

THE CONGREGATIONALISTS

State Association Convened Last Evening.

SERMON BY REV. JOHN DOANE.

Supt. D. C. O'Connor Welcomes the Visitors and Rev. Lewis Gregory Responds—List of Delegates Attending—Address by Moderator Cross.

From Tuesday's Daily:

The Congregationalists of Nebraska, especially those who have been turning their steps toward Norfolk, are felicitating themselves over the fact that their general association, in its forty-fifth annual meeting, has promise of enjoying the best kind of weather that the whole year has to offer. It will be especially appreciated in this city of magnificent distances.

The first evening's session was preceded by a song service, somewhat extended by reason of the delayed arrival of the evening train which brought most of the delegates. Mrs. Mount and Mrs. Utter presided at the organ, the choir consisting of Mrs. Bucholz, Miss Parker, Miss Morrow, Dr. Cole and Mr. Baker. Before the sermon Mrs. Bucholz sang beautifully.

At 8:30 the formal announcement of opening was made by Rev. R. T. Cross of York, moderator, and the evening's program was carried out as previously announced. Supt. O'Connor in fitting and hearty words welcomed the visitors to the city and its homes, incidentally drawing attention to the numerous attractions of the city and vicinity. Rev. Lewis Gregory of Lincoln responded for the association. He referred pleasantly to the previous meetings of the association with the Norfolk church in 1884 and 1890, and also the earlier time, within the memory of some present, when the entire association could go to the place of meeting in a prairie schooner.

After the reading of scripture and a prayer by the moderator, Rev. John Doane of Plymouth church, Lincoln, preached the annual sermon from the text Isaiah 32:17, "And the work of righteousness shall be peace." Mr. Doane said in part: "Social unrest distinguishes the age. There is a demand that society be established on a new basis of brotherhood. Religious doubt and questioning is everywhere prevalent. But society is to be established and faith clarified in this twentieth century. What part is the christian church to have in social reconstruction? A large part if it follows the example and precept of Christ. Rightly guided all unrest will ensure progress and end in righteous peace. A satisfying peace in any sphere of activity will come only as the work of righteousness." "Men of doubt will become men of faith through service," said the speaker with great earnestness. In the course of his sermon Mr. Doane paid an eloquent tribute to the splendid virtues of the late President McKinley.

At the opening hour of the morning session Rev. W. J. Turner of McCook was elected moderator for the ensuing year. Prin. F. C. Taylor, clerk; Rev. H. J. Hinman, assistant clerk. An amendment to the constitution was adopted. As was the case last year at Hastings, the devotional services in the most convenient hours of the sessions are to be made prominent and helpful. The morning service today was well attended and under the leadership of Rev. G. E. Taylor of Pierce was well carried out.

Up to noon the enrollment was as follows: Ministers, forty-seven, Revs. H. Bross, G. W. Mitchell, George Scott, M. A. Bullock, John Doane, W. H. Manss, Theo. Griffiths, H. C. Halbraksen, S. I. Hanford, F. F. Lewis, C. S. Sargent, R. T. Cross, J. F. Smith, G. W. Crofts, J. B. Stocking, A. E. Ricker, J. H. Anderson, C. D. Gearheart, Isaac McKee, W. J. Turner, J. H. Beitel, G. B. Spangler, G. R. Martin, W. A. Hensel, F. V. Moslander, A. C. Cressman, J. W. Larkin, Jacob Flook, F. W. Leavitt, J. B. Losey, W. J. Isaacs, L. S. Hand, G. E. Taylor, A. W. Ayers, R. M. Sargent, E. Booth, T. C. Moffat, E. G. Appleton, Franklin Baker, W. A. Davies, H. J. Hinman, W. T. Williams, John Jeffries, J. J. Klopp, E. L. Wismer, G. A. Munro.

In addition to these gentlemen, who are ex-officio delegates from as many churches, many churches are represented by additional delegates as follows, thirty-four: Ashland, W. C. Blakeslee, F. H. Chickering, Mrs. F. H. Chickering; Aten, Mrs. Mary S. Williams, Mrs. Matilde Benker; Aurora, J. D. Stewart, Mrs. J. D. Stewart; Beatrice, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Fogz; Chadron, L. M. Oberkotter, Mrs. M. D. Wheeler; Crete, Sarah Andress; Geneva, J. S. Staples; Hastings, E. P. Wiese; Leigh, Warren Fusselman; Lincoln First, Mrs. B. F. Bailey; Lincoln Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sellock; Lincoln Vine Street, Mrs. H. Bross; Lincoln Butler Ave., Laura H. Wild; Milford, Mrs. John Jeffries; Norfolk First, Mrs. M. A. McMillan; Omaha First, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Snow; Silver Creek, Dallas B. Halstead; Weeping Water, F. C. Taylor, Jas. A. Leach, Mrs. W. D. Ambler; West Point, Mrs. Geo. Korb, Mrs. F. W. Leavitt; Wyomere, Mrs. T. C. Moffat; York, Mrs. R. T. Cross; Carroll, E. Jenkins, David M. Davies.

Much interest always centers in the retiring moderator's address. The subject chosen by Rev. R. T. Cross was "Giving on a Larger Scale." Giving, said the speaker, should increase with increased ability, also with increased personal expenditures, with increased blessing. Large gifts are necessary to start in motion large blessings. Gifts should be increased with an added security of capital and certainty of dividends. The churches, schools, hospitals are paying the largest dividends. Again, increased opportunities make larger calls on benevolence. Emergencies in our benevolent enterprises should be met as manfully as we meet family emergencies. A few words can scarcely do justice to this very strong address. In printed form it is to be widely scattered over the state.

ODD FELLOWS RETURNING.

Enjoyed a Pleasant and Profitable Grand Lodge at Kearney.

From Saturday's Daily:

Geo. N. Beels, H. L. Spaulding and S. R. McFarland, representing Norfolk Lodge at the grand lodge meeting, I. O. O. F., at Kearney, returned last night. Mrs. Spaulding, delegate to the Rebekah lodge, stopped over in Columbus for a day and will return tonight. Other delegates in Norfolk last night on their way home were: J. H. Brown of Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Morgan of Albion, Mrs. G. H. Bannon of Wakefield, Mrs. Noble of Ponca, Mrs. Coye of Emerson, Mrs. Philbrick of Laurel, Mrs. Ingham of Coleridge, Joel Frost of Emerson, G. W. Coltrill of Randolph, W. P. Primmer of Coleridge, Thos. Birge of Laurel, A. B. Jeffrey, Mr. Struger and Mrs. I. W. Alter of Wayne.

One of the delegates gives the following brief account of the session:

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday the Odd Fellows occupied all the available space at Kearney with their annual session of the grand lodge, grand encampment and Rebekah assembly—in the latter all business is conducted by the lady representatives.

The Kearney Odd Fellows and citizens during the past year had made ample preparations and the representatives of the order were royally entertained, the streets and business houses being handsomely decorated.

The public parade occurred Wednesday afternoon, followed by a carriage drive through the alfalfa meadows, to the cotton mills, the reform school and Watson's ranch, and an extensive drive along the canal.

On Thursday morning all branches of the order joined in memorial exercises on the death of President McKinley, and also for John Evans, P. G. M., who recently died at Omaha.

All business being concluded the final part of the entertainment program occurred at the opera house Thursday evening in a public meeting of the Odd Fellows and citizens where an interesting program of vocal and instrumental music was rendered by local talent interspersed with short speeches by J. S. Hoagland, G. R., of North Platte; A. H. Weir, P. G. M., of Lincoln; Geo. L. Loomis, P. G. M., of Fremont; Geo. N. Beels, P. G. M., of Norfolk, and P. C. Johnson, G. R. of Holmesville. The work of the grand lodge was of the usual routine, the principal interest centering in renewed efforts to establish a Odd Fellows home and the accumulation of funds for that purpose.

The Odd Fellows returned to their homes feeling that they had been royally entertained and carrying with them impressions long to be remembered.

Capt. Miller, chairman of the committee, on entertainment and his able assistants distinguished themselves as equal to every emergency and the whole program was carried out without a break. Among the old settlers to whom the representatives were especially indebted for courtesies were Col. W. F. Pickering, Col. J. H. Roe and S. S. F. John.

The new presiding officers elected were Chas. A. Randall of Newman Grove, grand master of the grand lodge, S. D. Cameron of Schuyler, grand patriarch of the grand encampment, Mrs. Lucy J. Berger of Hebron, president of Rebekah assembly.

Grand lodge meets next year at Lincoln.

A Big Lot for the Money.

A newspaper every Tuesday and every Friday of each week from now until January 1, 1903, together with the Western Poultry News a whole year, and all for a dollar, is what is offered by The Semi-Weekly State Journal, published at Lincoln. It's the biggest bunch of good reading matter ever offered by this great state paper, and the prediction is made that it will result in introducing The State Journal to thousands of new homes. The Journal is a newspaper giving its readers all the telegraphic news of the world, interesting special correspondence from Washington about Nebraska's senators and congressmen, and all the items of interest from the state capital, making it particularly a paper for Nebraskans. If you can find a dollar about the house this is the place to spend it. Its markets twice a week are worth what is asked for all of it. You get the news fresh from the wires when you get The Semi-Weekly Journal.

The News keeps its job department up-to-date with the latest faces of type and does its work in approved style.

TALKS ON BENEVOLENCE.

Congregational Ministers Endorse the Cheerful Giver.

DR. AMENT OF CHINA SPEAKS.

Will Give an Address Tonight That Promises to be of Unusual Interest. The Lord's Supper was Observed at This Morning's Session.

From Wednesday's Daily:

Rev. F. F. Lewis of Syracuse spoke at the afternoon session on "The Spirituality of Benevolence." Mr. Lewis added variety to his paper by hanging on a wire before the audience cartoons illustrating the relative amounts spent for drink, tobacco, bread, etc., and missions. Other points were thus graphically represented to the eye as well as to the ear. The paper embodied the report of the state committee on benevolences.

Mr. W. A. Sellock of Lincoln opened the discussion, after which the subject was discussed freely from the floor. Dr. Ament, of China, was welcomed and voted thirty minutes' time on the topic. The missionary introduced instances of remarkable benevolence on the part of Chinese christians.

The first break in the program as arranged came through the enforced absence of Rev. H. C. Herring of Omaha and the consequent omission of his address in presentation of the report on education. Rev. A. E. Ricker of Aurora read a paper on the subject, "Strengthen the Impression that Christian Schools are Needed." He gave in a logical manner the strong points in favor of christian higher education.

"Enlisting the Children" was treated in a short address by Rev. F. W. Leavitt of West Point. This was a sub-topic under the general subject of christian education. Impromptu reports followed from Doane college, Chadron, Gates, Weeping Water and Franklin academies, trustee Chickering speaking for Doane, and each academy being represented by its principal.

Devotional exercises opening the evening session were conducted by Rev. Joseph Bennett of Avoca. In the absence of Dr. Stevens of Lincoln, Dr. Ament of Pekin kindly consented to occupy the time with an address upon his favorite theme. By virtue of his twenty-six years in China, Dr. Ament is able to speak from broad and thorough knowledge. Certainly he has an extremely interesting way of presenting his information. His respect for the Chinaman is profound, and he has no hesitancy in saying that the three dominant races of the future include the Chinese with the Slavic and Anglo-Saxon. The Chinaman of Canton who comes to America as a laundryman is not a fair type of the race. Dr. Ament has read much of the Chinese classics, and he made the evening's address largely historical, with frequent reference to observed Chinese characteristics. The distinguished missionary makes his main address Wednesday evening, and it is safe to say that standing room will be at a premium.

President H. K. Warren of Yankton college, formerly of Nebraska, spoke effectively on the subject, "The Function of the Small College." This address also introduced the historical element as the speaker reviewed the splendid record of the Congregational church as a college builder. The beginnings of Harvard, Yale, Williams, Oberlin were vividly portrayed. President Warren introduced statistics showing how a college training increases one's chances for distinction about one hundred times.

At the morning business session Weeping Water was chosen as the place of holding the next annual meeting. Various committees were chosen as needed for facilitating business. The association extended a vote of sympathy to the venerable ministers, Anos Dresser and C. S. Harrison, who were unable to come. The Omaha, Columbus and Elkhorn Valley associations have held meetings at convenient times. In his report as visitor to Chicago seminary, Rev. W. H. Manss, contrary to the usual custom, ventured to point out week points in the seminary. Spuited debate followed the report.

Principal L. M. Oberkotter of Chadron academy led the devotional hour. The Lord's commandment, "Love One Another," was a topic which lifted the thoughts of the many present to a high spiritual plane. Helpful suggestions and tender prayers followed rapidly through the period.

Rev. G. W. Crofts of Beatrice, who has been called "The Poet-Preacher," gave a characteristic sermon on "The Christ-Filled Life," introducing many of his thoughts in poetic forms. It was a good discourse. Following this came the sacrament of the Lord's Supper conducted by the veterans, Rev. R. M. Sargent and Rev. George Scott. An offering was made for the ministerial relief fund.

The University of Nebraska School of Agriculture opens November 11 and closes for the year April 25. The instruction covers the whole field of agriculture. In live stock the students are given work in judging, feeding, and the principles of breeding. The future breeders of improved live stock should prepare for their important work by making themselves familiar with those laws concerning animal reproduction which are essential to success in this work. Students of the School of Agriculture are given one term on the study of various breeds and the principles of animal breeding. The instruction is such as will be of value to any young man who may in future be engaged in the rearing of farm animals, whether common or registered stock. Write for information.

COMPLIMENTARY TO TEAL.

Dr. Miller of Omaha Writes of the Norfolk Hospital for Insane.

Dr. George L. Miller of Omaha recently wrote a letter to the World-Herald, after his visit to the Norfolk hospital for the insane, which is a splendid testimonial to Superintendent Teal and his corps of assistants. The people of the state take this highly complimentary endorsement as indicative of the satisfactory manner in which the state institutions are at present conducted. The letter follows:

"To the Editor of the World-Herald: I was much gratified to read in the World-Herald a few days ago what I previously knew to be true of the hospital for the insane at Norfolk. I was a guest of Superintendent Teal for a day at that institution a short time ago on his invitation, and am much indebted to him for the opportunity given me to see all its inmates and to observe, under Superintendent Teal's zeal to afford me information, not only the superior character and plans of the great hospital, but to the uttermost opportunity to see with my own eyes one of the best appointed and most humanely and intelligently conducted asylums for the care, and also for the cure, of the victims of wrecked reason that I ever saw. Not a manacle, not a crib, not a straight jacket nor any other of the barbarous devices which inhumanity begotten of ignorance and the love of power over the defenseless, which I know to be in full swing of operation in similar institutions not far from Omaha. The reason for the absence of these instruments of torture at Norfolk is that its intelligent and well instructed superintendent knows that they are unnecessary and cruel as means of restraint, and do more harm than good. Under the control of kind and competent attendants and with simple and comfortable means of restraint, the wildest patient at Norfolk knows no such thing as violent treatment. Nor is violence used in resentment in that superb institution.

For instance, I called upon one of the most dangerous of his patients, who, as his attention was turned from him for a moment, struck Dr. Teal a full blow in the face and caused his nose to bleed quite freely. Dr. Teal did not yield to his natural impulses to knock down his irresponsible assailant, but smiled upon him and walked away to repair damages. Had this thing happened in some hospital for the insane of which I have definite information the patient would have been beaten by amateur pugilists, choked, kicked and manacled. Dr. Teal's steadiness in dealing with the wildest of his patients, his humanity and interest in them and his intelligent adherence to mental surgery treatment with not so much as a suggestion of force beyond gentle and firm restraint furnishes a high example and splendid proofs to the people of the state of the reforms that have come in the treatment of the insane.

"Drs. Terl and Young and the house assistants in the late disaster to the Norfolk hospital must command the admiration of everybody for their coolness and courage. The result is shown in the saving of human life and suffering and much property. "Norfolk should retain the great hospital. No doubt about it. No finer location was ever seen than is the Norfolk location for such an institution for healthful inmates, for beauty of site and view and for natural drainage.

GEORGE L. MILLER.
WARNEVILLE.

Mrs. J. D. Horner went to Ohio last week to visit relatives.

A. E. O'Dell of Pontanello, Iowa, is visiting his brother, Fred.

Mrs. C. J. Lodge and children went to Fairfield, Iowa, Thursday of last week to visit Mrs. Lodge's mother.

Dan Murphy of Omaha was here Monday viewing the improvements recently made on his farm west of town.

Geo. Chandler held the lucky number that drew the Marlin repeating rifle raffled last Saturday evening by Charlie Gibbs.

The oyster supper given by the M. B. A. lodge last Thursday evening was well attended and the receipts were satisfactory.

The Modern Woodmen lodge will give a dance and oyster supper Friday evening, November 1, to which the public is cordially invited.

The complete service of "The Chicago-Portland Special" via Union Pacific, enables passengers to reach the principal cities between the north and Pacific coast and Missouri river not only in the shortest possible space of time, but also in the most comfortable and enjoyable manner. The dining cars on this train are stocked with the best market affords. All meals served a la carte.

I am going to sell cheap all my thoroughbred Barred Plymouth Rock fowls.
W. R. HOFFMAN.

MARTYR CHURCH OF CHINA

Dr. Ament Tells of the Boxer Uprising.

ANNUAL MISSIONARY SERMON.

Himself a Hero of the Siege He Draws Graphic Pictures of the World Event—Rev. Mr. Clark and Rev. and Mrs. Broad Also Gave Addresses.

From Thursday's Daily:

The association convened Wednesday afternoon at the Nebraska Home Missionary society with Rev. M. A. Bullock as president pro tem. The Stanton pastor, Rev. J. J. Klopp, conducted the devotional exercises in opening. Then came business with reports from Secretary Sellock, Treasurer H. A. Snow of Omaha, Supt. H. Bross and Mrs. Bross for the Woman's Board. The old officers were re-elected for the coming year, with the exception of Rev. H. C. Herring, whose resignation was accepted, and the vacancy filled by the election of Rev. George E. Taylor of Pierce. There is strong hope that Nebraska may be able to support her own missionary enterprise unassisted by 1905.

It was a treat to Nebraskans to hear Superintendent and Mrs. Broad of Kansas, and a pleasure to extend them a hearty welcome. Mr. Broad spoke with great energy, enlivened with many flashes of wit, regarding the home missionary situation in Kansas. In his preliminary remarks, he gave his serious opinion that Carrie Nation with all her irregular methods, had accomplished a great deal of good. Mr. Broad's main topic had to do with home missionary self support in his state.

Mrs. H. S. Caswell broad interested all in her account of how the women helped in Kansas. The women there have of late years given one-third of all the contributions of the state to home missions. The children support by their mite boxes a "ranch missionary" for the western third of Kansas. The "power of the littles" was earnestly commended by Mrs. Broad.

The devotional exercises that opened the evening concluded with a beautiful solo, with violin obligato, by Mrs. Bucholz. Then Rev. Geo. V. Clark of South Carolina was introduced for one of the two principle addresses, prefacing his remarks by singing two negro melodies. "How it Looks to an Ex-Slave" from 1865 to 1891, was the topic into which the eloquent Carolinian wove most interesting personal reminiscences and acute observations on the present condition of the negro people. The educational equipment of the American Missionary association, for the colored people of the south, was a revelation to many present.

A baritone solo, "Just For Today" by the Pilgrim Press agent was gladly heard. Mr. Clark had completely captured the hearts of all who crowded the Congregational church, but even more did Dr. Ament carry with him the sympathies of the audience as he told of his thrilling experiences during the siege of Pekin, and of the martyr church. The beginning and spread of the Boxer movement and its dreadful fruitage were clearly explained. It was impossible to listen to the bare account of the scenes before the siege and during its continuance without strong emotion. Yet the missionaries were happy, said Dr. Ament, and sang so much that Sir Claude Macdonald sent to forbid it because it drew the Boxers' fire. The story of the loy-hero who carried the first message out of Pekin and back again was especially interesting to the children. The cause of Christ has been advanced by the Boxer outbreak. God can cause the wrath of man to praise him. Although Dr. Ament spoke with great modesty, many in the audience knew that there was no greater hero or wiser counsellor at the siege of Pekin and afterward than the speaker himself.

Thursday morning's business session was introduced by a short devotional service, conducted by Evangelist Reed, who has already put many of our churches deeply in his debt. Editor H. A. French of the Congregational News reported on enrollment, the total number of pastors and delegates being 108. Since the former list was printed the following delegates have enrolled: Albion, Mrs. Sarah Peters, Miss Kathrina Douglas; Blair, J. A. Lindholm; Columbus, Mrs. F. Rorer, Mrs. P. B. Derrington; Creighton, Mrs. Vina Buckmaster, Miss Susan Carpenter; Fremont, Mrs. John P. Hoff, I. P. Gage; Grand Island, C. H. Tully; Irvington, S. C. Brewster; Kearney, Lillian Parker; Maple Creek, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Lackey; Neligh, J. A. Doremus, Mrs. J. D. Hatfield, Mabel E. Bartow; Park, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Clark; West Cedar Valley, Mrs. C. Tinker, Mrs. Chris. Nyrop; Crete, Prof. Margaret E. Thompson.

The committee report on church federation was presented through Rev. J. D. Stewart, that on the Bible society by Rev. J. H. Beitel. The excess of issues of Bibles by this society for the past year over any previous year was 148,000. The nominating committee recommended as business committee for the ensuing year: Rev. Messrs. Bullock, Beaver, Fairchild and Hanford.
One of the delegates to the Triennial

Council of Congregational Churches, Rev. A. E. Ricker, reported to the association his impressions of that great gathering.

The following ministers are to be added to the previous list: Henry Griffiths, E. F. Diefenbacher, John Roberts, Laura H. Wild, J. H. Bennett, T. C. Hunt, A. A. Brown, C. E. Campbell, Clinton Douglas, John Gray.

The ten o'clock devotional hour was under the charge of Prin. A. C. Hart, Franklin. The thought centered about the topic "The Other Seventy." Later Mrs. A. N. Dean brought greetings from the W. C. T. U. of Nebraska and asked support for the organization. Various resolutions commending the Nebraska Congregational News, Doane college and the academies, the national benevolent societies, the people and church of Norfolk and the business committee were proposed and adopted.

Driving Out the Enemy
These are the days of colds, sharp and sudden, attacking throat and lungs, and leading to consequences one does not like to think about. Avoid further exposure and fight the enemy of health and comfort with Perry Davis' Painkiller, the family stand-by for sixty years. It conquers a cold in a day. See that you get the right article. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis.

The Grocer who neither sands his sugar nor waters his milk—who believes in the best, and is particular to please his patrons.
That's the grocer who recommends and sells
Lion Coffee
Coffee that is coffee—un-glazed—un-adulterated.

Stransky Steel-Ware

QUADRUPLE COATED.

A little higher in price, but outlasts a dozen pieces of so-called cheap enameled ware.

For sale at ALBERT DEGNER'S.

Dr. Humphreys'

Specifies cure by acting directly upon the disease, without exciting disorder in any other part of the system.

- | NO. | CURES. | PRICES. |
|-----|---------------------------------------|---------|
| 1 | Fevers, Congestions, Inflammations. | .25 |
| 2 | Worms, Worm Fever, Worm Colic. | .25 |
| 3 | Teething, Colic, Crying, Wakefulness. | .25 |
| 4 | Diarrhea, of Children or Adults. | .25 |
| 7 | Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis. | .25 |
| 8 | Neuralgia, Toothache, Faceache. | .25 |
| 9 | Headache, Sick Headache, Vertigo. | .25 |
| 10 | Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weak Stomach. | .25 |
| 11 | Suppressed or Painful Periods. | .25 |
| 12 | Whites, Too Profuse Periods. | .25 |
| 13 | Croup, Laryngitis, Hoarseness. | .25 |
| 14 | Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Eruptions. | .25 |
| 15 | Rheumatism, Rheumatic Pains. | .25 |
| 16 | Malaria, Chills, Fever and Ague. | .25 |
| 19 | Catarrh, Influenza, Cold in the Head. | .25 |
| 20 | Whooping Cough. | .25 |
| 22 | Kidney Diseases. | .25 |
| 24 | Nervous Debility. | .25 |
| 26 | Uterine Weakness, Wetting Bed. | .25 |
| 27 | Grip, Hay Fever. | .25 |
- Dr. Humphreys' Manual of all Diseases at your Druggists or Mail Order.
Sold by druggists, or sent on receipt of price, Humphreys' Med. Co., Cor. William & John Sts., New York.

Cheap Rates

G., M. & St. P. Short Line to Chicago.

Buffalo and Return
From Omaha, Fifteen Day Ticket,
$25.75

TWENTY DAY TICKET,
33.00

TOURIST TICKET,
41.50

Good Until October 31.

CLEVELAND AND RETURN, SEPTEMBER 10-14
21.60

Good Until Oct. 3. Write and get full information.
F. A. NASH,
General Western Agent,
H. W. HOWELL, 1504 Farnam St.,
Trav. Frt. & Pass. Agt. Omaha.