

WEDNESDAY WRINKLES.

E. A. Crum is in the city today from Creighton. I. Newman went to Denver today on a vacation. Mrs. Perrett of Randolph is the guest of Mrs. McKim. Mrs. James Gray is camping for 10 days at Long Pine. W. H. Blessing was in town from Hadar yesterday. Miss Vera Spencer went to Stanton today for a short visit. Frank Dearborn of Wayne was a Norfolk visitor yesterday. Miss Preston of Madison is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gardner. N. A. Rainbolt and Dr. Frank Salter went to Long Pine on a fishing trip last evening. It is estimated that 4,000 people attended the Workman picnic at Hartington yesterday. C. E. Burnham was down from Tilden yesterday on business. He didn't go near the show. The merry-go-round has returned and is being set up on the lot west of Fuesler's tailor shop. Miss Anna Lobnow who has been visiting with Norfolk friends, went to Fremont this morning. Miss Julia Broome returned to her home in Pilger today after a few days' visit with Norfolk friends. J. J. Bruner of Omaha, who is here on internal revenue service, was the guest of C. E. Flores today. The ladies aid society of the M. E. church will meet in the parlor of the church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. Beels and Miss Lota Blakely went to Winside and Hoskins this morning to meet their music students. Mrs. Pettenger returned to her home in Albion this morning after a visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. P. H. Johnson. Carpenters are at work today building up the show windows of Davenport Bros' shoe store and making other improvements. Mrs. A. J. Barkley returned to her home in Boone, Iowa, this morning after a visit of several days with her brother, W. E. Spencer. The north wind brought some cooler weather this morning that is much appreciated by the people. Yesterday was too hot for comfort. The bonds providing for improvements to the water system at Neligh carried by a small majority yesterday. The amount voted was $3,000. Postmaster Sprecher, P. F. Bell and H. D. Kelly will leave this evening for Sheridan, Wyoming, where they will join C. B. Burrows in a camping and hunting outing. The material for Hight Bros' bowling alley has been received and is being placed in the east store room of the Marquardt block, which has been placed in first class condition. There was a game of base ball at Milford, Iowa, Sunday between the Milford and Algona teams that was a marker. Sixteen innings were played without a score for either team. Darkness ended the contest. The improvements to the Baptist parsonage are well under way and when completed it will be a handsome and commodious cottage. The addition on the south adds much to the convenience and attractiveness of the building. At a special election held in Hartington Monday bonds for putting in a city gas plant were carried by a vote of 80 to 60. Hartington is one of the prettiest towns in this part of state and the people propose to have it well lighted. The Glenwood team did up West Point in another game yesterday 16 to 9. The Glenwood team arrived here on the noon train and this afternoon is engaged in an interesting game with the home team. A large number of people are interested spectators. The tailors for J. W. Humphrey's establishment didn't arrive when expected but will probably be here tomorrow and the store then be opened for business Saturday. The work of arranging the place is well advanced and a model business establishment will be the result. There is a race on between the Elkhorn and Burlington companies to get standard gauge lines into Lead, S. D. The former has about three and a half miles to build, while the Burlington will be compelled to construct eight or ten miles of track. It is believed that the Elkhorn will be able to accomplish the job in about four months. Columbus Journal: The angora goat is becoming a little more popular every year as a farm domestic, and has a number of points in its favor. An ordinary well-built hog fence four feet high will turn him. He is hardy and generally free from disease. They are killed by packers and sold as mutton. They are better browsers than sheep, and can protect themselves better against dogs. They can be bought at Kansas City almost any time, graded ones, at $4 to $6 a head. Verdigre Citizen: Joseph Kurka had 1,300 bushels of two-year-old corn and when it became necessary, a few days ago, for him to open the crib, a swarm of wasps entered a strenuous protest, and drove Mr. Kurka away from the crib. Joe's mad was up and he immediately attacked the wasps with a fire brand. He was doing frightful execution among the wasps when a sudden gust of wind carried the flames into the thatched roof and the jig was up. Joe burned the wasps all right, but it cost him $900 to do it. Rev. H. C. Meyers, aged 67 years, died at the home of his son in Stanton yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock from cancerous tumors. The deceased was at one time a Methodist minister but later founded the People's Baptist church at Schuyler. His last pastorate was at Denver, Col., where he received $2,000 a year. Rev. Mr. Meyers was a member of the Masonic fraternity and the funeral tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock will be under the auspices of that order. The Stanton lodge would be pleased to have as many Norfolk Masons attend as possible. On February 18 the home of H. C. Broome at Omaha was entered and burglarized. Monday of this week Charles T. Hinkle, colored, was arrested for impersonating an officer and a search of his residence discovered a large quantity of solid silverware and a couple of rugs that had been taken from the Broome home. The family was using the silverware at breakfast and much of it was engraved with the name of the owner and Mrs. Broome had no hesitancy in identifying it. It is thought that Hinkle had performed at least half a dozen burglaries. The Great Eastern show came here yesterday with a following that has something of a record for faking and working various grafts. When they came here the officers were prepared for them and kept the practice of skin games down to a minimum. One fellow claimed to have been short changed by a reserved seat man, losing $4.50 by the deal but the man who did the work could not be located and no arrests were made. Several persons lost at a shell game or something of similar character but this was sat down on early in the proceedings and no further complaints were made. A young boy in the professional begging business was the only arrest made. Chief of Police Conley reports that dog owners have been coming up quite manfully and paying their taxes during the past few days. He recently published notice to the effect that he would begin shooting dogs on which the taxes had not been paid after the 10th. Those who were inclined to think he was joking discovered their error after 12 canines gave up their respective ghosts and some of the owners are literally falling over themselves to get in line and save their pets from annihilation. The officers find that there is trouble on every hand when they collect from some and allow others to escape and have determined that dogs should either have their taxes paid or die. The Harvest Home Festival is in a state of abeyance. The committee appointed is ready and willing to proceed if the business men desire, but assert that they will not force an entertainment on the citizens. They volunteer to devote their time and money to the cause with the belief that it is to the interest of the city but they want the business men to determine whether or not such an entertainment shall be held and its character. At its meeting Monday night the Woodmen appointed a committee to co-operate with the business men any time they wish to proceed but the members of the entertainment committee assert that they are through explaining and coaxing. Dodge county is gaining quite a reputation as a mecca for horse thieves and two or three stealings a week is getting to be the average record. Chief of Police Conley received a message today requesting him to keep a look out for a rig that had been stolen at Hooper and Monday he was advised to watch for a team, buggy and harness taken from A. Jens, proprietor of the Club livery barn at Fremont. The thief hired it Sunday morning for a seven-mile drive and failed to return. Officer Conley stated that an outfit answering the description passed through here about 3 o'clock Monday afternoon but other duties prevented him from following and he undoubtedly missed sharing in the reward of $75 offered for its capture. An Oklahoma editor, who is a deep thinker, has fixed a table of rates for publishing things, "not as they seem," as follows: "For telling the public that a man is a successful citizen when everyone knows that he is as lazy as a government mule, $2.75; referring to a deceased citizen as one who is sincerely mourned by the entire community and when we know he will be missed by the poker circle, $1.08; referring to some galling female as an estimable lady whom it is a pleasure to meet, when every business man in the town would rather see the devil coming, horns, hoofs and all, than to see her coming towards them, $3.10; calling an ordinary pulpiter an eminent divine, 60 cents; sending a tough sinner to heaven with poetry, $5." Daily Excursions via Nickle Plate Road. Chicago to Buffalo and New York. Special low rates and favorable limits on all points east. Call on or address John Y. Calahan, general agent, 111 Adams street, Chicago.

THURSDAY TIDINGS.

J. E. Brown was here yesterday from Ponca. Geo. N. Beels went to Oakland this morning. H. S. Jarvis of Ainsworth was a city visitor yesterday. Dr. Kee of Pilger visited Norfolk friends yesterday. Mrs. R. A. Tawney of Pierce was a city visitor today. A. H. Winder was a passenger for St. Paul this morning. Frank Malchow was a city visitor yesterday from Wisner. S. L. Gardner was a passenger for Sioux City this afternoon. E. M. Ziesche was a passenger for Hot Springs, S. D., last evening. C. M. Wolfe of Springview was in the city over night enroute to St. Paul. The family of Supt. O'Connor have returned from their visit at Hartington. Rev. L. W. Scudder and family have returned from a visit to Mrs. Scudder's parents. The Ladies of the Maccabees are enjoying a picnic party this afternoon at Taft's grove. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hughes and Miss Rose Hughes were here today from Battle Creek. August Hoehne who has been visiting friends here, returned to his home in Wisner yesterday. The ladies of Trinity Social guild went to the Yellow Banks today to visit the choir boys' camp. John Ommerman has gone to Madison to work on the new bridges for the Canton Bridge company. Sam Marty, B. S. Perrine and Mike Ryan of Creighton were in town yesterday to see the ball game. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Malchow of Wisner, who have been visiting Norfolk friends, went to Sioux City yesterday. Misses Bessie McFarland and Clara and Lydia Bruggemann went to Pilger yesterday to visit the grand parents of the latter. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Berner departed yesterday noon for a visit of several weeks in Milwaukee, Wis., where they have relatives. Miss Preston returned to her home in Madison this morning and was accompanied by Mrs. S. L. Gardner who will visit there a short time. A camping party composed of Ed Dixon, Ray Hayes, John Kuhl, Millard Green and Carl Davenport went to the Yellow Banks today for a week's stay. Dudley's wagonette went to the Yellow Banks today with another party of pleasure seekers. They were: Herbert Daniel and Misses Hartley, McBride, Whyman, Durland and Morrow. A number of West Side families picnicked at Taft's grove yesterday afternoon, previous to the departure of Messrs. Sprecher, Bell and Kelly for Sheridan, Wyoming, on a hunting trip. The children of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Westervelt paid a surprise visit to their mother yesterday, with their families, in honor of her birthday anniversary. The occasion was heartily enjoyed by all. Rev. G. H. Main is attending the district camp meeting at Beemer and in his absence the pulpit at the Methodist church will be filled Sunday morning and evening by Rev. Oscar Mueller of Winside. Ira Welch of the Ames Agricultural college, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. E. M. Huntington. He is on his way home from a trip west with a class of botanical students from the college. They have been out since the first of July and have had a very enjoyable trip. Ed Mason and a stranger got into some difficulty over a game of dice about noon today and indulged in a scrap with considerable of a foot race accompaniment. The stranger was lodged in jail. It is said that the stranger refused to pay for a game and Mason endeavored to enforce payment with a knife. The Yellow Banks is adding to its reputation as a summer resort this summer. There are about 50 people encamped there at the present time and about 20 have gone out today on a visit. It is expected that there will soon be over 100 campers there from Norfolk, Madison, Battle Creek and Meadow Grove, if it doesn't rain. Rev. W. H. Eaton, formerly pastor of the Baptist church of this city, in a letter to L. M. Gaylord, from Cherryville, Kansas, says that he is prospering in his work there in spite of the crop failure. They are building a nice brick church almost as large as the Methodist church here. The upper walls are about half way to the eaves. They are practically nothing behind on the money part and Pastor Eaton is much encouraged, hoping to dedicate free of debt. Chief of Police Conley has been instructed to do his duty in regard to the dogs on which the license tax has not been paid and is out with a 44-calibre cannon making war on all sorts of curs that infest the streets. Seven were killed yesterday and others will shortly join them in the happy hunting ground if the taxes are not paid. The officers consider that dog owners have had sufficient notice and no one will be to blame but the owners if dogs are shot down on which the license has not been paid. The Schlak-Loescher marriage which takes place this afternoon at 4 o'clock furnished an excuse for a party to go to the Loescher home last evening for the purpose of giving the prospective bride and groom a charivari. Reports from the affair indicate that the fellows composing the charivari party conducted themselves in an altogether disgraceful manner. They were invited into the Loescher home and while refreshments were being served they grabbed a portion of the treat and carried it away. Then they came back looking for trouble and if reports are true they got more of it than they bargained for and less than they deserved as there was a party being entertained at the house, the men being of robust build and possessing an ability to resent an insult. Not satisfied with making trouble the charivari party destroyed some of the property of Mr. Loescher and defaced his house to a considerable extent. Made its Own Funeral Toilet. There are certain insects that have such a respect for Mrs. Grundy and are endowed with such an innate love of neatness and order that not even death, or rather decapitation, can prevent them from making one grand final toilet, which is clearly designed to give them a sedate and respectable appearance after death. Dr. Ballou, a skilled entomologist, discovered this remarkable fact. "During one of my recent horseback rides," he says, "I frequently caught one of those large flies which annoy cattle and horses so much, and I promptly got rid of it by crushing its head. One day, instead of throwing the mutilated insect away, I placed it on the back of my hand and indolently watched it. For some seconds the insect remained motionless, but then, to my unbounded surprise, it moved its front legs forward to the place where the head should have been, and, after it had rubbed them nervously together, apparently in anguish, it began to brush its body and to smooth its wings with its hind legs. Under the gentle pressure of these limbs the body gradually became extended and the extremity curved, while the wings gradually changed their natural position and left the upper part of the body exposed. Meanwhile the hind legs continued to brush each other from time to time. "Naturally I watched this extraordinary sight with great interest, and, in order to see the finale, I took the insect into my study, where it lived an entire day, spending the time at the ungrateful task of making its own funeral toilet."
