

SATURDAY SIFTINGS.

Chas. Stevens was up from Stanton yesterday. W. Dyer was a city visitor from Plainview today. C. H. Gross was over from Madison this morning. C. Bough of Randolph was a city visitor yesterday. S. H. Goodwin of Creighton was a city visitor over night. Mrs. W. B. Hoffman spent Thanksgiving day in Omaha. J. Jacobs and nephew were in the city from Omahon over night. Miss Mayhew of Battle Creek was a guest in Norfolk yesterday. Howard J. Hull of Monroe was in Norfolk yesterday on business. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Brooks of Bazile Mills were city visitors yesterday. E. H. Jenkins of Oakdale is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hughes of Battle Creek were Norfolk visitors yesterday. Miss Anna McNeill went to Meadow Grove last evening to visit friends a few days. Mrs. Mackey and daughter, Pearl, of Stanton were Norfolk visitors yesterday. Rev. J. J. Parker left yesterday for Sioux Falls, S. D., where he will preach tomorrow. Miss Grace Childs and Miss Nellie Stinnett of Pierce were shopping in Norfolk today. Herman Fricke, C. S. Smith and A. R. Border were over from the county seat yesterday. It is understood that Judge H. D. Kelly and family will soon move to Idaho to make their home. Mrs. Arthur Pilger tied with Mrs. O. H. Gillespie on a score of 103 at ten pins in the Madison bowling alley recently. Ed Ewell, agriculturalist of the factory at Grand Island, is in Norfolk noting the progress of the beet sugar industry. Mrs. S. E. Hull, mother of Mrs. E. E. Adams, left today for Beemer, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Deutcher. A young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. Dudley on South Third street to spend Thanksgiving and, it is to be hoped, many other holidays. The football season closed with Thanksgiving and the boys of Norfolk are now devoting their attention to playing marbles, building caves and fireplaces and longing for good skating and Christmas. Some of the boys are soliciting funds for a skating rink on a vacant lot for the winter. If successful in raising the money and putting the lot in shape they will be in position to ask for weather that will freeze ice. Superintendent and Mrs. F. F. Teal of the Norfolk hospital for the insane welcomed a new daughter this morning. This is the first-born and, as a matter of course, the sweetest and best dispositioned daughter in this or any other state. Dr. Arthur Wilhelm, an expert agricultural chemist from Germany, who is here looking into the American beet sugar industry, is the guest of Manager J. N. Bundick of the Norfolk factory. Dr. Wilhelm states that the beets grown here average larger than they do in Germany. Madison Star: Jesse Fields of Grove precinct will depart in a few days for England, the scenes of his boyhood days. He came to America fifty-three years ago and he thinks he is entitled to a little trip and intends to take it now. He will go alone from here and expects to be joined at New York by some relatives. There was a fair attendance at the first rehearsal of the musical program to be given at the Elks minstrel show December 26. Another rehearsal will be held this evening at 7:30, to continue for an hour, and it is desired that all having parts and possibly can do so will attend. The music secured is the latest and gives an indication of an excellent program on the night of the 26th. The Hight brothers of this city, Roy, Thomas and Brackett, received word today stating that their father is seriously ill of hemorrhage of the lungs at the home of his brother in Walker, Iowa, and the three sons left on the noon train for that place. Mr. Hight was on his way to Norfolk to make his future home with his sons but stopped off to visit a brother when taken sick. Miss Helen Bridge was the victim of a runaway accident this afternoon near the tracks on Main street that fortunately resulted in no severe injury. Miss Bridge was driving to town from dinner when her horse became frightened at a train and turned suddenly, tipping the buggy so as to throw the young lady out. She fell on her shoulders but was able to get up without assistance and return home. The horse ran east on Main street and was captured with slight damage to the buggy. Marjory, the 16-years-old daughter of R. P. Avery of Madison died last night at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Vail in this city and the remains were taken to Madison this morning at 11 o'clock for burial, in charge of the father and sister of the deceased who were with her at the time she died. Miss Avery has not been well for some time and though every effort was made to effect a cure, they were unavailing. The deceased had many friends in Norfolk who will be sincerely sorry to learn of her death. Editor Ousts Aldermen. Gib Hunt, several years ago editor of the Norfolk Herald when it occupied one of the rooms in the Beels block has been asserting himself at Salix, Iowa, where he is editor of the Siftings. The following from a recent issue of the Sioux City Tribune tells how he did it: "Editor G. W. Hunt of the Salix Siftings yesterday drove Aldermen Alfred Popin and N. J. Devin from his newspaper office at the point of a revolver. 'Gib' was terribly wroth and is said to have promised the city fathers a pair of badly punctured hides if they did not retreat. They took an incontinent departure. 'The trouble was, of course, about the 'second saloon.' That has been the only real populace-arousing issue here for a month. The cases have been dismissed, but some of the mean things said for and against still rankle. Editor Hunt expressed himself characteristically. His roast of Aldermen Devin and Popin was hot and brown. They thought they couldn't stand it, so they called on him yesterday and demanded that 'Gib' square himself. There were numerous successive explosions of profanity which promised to bring the aldermen to a temper threatening the editor's personal safety. Here is where the editor trained the 32 caliber weapon on his visitors and suggested in vigorous terms that they depart. 'To be sure, the vanquished pair are humiliated and sore, but no one expects they will do anything violent to get even with Hunt.' Real Estate Transfers. BOCHÉ. A Cut in the Rates to Buffalo via the Illinois Central. As the closing day (October 31) of the wonderful Pan-American exposition draws near, the railroad rates have been reduced so much that the Illinois Central is enabled to offer excursion tickets to Buffalo at rates considerably less than half fare. Tickets will be on sale during the remainder of October, and will be limited to leave Buffalo returning, for such trains as reach Chicago on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, not later than midnight of the sixth day, including date of sale. These six-day tickets will not be accepted in sleeping cars. Tickets bearing limits of fifteen and twenty days will be on sale every day until October 31 at corresponding rates. For a circular giving rates to Buffalo from principal Illinois Central stations, and a beautifully illustrated booklet descriptive of the "Rainbow City," address J. F. MERRY, Asst. Genl. Pass. Agent, Dubuque, Iowa. Women and Jewels. Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boesche's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Asa K. Leonard's. Get Green's special almanac. Welcome as Sunshine after a long storm is a feeling of relief when an obstinate, pitiless cold has been driven away by Allen's Lung Balm. Only people who have been cured of throat-ache and sore lungs by this remedy can quite realize what the feeling is. There is no optimism in the balm; its good effect is radical and lasting. Take a bottle home today.

MONDAY MENTION.

Thomas Chivers of Pierce was a city visitor yesterday. H. S. Reppert was in the city from Pierce Saturday. C. B. McGhee of Creighton was a city visitor yesterday. Dr. C. A. McKim went to Neligh this morning on special business. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Soudan have welcomed a son to their home in this city. Mrs. S. L. Gardner and son, Hugh, visited over Sunday with Madison friends. Mrs. Sisson is enjoying a visit from her niece, Mrs. J. P. Long, of Kansas City, Mo. Miss Ella Mullen returned Saturday evening from Scribner, where she spent Thanksgiving with friends. S. K. Dexter, proprietor of the cold storage plant, arrived last night from Lowell, Mass., to look after his interests. Miss Adda Whipple returned to Omaha this morning after a few days' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith. E. J. Denny has gone to Stanton where he will have charge of the work of putting in the new telephone exchange for that town. Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Stone, who have been visiting friends in Norfolk for several days, left this morning for their home in Hewarden, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Durland and daughter, Dorothy, returned Saturday from a visit with relatives in Plainview where they spent Thanksgiving. A. L. Bartlett returned to Omaha this morning to resume his studies in the medical college, after having spent his Thanksgiving vacation at home. Herman Walker, Kimball Barnes and Norris Huse, who were home to spend Thanksgiving, left for Lincoln yesterday noon to resume their university studies. All appearances indicate that a change of weather is about due and unless conditions are altered, snow and winter may be expected to be on hand within the next few days. The Ladies society of the Congregational church will meet with Mrs. Mathewson tomorrow afternoon, December 3, at 2:30. As there is work of importance a full attendance is desired. T. C. Van Horn has decided to move back to his farm two miles south of the city, with his family, and the house on North Eleventh street to be vacated by him will be occupied by Rev. Mr. Turner and family who will soon move here from McCook. The News expects to be able to give the president's message, in unabridged form, to the people of Norfolk ahead of any other daily, and hopes to again emphasize the fact that it is a representative local paper and alive to the interests of its readers. The Sugar City Cereal mills have offered an inducement to the girls and boys of Norfolk to hunt up empty flour sacks that contained their make of flour, during the next twenty days, that will no doubt result in furnishing many youngsters with Christmas spending money. Their offer is published in another column. Captain A. C. Logan, republican candidate for judge of Knox county, has been declared as much entitled to the office as his fusion competitor, Judge Thomas. The latter had three more votes than the former but a recount has shown that honors were even and that it exists. How the tie will be decided is not yet known, Judge Boyd having not rendered a decision. The Trocadero has a window display a four-legged rooster that is attracting considerable attention. It uses but two legs like an ordinary chicken but one of the extra ones is well developed and could undoubtedly be used in case of necessity. The fourth leg is developed enough to show the freak nature has worked but is more for ornament than use. G. A. Eberly of Stanton has been given permission to recruit a company of the Nebraska National guard. It is understood that he has a company already recruited and that it will soon be mustered into the service. A company is also to be formed at West Point. Orders have also been issued for the formation of a signal corps at Fremont and two additional sections of artillery probably at Plattsmouth and Grand Island. Mrs. J. Fred Meyers, living five miles from Correctionville, Iowa, wrapped her 5-months old baby in a blanket, put her in the oven of a kitchen stove to keep warm and went out in the back yard to gather fuel. When half an hour later she returned the fire in the stove had blazed up and the room was filled with smoke. Rushing to the oven she found the blanket and clothes in flames. The baby was dead and its arms and legs burned to a crisp. The Norfolk merchants are already making their displays of holiday goods and the indications are that there will be more and better goods on sale than ever before. Robert Utter's store has been arranged for a magnificent display which is beginning to make its appearance. Among the beautiful Christmas windows is that of the Johnson Dry Goods company where the window decorator has apparently exceeded all previous efforts. The drug stores are also getting out their holiday stocks and making handsome window displays. F. W. Juneman, formerly agent at the union depot, has been appointed agent of the Union Pacific at Madison and left last evening for that city to assume his duties. The people of Madison will find in Mr. Juneman a courteous and obliging official with whom it is a pleasure to transact business. His Norfolk friends will take some comfort in knowing that he is stationed about as close to Norfolk as he can get on that line of railway. Mrs. Juneman will not go to Madison for the present, as she cannot be spared from her duties at the cold storage. The Salvation Army has surrendered to the discouragements which it encountered in Norfolk and has abandoned the post and closed its barracks. The officers held a farewell meeting last evening in their hall where they took final leave of their work in Norfolk. The Baptist congregation joined them at the close of their meeting. Since its organization here the Army has met with a variety of ups and downs, repeated discouragements and some success. The officers have held heroically to what they considered their duty, often encountering discomforts and discouragements of which the people knew but little. It has passed in popular estimation as though it were considered a fad. When first organized it had largely attended meetings and good collections and attained its height when one of the lady captains met with the opposition of the city officials and was thrown into jail. Popular sentiment rallied to her support and defense, and prosperity smiled on the Army. Since then the cause has been on the decline until a few faithful ones are all who assemble at its meetings. The collections have been meagre, the hardships keen, and discouragement the result. Whatever may be said of the Army it has done good work in Norfolk. It has reformed people who would be reached in no other way. It has made Christians of hopeless wrecks and has ministered to the comfort and happiness of many poor people who have been in sore straits. They have been a self-sacrificing band, ever ready to work in the interests of charity and humanity. White, perhaps, the people of Norfolk have not given as cordial support to the Army as should have been given, they will undoubtedly be missed by all and no one will realize what they have accomplished until they are gone. Northern Wisconsin Railway Farm Lands For Sale. The Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railway has for sale in Northern Wisconsin, at low prices and easy terms of payment, about 350,000 acres of choice farm lands. Early buyers will secure the advantage of locations on the many beautiful streams and lakes, which abound with fish and furnish a never ending and most excellent water supply, both for family use and for stock. Land is generally well timbered, the soil fertile and easy of cultivation and this is rapidly developing into one of the greatest sheep and cattle raising regions in the northwest. Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Superior, Ashland and other towns on "The Northwestern Line" furnish good markets for stock and farm produce. For further particulars address: GEO. W. BELL, Land Commissioner, Hudson Wis., or G. H. MACRAE, Asst. Gen'l. Pass. Ag't, St. Paul, Minn. BEGA. R. E. Elliott went to Winside Friday to visit relatives. Miss Gussie Lundquist came home for the Thanksgiving holidays. O. Olson of Wisner is visiting with his uncle, Mr. Hendrickson. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lundquist visited with friends in Norfolk Saturday. C. E. Wilson and sister went to Norfolk to do some shopping Saturday. Miss Nye of Stanton began teaching in the vicinity west of Bega Monday. Wesley Roberts visited with friends in this vicinity Friday and Saturday. Mr. Case of Hoskins conducted services in the school house Wednesday evening. Mrs. Frost and Mrs. Anderson of Swaburg visited with friends in this neighborhood Friday. Letter List. List of letters remaining uncalled for at the postoffice December 2, 1901: Miss Annie Alec, Merl Bruner, Dave Bowden, Felix Elliott, Ed Fill, Dr. Flehten, Mrs. Harry F. Horne, John Huleston, Miss Mabel Kelley, Miss Courtney Morgan, E. S. Magill, Scott Portlock, Buell B. Root, K. D. Richards, Minnie Schults, John Vickers, Mrs. Nelson. If not called for in 15 days will be sent to the dead letter office. Parties calling for any of the above please say advertised. P. F. SPRACHER, P. M. Estray Notice. Taken up, by the undersigned, over two weeks ago—a cow. Owner will please call, describe property, pay charges and take estray away. AUGUST MATTHIASEK, One Mile West of Norfolk.

TUESDAY TOPICS.

Margratha Kientz went to Hoskins today to visit friends. B. Maylard returned at noon from a business trip to Meadow Grove. Mrs. T. B. Kail arrived last night from Harlan, Iowa, and is the guest of Mrs. H. L. Snyder. Mrs. E. C. Harris and children of Chadron passed through the city today enroute to Chicago. The local merchants are already beginning to experience some benefits from holiday shopping. The friends of Miss Elvira Durland will be glad to know that she is recovering from a recent attack of quinsy. Ludwig Wetzel is building an addition to his gun shop on East Main street and making other improvements to his building. Mrs. Sanford Parker of Spencer, this state, visited Norfolk friends yesterday, enroute home from a trip to Minneapolis, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. George Hinks who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hahn, left yesterday for Jefferson Barracks, Mo., where they will visit a short time. Miss Fannie Brome has returned to her school duties in Omaha after having spent her Thanksgiving vacation at home. In appreciation of her services the Omaha school board has recently raised her salary and she is now receiving $85 a month. J. G. Gardner of Des Moines, Iowa, a heavy stockholder of the Royal Mutual Union life insurance company of that city, is here in the interests of the property holdings of that company. It is expected that the president of the company, Ex Governor Jackson, will be here tomorrow. Columbus Telegram: Frank Smith, who was adjudged insane by the Platte county board last September, was taken to the Lincoln asylum Wednesday. He had been detained here owing to the fire which prevented accommodations at Norfolk, and heretofore there has been no room in the asylum at Lincoln. F. H. Trowbridge, a pioneer resident of Antelope county, died at his home in Neligh Sunday at the age of 76 years. He came to Neligh in 1873, just after the townsite was located and took a claim north of town. He was a member of the G. A. R., having served in a Wisconsin regiment. He served one term as mayor of Neligh and a term in the state legislature. Mrs. F. M. Sisson of this city, it is announced, will assist in the publication of a new magazine, "Ideals" to be issued from Albion under the management of Willard F. Bailey. It is expected that the first issue of the new publication will make its appearance in April of next year. It is promised that the magazine will be of high grade, of the Munsey and McClure order. Stanton Register: Dave Miller of Pilger, who has been working with the steel gang on the F. E. & M. V. this summer, lost two fingers on his right hand Friday. The train crew were picking up old rails just east of Stanton and in handling a rail Dave got his hand caught so that when the rail was dropped the ends of the two fingers were caught with the result above stated. The four-legged chicken in the Trocadero window is the property of Ben Priest of Battle Creek and was raised near that town. The extra legs of the fowl are very well developed, both of them growing out of the natural leg at a point at or near the principal joint. One appears to grow into the leg until near the foot, the other separates near where it is joined to the natural leg. The bird is quite a curiosity and no doubt would be of value to a dime museum owner. Experienced poultry raisers have held that a turkey, unlike other fowls and animals, does not fatten in confinement and the recent experience with the one given away at the Trocadero bears out the finding. The turkey was purchased of Jack Ferguson and when bought weighed 47 1/2 pounds. For a week previous to the drawing the bird was kept in the display window, but was well fed. On the day of the drawing it was again weighed and registered but 25 pounds, having lost almost half its weight in a week. Paul Wagner guessed nearest to that weight and was awarded the prize. Six hundred people made guesses, no charge being made for a guess. Sioux City Journal: Frank H. Millen, day clerk at the Garretson hotel, who is a member of the Fort Dodge lodge of B. P. O. Elks, received an invitation from his lodge to attend a meeting. The invitation said: "The fall roundup of this ranch is now due. To make sure that all who come into the game will get a run for their money, a bunch of fair fawns and stalwart stags have been close herded, and on Thursday, November 28, Thanksgiving day, they will be run into the corral. After this bunch has been roped and branded, the whole herd will be turned loose to feed in good grass and drink at the pool. Every one on the range who gets this notice will be expected to straddle his cayuse and hit the trail for 306. We will see that you light on your feet. R. W. Sackett, E. R.; W. M. Frantz, secretary." J. W. Edwards is among those who have recently had an experience with the late election law, which he does not desire to have duplicated. He was appointed to serve on the election board as judge in the First ward during the last general election, but failed to do so. On the 8th of November he was cited by Sheriff Losey to appear before Judge Bates and show cause why he should not be fined and taxed with costs for his failure to perform the duty assigned. He was of the opinion that, being exempt from jury duty because of the fact that he was a volunteer fireman, would likewise excuse him from this service, but it was ruled otherwise and yesterday he appeared before Judge Bates and was assessed a light fine, costing him, in all, about $10. He paid the assessment but has about figured it out that it would have been cheaper to draw a salary as a member of the election board than to be called upon to pay for a failure to serve. It is Easy to Say "Be careful," but we must all go from heated houses into chill winter air, and the change sets us coughing and wheezing. Avoiding winter colds is difficult; curing them is not hard if you take Allen's Lung Balm. Better begin when the cold is young and not wait until it settles deep into the lungs, for then, even with Allen's Lung Balm, complete relief will be slower. Perhaps You Wonder if the tormenting cold that made last winter one long misery will be as bad this year. Certainly not, if you take Allen's Lung Balm when tickling and rawness in the throat announce the presence of the old enemy. Do not expect the cold to wear itself out. Take the right remedy in time. Allen's Lung Balm is free from opium. Doing the Right Thing. The trouble begins with a tickling in the throat and a nagging little cough. Soreness in the chest follows and the patient wonders if he is going to have an all winter cold. Probably, if he does the wrong thing or nothing. Certainly not if he uses Perry Davis' Painkiller, the staunch old remedy that cures a cold in twenty-four hours. There is but one painkiller, Perry Davis'. Vagaries of a Cold. You can never be quite sure where a cold is going to hit you. In the fall and winter it may settle in the bowels, producing severe pain. Do not be alarmed nor torment yourself with fears of appendicitis. At the first sign of a cramp take Perry Davis' Painkiller in warm, sweetened water and relief comes at once. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'. 25 and 50 cents. HOME AND CHILD Does your horse "feel his oats"? What a difference between the grain-fed and the grass-fed horse! The first strong and full of ginger, the second flabby, weak and tired out before he begins. The feeding makes the difference. Children are not alike either. One is rosy, bright-eyed, full of life and laughter, another is pale, weak and dull. The feeding again is responsible. Sickly children need special feeding. They don't "feel their oats". Scott's Emulsion adds just the right richness to their diet. It is like grain to the horse. The child gets new appetite and strong digestion. Scott's Emulsion is more than food. It is a strong medicine. It rouses up dull children, puts new flesh on thin ones and red blood into pale ones. It makes children grow. Scott's Emulsion makes ordinary food do its duty. This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York, 50c and $1. all druggists.
