws came out of the water, although my heels were really in the air at the

A Child's Philosophy.

It is one of the prime secrets of happiness to recognize and accept one's natural limitations, but philosophy of this kind is perhaps hardly to be expected of children.

A little girl had sent back her plate for turkey two or three times and had been helped bountifully to all the good things that go to make a grand Christmas dinner. Finally she was observed looking rather disconsolately at her unfinished plate of turkey. "What's the matter, Ethel?" asked Uncle John. "You look mournful." "That's just the matter," said Ethel. 'I am mor'n full." And then she wondered why everybody laughed.-Stray Stories. Not a Hard Question. They had a dispute, and they had agreed to leave it to the military ex-

For several minutes he remained in a brown study. Then he looked up with the air of one who has settled the "The one that hits," he said .- Chica-

Democrat Chosen World's Fair Mayor by 10,000 Plurality.

Highest Office Within Their Gift-Honore to come back and smash everyone Palmer Elected Alderman Over His Re- of them." publican Opponent.

St, Louis, April 3.-Rolla Wells, the Democratic nominee for World's fair mayor, was elected to that office yesterday by a plurality of about 10,000. With him was elected the entire Democratic ticket. At midnight Charles George W. Parker, the Republican candidate, and Lee Merriwether, who is Every time the fusionists think they running independently on the municipal ownership platform, are run-

St. Louis is normally a Republican city by about 15,000 plurality. This has been reversed and a Democratic at the polls. They claim fraud and threaten to contest the election. The Democrats on the other hand say that their candidate was elected honestly and they don't fear the result of a contest. This election is of more than ex-Governor Altgeld of Illinois, from the stump in this city, have fought the election of Wells because he was a gold Democrat for two campaigns. They both endorsed Merriwether, the candidate of the public ownership

HARRISON AGAIN CHOSEN. Chicago Retains Him as Mayor for the Third Time.

Chicago, April 3.-Carter H. Harrison has been re-elected mayor of Chicago for the second time and will next week commence his third term as the chief executive of the city.

His total plurality over Judge Elbridge Hanecy, the Republican nominee, is 28,257.

Out of the 35 wards of the city, Harrison carried 26 and Hanecy 9. The vote was badly split, some of the strongest Republican parts of the city giving only a small plurality for the party nominee and some of them going for Harrison, who, however, suffered in some of the Democratic strongholds. The city wards were redistricted after the presidential election and the regular majorities in some of around from what they have always Honore Palmer, son of Potter Palmer, is elected alderman on the Demo-(Rep.), the present aldermanic representative of the ward.

The Democrats carried all the city offices on the ticket as well as that of BITTER TEMPERANCE FIGHT Elections at Kansas Towns Hinge on Question of Saloons or No Saloons.

Kansas City, April 3.-Specials to the Star give the results of elections in Kansas towns of the third class. The main issue has been the question of "wet" or "dry" administration, socalled, and has resulted from the antijoint crusade started by Mrs. Carrie Nation. The campaign has been lively and a bitter temperance fight has been waged.

At Enterprise C. B. Hoffman, who supported Mrs. Nation, was a candi- these supplies cease, the war must date on a "dry" ticket and was de feated for mayor by J. E. Buhrer. At Solomon the entire "wet" ticket, headed by E. Z. Butcher for mayor, was elected by a good majority.

At Hope J. B. Sellers, Democrat was elected mayor and the Republicans elected all but one member of elections were held in all the larger cities of Kansas yesterday. Party lines were drawn generally and in nu merous cities the issue was prohibition. In Topeka the Democrats claim the election of Parker for mayor. Kansas City, Kan., went Democratic for the first time in its history. Orr (Dem.) was elected mayor of Atchison by 500 majority. At Leavenworth the entire Democratic ticket was elected by a majority of 500. At Wichita, where Mrs. Nation began her crusade, the temperance ticket was overwhelmingly defeated by the Republicans. The Democrats carried Galena, electing J. V. McGann mayor.

Kansas Election Returns. Kansas City, April 3.-Municipal

Political Argument Results Fatally. Denver, April 3.-J. T.Diber was instantly killed and A. T. Rico fatally wounded by Max Rogers in a fight at Overland park, said to have originated in a dispute over politics. Rogers used a Winchester rifle. The men were all horsemen connected with the Overland park track.

Attempt to Assassinate Minister Fails. Berlin, April 3.-The Vossische Zeitung prints a special dispatch from Lemburg, in which, based upon information received from Warsaw, it is said that the minister of the interior, Privy Councillor Sipaguin, was recently shot at. but that the plot to assassinate him failed.

Tim Donohue In Western League. Colorado Springs, Colo., April 1 .-Tim Donohue, formerly catcher of the Chicago National League Baseball club, has bought a half interest in the Western League of this city and will be the regular catcher of the team.

DISPLEASED WITH ST. LOUIS. Mrs. Nation Driven From Namesake Sa-

toon at Point of a Revolver. St. Louis, April 3.-Mrs. Carrie Nation of Kansas spent another hour and a half in St. Louis and left in disgust at the things she saw and the treatment she received. "These things will be different some day," she declared. "Look out for me after I get out from under bonds in Kansas. I'll close these hell holes if I have

She arrived from Indianapolis and left later for Kansas City. She said he was going home to attend the cases that are pending against ber. She says she will never lecture for money any more, as she did in Cincinnati. The lectures did not pay and she says she is glad they did not.

Mrs. Nation's first act on arriving In the city was to knock a cigar from the mouth of a man who permitted smoke to blow in her face. Her last act, as she was boarding her train, was to give an American Beauty rose to a man who had two black eyes. She told him she would pray for him that he might lead a better

Between the cigar and rose incidents Mrs. Nation visited two Market street saloons, engaged in heated arguments with the bartenders and was finally forced from the Nation saloon, which she visited on her previous passage through St. Louis, at the point of a loaded revolver in the hands of the proprietor, Joseph Sauerberger.

STOP ARMY MULES

Seek an Injunction to Prevent Steamer From Leaving New Orleans With Mules for South Africa.

New Orleans, April 3.-Proceedings were brought in the United States court here yesterday by representatives of the Boers to prevent the sailing of the steamship Anglo-Australian, loaded wih mules consigned to the British in South Africa. Judge Parlange, after reading the petition, issued an order requiring the defendants in the case to show cause on April 6 why a preliminary injunction should not be granted.

The petition sets forth that the United States and its people are at peace with the South African republic and the Orange Free State and their citizens: that Great Britain is at war with these republics, seeking to destroy the property rights and credits of the petitioners; that for the purpose of carrying on this war the Anglo-Australian is now loading at this port with munitions of war, namely, mules and horses to the number of 1,200 and to the value of $150,000; that the steamer is employed in the military service of the the wards were turned squarely king of Great Britain; that for some time defendants have been forwarding from this port such munitions of war, knowing that these munitions and the ship were in the military service of cratic ticket in Harrison's home ward. Great Britain and that they were to be used against the people of the South African republic and the Orange Free State: that defendants are making use of New Orleans as a basis of the military operations of Great Britain in its war with South Africa and to through the renewal of its military that by the use of these munitions the armies of Great Britain are laying waste and destroying the farms and homes of petitioners and holding as prisoners of war the wife and children of one of the petitioners, Samuel Pearson; that Samuel Pearson has already suffered the destruction and loss of property to the value of $90,000, and is threatened with the loss of $150,000, and finally that the war can be carried on by Great Britain only augment its military supplies and arms: supplies from this port and that when end. In consideration of these statements, an injunction is asked to prohibit the shipment of military supplies out of this port. A temporary injunction is asked in the meantime. The Anglo-Australian was expected to sail yesterday, but the effect of the order by Judge Parlange will be to detain her until the hearing on Sat-

Statue of General Logan.

Washington, April 1.-Arrangements for the ceremonies attending the unveiling of the statue of General John A. Logan in Iowa circle April 9 have been completed by Colonel Theodore A. Bingham, superintendent of public buildings and grounds. On account of the few regular troops available for use in connection with the unveiling ceremonies, only a provisional regiment of the district National guard under Colonel M. Emmet Urell, a light battery of artillery and two companies of marines will participate. Colonel Guenther will be in command of the artillery.

Boers Hard Pressed.

Dundee, April 2.-It is reported from Vryheid that as a result of General French's recent operations the Boers are retiring eastward, hard pressed by Colonel Dartnell of the Natal police and Colonel Alderson. Some of them endeavored to break away to the north, but were headed off by Colonel Allenby, who captured a 15-pounder and two pompoms.

Smallpox at St. Jeseph. St. Joseph, Mo., April 1.-The health department of this city thought it had smallpox about stamped out a week ago, but since then 35 cases have been quarantined in this city. The rapid spreading of the disease is exciting alarm throughout the northern section of the state.

Cailles' Soldiers Surrender. Manila, April 2.—Thirty men of General Cailles' command have surrendered. Of this number five were officers, including Colonels Herrers and Reloya.