There is no morning in the year as noisy as Fourth of July morning and there is no morning of the year as quiet as that of July 5.

The papers are saying a great deal about Mose Jacobs, the Des Moines newsboy recently wedded in Omaha, whose wealth is estimated at from $40,000 to $60,000. Nothing is said, however, of the editor of the papers sold. He is probably in the poor house.

If the farmers of Kansas have become so desperate as to hold up trains and force harvest hands into their fields to work for $3.50 per day there is every reason to believe that they have no time to stand around the streets and argue in favor of a populist hard times administration.

Temperance people are again justified in making war upon beer. Otto Muller, a farmer of Elk Creek, this state, was opening a bottle of the beverage on the 3rd and not being able to extract the cork he pushed it in. The bottle exploded, a piece of the glass cut an artery in his leg and he bled to death. The promoters of temperance should at least insist on the use of the time honored corkscrew.

During the past week two Kansas women have been given penitentiary sentences for murder. The average jury finds it an exceedingly painful task to condemn a woman to penal servitude or hanging, because of a sympathy for the sex that is much stronger than for men. The crimes by women have recently become so frequent and of such a vicious nature that these juries were undoubtedly convinced that they must lay aside their natural respect for the sex and make an example that would discourage their sisters from following their example. It is to be hoped that the results will have a wholesome effect and that women in the future will realize that they cannot commit a crime and hope for a clemency that would not be given a man.

UPROAR IN THE COMMONS.

Brodrick Scores Radicals for Encouraging Boers to Prolong War. London, July 5.—In the house of commons last night an acrimonious discussion arose between the radicals and the government on the South African war, Mr. Lloyd-George and others violently denouncing the government's war policy.

William Redmond reminded the government that the day was independence day beyond the seas and that the British statesmen were now glad to claim kinship with and sing Huzzas to great independent America. Mr. Brodrick, the war secretary, amid continued disorder and interruption from the Irish benches, reproached the pro-Boer radicals with prolonging the war by encouraging the Boers to a vain resistance. He announced that the government had just received news that Commandant General Louis Botha had permission in June to communicate with Mr. Kruger, the result of which was a meeting at which General Dewet and Botha and others decided to continue the war, and accept no terms short of independence. Mr. Brodrick added that the government's resolution was still unshaken and that great progress had been made in the war in the last three months.

The dispatch read by Brodrick was the first really definite announcement the government has made that the peace negotiations have failed. It revived keen interest in the war. Dispatches from the front say the Boers still have 13,000 men in the field and declare that unless the war can be finished during the next two months the prospect is that it will continue for another year.

The morning papers again urge the government to make vigorous efforts and to make no further attempts at negotiations.

Fourth of July Fatality. Paris, Ill., July 5.—While celebrating the Fourth with a revolver last evening Everett Whalen, 15 years old, shot and instantly killed Lula Mullenix, the 12-year-old daughter of John Mullenix, a wealthy farmer.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
