YOUNG CORBETT IS VICTOR

Defeats McGovern in Second Round of a Fast Battle.

TERRY SEES HIS WATERLOO.

Tries Hard to Struggle to His Feet, but Count of Ten Finds Him Still on the Floor—Walcott Defeats Young Peter Jackson.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 29.—Knocked out in the second round, of which one minute and forty-four seconds had elapsed, was the referee's verdict of the fast battle between "Young Corbett" of Denver and Terry McGovern of Brooklyn, who has held the featherweight championship unflinchingly since he won it from George Dixon 18 months ago. Outwitted and outpointed with a fighter just the same as himself, McGovern had to lower his colors yesterday at the Nutmeg Athletic club to "Young Corbett" within six minutes from the start of the fight.

"Young Corbett," who outside of ring parlance is known as Billy Rothwell, got the better of the champion in less than two rounds of fighting and he did it so perfectly that there was no doubt about it.

When McGovern was knocked down in the opening round there were cries of dismay from his backers, but his wonderful recuperative powers were equal to the occasion, and he was on his feet within seven seconds. He tried all his rushing work, which proved so profitable on former occasions, but Corbett met his every curve and countered hard on neck, jaw and head.

Down went Terry again in the second round and when he got up quickly he rushed like a wild man. He showed a lack of self-restraint and in a burst of bad temper hit out left and right irrespective of all rules and usages. These tactics apparently were just what Corbett was looking for. Terry was mixing things up with whirlwind velocity and throwing science to the winds. Suddenly a right, swinging uppercut landed squarely on the point of his jaw and McGovern went down and out. He was not rendered unconscious, but it was evident to all present that he knew the championship had taken wings, as he made wild efforts to regain his feet. Referee White called off ten seconds, while McGovern valiantly struggled.

After the fight a purse of $10,000 was offered by the Twentieth Century Athletic club of San Francisco for another fight between McGovern and Corbett, and McGovern accepted the offer.

BURGLARS WOUND CONSTABLE.

St. Joe Officer Shot and Pounded Till He Cannot Recover.

St. Joseph, Mo., Nov. 29.—For several nights Constable Wesley Gan and several deputies have been endeavoring to capture a gang of burglars that have robbed numerous stores and residences in the suburbs, but never came upon the robbers until early yesterday morning. Constable Gan was separated from his deputies, but did not hesitate to attack three of the burglars and endeavor to capture them. He was shot and pounded into insensibility and left for dead. He cannot recover.

Young Short $23,000.

Louisville, Nov. 29.—Beyond the statement made to Mayor Granger by one of the expert accountants that a shortage, amounting to $23,000, had been found in the books of the former city treasurer, Stuart R. Young, who committed suicide Wednesday evening, nothing definite is known as to how the accounts stand between the city and its former treasurer. It is said that the accountants will require two weeks of constant work to go over the books. During his four years as city treasurer Young handled $11,000,000.

Berlin Council Approves Kaiser's Plan Berlin, Nov. 29.—After a lively debate yesterday, the municipal council, by a vote of 64 to 51, adopted the plans for altering Unter den Linden that were approved by Emperor William. During his speech, in which he accused the members of the municipal council of lacking backbone and in which he referred flippantly to the deference shown the emperor's wishes, the socialist deputy, Herr Singer, was called to order.

IT SOUNDS BAD

For a dealer in lumber or anything else, to be forever blowing about his prices being lower than everybody else's. Men of common sense know that where conditions are the same, one dealer has no particular advantage over another in the matter of prices. On some things we know our prices to be a little low, but our great advantage lies in the superiority of our stock, which is, without exception, the finest you ever saw, so don't build or make any repairs till you figure with us.
