Ray and Mrs. A. Warner of Oakdale were city visitors yesterday. Mrs. A. G. Billerback was a visitor in the Sugar City from Osmond yesterday. Mrs. Allen of Superior arrived in the city last night to visit her son, Ralph, at the Junction. Mrs. Wm. Gerecke of Stanton attended the McBride-Reynolds party yesterday afternoon. Nels Johnson, dispatcher of the South Platte division of the F. E. & M. V., at Fremont, is the guest of Will Oxnam. Rev. Herbert E. Ryder is suffering from a severe attack of appendicitis at his home on South Fifth street. Clint Hamilton of Creighton was in the city today on business. He was the guest of his brother, Fred, during his stay. O. R. Allen of LeMars, Iowa, was in the city over night, enroute home from a trip to his ranch near Stuart and through the Rosebud agency, where he is wintering cattle. Mrs. D. Kuhn, who has charge of Miss Bender's millinery store during her absence at Yutan, where her mother has been sick, received a message from from Miss Bender this morning stating that her mother had died last night. The store will therefore be closed until 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The members of the Episcopal choir had a jolly time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Maynard last evening, the event being given in honor of Miss Hattie McKim, previous to her departure for her new home in Salina, Kansas. Miss McKim has been identified with the choir a number of years. The Norfolk firemen are preparing to send a large delegation to the annual meeting of the State Association of Volunteer Firemen which will be held at Nebraska City on Tuesday of next week. Badges are being prepared for the various companies of the department and the delegation proposes to have Norfolk strictly in evidence during the association meeting. Yesterday was the birthday of Mrs. E. E. Adams and after being inveigled into taking a buggy ride by a lady friend, fourteen other ladies took possession of her home on South Fourth street and prepared to surprise her when she returned. They brought with them a supply of refreshments and the afternoon was very enjoyably passed by all participants. Mesdames H. McBride and C. H. Reynolds entertained another company of lady friends yesterday afternoon at the home of the former on the Heights. Whist occupied the attention of the guests during a portion of the afternoon, the games being closely contested. Mrs. W. G. Baker made the highest score, and was presented with a pretty cup and saucer as a prize. A dainty three-course supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hart of Omaha have been visiting in Norfolk several days. They were married in Omaha on Wednesday, the bride being Miss Olive Langhery. She is a niece of Mrs. Wm. Stine, and Wednesday evening that lady gave an elegant dinner for the bride and groom, at her home in South Norfolk, 34 guests responding to invitations. Mr. and Mrs. Hart will return to their home in Omaha tomorrow. Newman Grove Herald: A special train will be made up and leave this place next Tuesday, bound for Canada. A special agent for the Canadian Pacific railroad was in the city the early part of the week making contracts with the various parties going. He says the train will start at Tilden and come over the branch from Oakdale, taking passengers and freight at almost all the stations until Lindsay is reached, where the last of the party will be taken aboard. Pierce Leader: H. H. Mohr is having a 22x50 planing mill erected at his lumber yard and will place eight machines therein when it is completed. The machinery will be run by a six horse power gasoline engine and when it is all placed will enable Mr. Mohr to plane boards, make moulding, stair railing and balusters, brackets, porch ornaments and many other articles that now have to be purchased away from home. The new building will be a help to the lumber yard and at the same time a credit to the town. Pierce Leader: The local merchant who sits around and kicks because so many people send to the large department houses for their goods should be able to get an idea of the reason when he reads that Mandel Bros. of Chicago have just made a contract for a page advertisement in the Chicago Tribune, every day for a year, and pay $125,000, or over $300 a day for the same. It is not so much because people can buy cheaper of these department stores, but because they are so much more frequently in-visited. In trade, as in social life, people are naturally chary of intruding where they are not invited. Niobrara Pioneer: Presiding Elder Gorst performed a very pleasing and quite romantic marriage ceremony last Saturday evening at the Methodist parsonage. Edward Banberry, who has been making a home here for his sweetheart away over in Ireland, was joined in marriage by the elder. Miss Sarah J. Joseph of County Galway, Ireland, reached here Friday evening last, accompanied by the brother and wife of her affianced, who were married just before leaving the old country. So Knox county will have gained two worthy young couples who will make the prairie smile with their work, and the young people will not be narrowed down to the confines of the mother country.

Stephenson of Madison was a Norfolk visitor Saturday. Mrs. C. E. Green has gone to Eldridge to spend a few days with friends. Mrs. J. Bakkolt is reported to be very sick at her home over Gow Bros.' office. Mrs. Robert Craft of Missouri Valley, Iowa, is a guest at the home of S. G. Dean. A boy was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Wetzel, who live on North Twelfth street. H. C. Matran departed Saturday for a ten-days' visit to his old home in Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hays pleasantly entertained a small company of friends at dinner Saturday evening. John Witzigman, assistant cashier of the Tilden State bank, was a guest at the home of G. A. Luikart over Sunday. W. H. Dexter will go on the road, beginning tomorrow, for an eastern life insurance company. His territory will be in Nebraska, south of the Platte. The little daughter of Richard Rohrke of Hoskins accidentally dislocated her right shoulder Saturday and the attendance of a surgeon was required to put it back in place. George Wichman, a merchant at Hadar, and Miss Martha Schwichtenburg, were united in marriage yesterday at the home of the bride's parents two and a half miles from that village. The members of the Congregational church will give a reception on Thursday evening of this week in the church parlors to their new pastor, Mr. Turner and his wife. All friends of the church and congregation are invited. E. Lawrence Walker, business manager for Delcher & Brennan, presenting Charles B. Hanford in "The Taming of the Shrew," was in Norfolk over Sunday in the interest of that attraction, which is to appear here on the 28th. Eiler's company arrived in the city today in a special car and will present "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" at the Auditorium tonight. The company carries a good band that rendered some very excellent music on the streets this noon. L. E. Wallerstedt is planning to remove with his family about the first of February to Perry, Oklahoma Territory, where he will engage in business for himself, having decided that he had followed the life of a traveling man long enough. Many friends will regret to learn of their intended removal from the city. The many friends of Col. S. S. Cotton will be sorry to learn that he is confined to his home as the result of injuries received by a fall Saturday. While out in his yard he slipped on some ice and fell on his left elbow, dislocating his shoulder and fracturing the bone thereof. While not serious the injuries will confine him to the house for some time. The Masonic lodge had expected to hold a lodge of instruction this week, but word has been received that owing to illness Grand Custodian French will not be permitted to meet the engagement consequently the lodge of instruction on the 23rd and 24th will not be held as previously arranged. It is hoped that a later date can be arranged when Mr. French's health will permit of his attendance. Superintendent D. C. O'Connor was in Lincoln Saturday where he met with the state board of examiners for teachers certificates, the other members being Geo. E. Condra of Lincoln and A. O. Thomas of Kearney. Eight applicants were granted life certificates as follows: Harry E. Worrell, Ogallala; C. W. Wallis, Bloomfield; J. T. O. Stewart, Alliance; W. T. Stockdale, Wisner; Shadra Doty, Sutton; George Crocker, Falls City; W. H. Kramer, Crawford; H. G. Meyer, Culbertson. Because he failed to get his reports in on time Captain A. N. Gerecke of company L of this city was suspended from the command of the company by Adjutant General Colby last Friday and First Lieutenant John B. Barnes was temporarily placed in command. Captain Gerecke says that the reports in question were forwarded to the adjutant general's office before the order of suspension was received and believes that they have been received there before this. It is expected that the order suspending Captain Gerecke from the command will be recalled as soon as the report is received and he will be restored to command of the company.

The Norfolk delegation to the Volunteer State firemen's meeting at Nebraska City will leave over the F. E. & M. V. on the 6 o'clock train tomorrow morning, departing from the Creighton depot. It is expected that the delegation will consist of 20 members of the department. It is also expected that a number of delegates to the Sons of Herman grand lodge will accompany the firemen and that the delegation will be swelled by firemen and Sons of Herman from neighboring towns. A special car has been provided for the delegation and they will go in style. Connections with the Missouri Pacific will be made at Omaha and the delegates expect to reach their destination in time for dinner. Chief Harford announces that the fire department here will be in charge of W. B. Vail and S. R. McFarland during his absence so that the service will be prompt and efficient in case of fire. Wakefield had a visit from the fire fiend at an early hour Sunday morning that threatened destruction to a considerable of the business portion of the city but the energetic efforts of the fire department with the waterworks system to back them confined the loss to a few buildings. The fire originated in the Model restaurant which was totally destroyed as was also Saunders' harness shop, the postoffice, the R. C. Quimby hardware store. The loss is estimated at more than $4,000. The Occidental hotel, next the postoffice, had a narrow escape from destruction, the metal roof alone preventing its loss. The buildings were insured and the loss will not be large to the owners who contemplate replacing them with new and substantial structures. A very excellent likeness of Commissioner J. B. Barnes of this city appeared in yesterday's issue of the Omaha Illustrated Bee with the following brief biographical sketch: "Hon. John B. Barnes of Norfolk, who has been named to take the position of commissioner of the supreme court, made vacant by the elevation of Hon. S. H. Sedgwick, has practiced law in Nebraska since 1873 except for the time he was judge of the district court. He was born in Ashtabula county, Ohio, and served during the war of the rebellion as a member of Battery E, First Ohio Light artillery. At the close of the war he took up the study of law. In March, 1871, he came to Nebraska, and in 1873 was admitted to practice at the bar in Dixon county. In 1875 he was elected district attorney and again in 1877. In 1878 when Judge E. K. Valentine was elected to congress, Governor Nance appointed Mr. Barnes to the place made vacant on the bench. He served the unexpired term and was elected for the full term thereafter. In 1884 he resumed the practice of law and has been actively engaged at it ever since. In 1888 he removed to Norfolk, where he has since made his home."

Sports Afield for January. Sports Afield for January has a new and most attractive cover design quite in keeping with the character of its contents; for it is a magazine of perennial freshness and interest, and zealously guards its readers against a suspicion of weariness. Features for this month are a brace of delightfully readable western stories by Harry B. Tedrow and Carlisle Schuyler, and a description of ibex shooting in the island of Milo, written by the Marquis of Ivrea, an adventurous English nobleman who has visited many lands in his quest for rare and difficult sport. The various departments are, as ever, crammed full of interesting matter for the hunter, angler, dog lover, amateur photographer and trap shooter, and all those, as well, who like clean, enjoyable reading for its own sake, regardless of a possible inclination toward any particular branch of sport. Sports Afield Publishing Co., Chicago, Ill.

The Hazen fruit farm for rent. For sale, one spring wagon, sewing machine and one horse cheap. MAPES & HAZEN. Fast Time on the Milwaukee Road. One of the new, big compound locomotives recently put in service by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway made a record run, Chicago to Milwaukee, New Year's eve. Fast mail train No. 57, engine 921, engineer Ivens, with six sixty-foot mail and express cars left Chicago at 10:15 p. m., twenty minutes late and reached Milwaukee at 11:42 p. m., two minutes late, making the run from depot to depot, eighty-five and two-tenths miles, in eighty-seven minutes, with one stop. Considering the slow time in the two terminal cities, the slow-downs for five railway crossings, the run was a remarkable one and is the fastest ever made between the two cities. Edgebrook to Stowell, seventy-two miles, was covered in sixty-five minutes (sixty-six and one-half miles per hour), and Wadsworth to Western Union Junction, nineteen miles, in sixteen minutes (seventy-one and one-quarter miles per hour). Engine No. 921 has loaded weight of 300,000 pounds, drivers 84 1/4 inches in diameter, cylinders 15-26x28 and has a tender capacity of 18,000 pounds of coal and 7,000 gallons of water.

A Popular Preparation. One of the best advertised and most popular preparations for the cure of nasal catarrh and similar troubles is Ely's Cream Balm. It was originated and placed on the market nearly twenty years ago by a firm of experienced druggists, Ely Brothers, and their business in this special article grew to such proportions that they were compelled to devote their entire attention to it. Ely Brothers emphasize the fact that it is to the interest of druggists to supply Ely's Cream Balm whenever a customer calls for it, or even when simply a good catarrh remedy is asked for. The test of time has proved that this preparation always gives satisfactory results. It is a uniform preparation, made according to a scientific formula from the very best quality of drugs. In supplying it to his trade the druggist does not run the risk of causing dissatisfaction, which might occur when the customer is induced to experiment with new preparations the merit of which has not been fully demonstrated.

TUESDAY TOPICS.

Simon Mayer of Lincoln is the guest of his brother, Sol, G. H. J. Herbes and family of Humphrey were in the city yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bell of Pierce were city visitors yesterday. Ed. Dixon accompanied the firemen to Nebraska City this morning. Manager G. T. Sprecher went to Battle Creek this afternoon on telephone business. Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hyde welcomed a son to their home on South Ninth street last night. J. D. Larnabee is today moving his family into the residence he recently acquired in Hillside Terrace. Charlie Verges left yesterday for Watertown, Wis., where he will re-enter school for the spring semester. Miss Amanda Schelein who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. August Schulz, has returned to her home at Creighton. J. W. Gibson left at noon for Lincoln to attend the seventeenth annual meeting of the Nebraska State Poultry association. J. A. Gray of South Norfolk will leave tomorrow for a visit with relatives and friends at Chicago; Toronto, Canada, and St. Louis, Mo. The railroad company is placing an iron culvert through the grade at the corner of Madison avenue and Seventh street, near the cold storage. M. D. Wheeler and family have returned from Chadron and are moving into the house on South Tenth street formerly occupied by Chas. Rice. G. E. Gillian former proprietor of the Turf Exchange restaurant, is packing his goods preparatory to returning to Coleridge, where he formerly resided. W. L. Kern accompanied the Norfolk firemen to Nebraska City and will endeavor to interest the fire boys in the Norfolk candidate for the Omaha News' piano. Jack Ferguson and family and David Morton departed today for Juliet, Idaho, where they expect to reside in the future. Their goods were shipped Saturday. Mrs. Nina E. Ecker, formerly publisher of the Dixon Tribune, has purchased the Winside Tribune of B. J. McKeen who will devote his time to preaching. Mrs. Ecker is said to be a hustling newspaper woman and the Tribune is likely to prosper as never before under her management. The Norfolk firemen and delegates to the grand lodge, Sons of Herman, departed for Nebraska City on the early P. E. & M. V. train this morning, with prospects of an enjoyable visit to the southeast corner of the state before them. The car provided for "the boys" had been artistically decorated and labeled and the nature of the delegation was such that they are certain to enjoy themselves and receive deserving recognition from those they will meet. Madison Chronicle: Johnnie J. Hughes, the popular retiring member of the county commissioners said his farewells at the court house last Thursday. Everyone of the officials and the regular hangers on hated to see him go and Mr. Hughes said his good byes with a voice choked full of emotion. During the six years Mr. Hughes served he was faithful in the performance of his duties and just in all his transactions. He made many friends while serving on the board.

A traveler who returned from a trip to Omaha last evening reports that when he left the metropolis there was from six to eight inches of snow on the ground. It was snowing when he passed through Fremont but as he came on west he noticed that there was no snow and when Norfolk was reached a deal winter condition was found, with no snow to mar. Today the sun is shining pleasantly here and the weather is of a character to entice people out of doors. "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" was presented by the Eiler company at the Auditorium last night to a very good house. The old time temperance drama was recited with very fair satisfaction to the audience, which was very generous with applause for Norfolk people. Some of the specialties introduced were very good and the music by the orchestra was above the average, so that the entire evening's entertainment was very well appreciated. The company made a little on the side by selling song books and through an "after concert."

Burr Taft has received a message announcing the death of his sister, Mrs. A. D. Pratt, at her new home in Pasadena, California, which occurred on Saturday. Mr. Pratt started for Norfolk last night with the body of his wife and it is probable that interment make take place here, although definite announcement to that effect has not been made and he may continue on east. When the facts regarding the funeral are known such announcement will be made. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt left Norfolk last September for California hoping for benefit to the health of Mrs. Pratt, who has been a sufferer from sickness for some time. They have many friends in Norfolk who will be sorry to learn of the fatality of their visit to the coast. The executive committee of the Norfolk Farmers' institute held a meeting at the office of the secretary Saturday afternoon and did considerable preliminary work. The program as furnished by the institute department was discussed and some minor alterations made and some vacancies left in the hopes of getting both the public schools and the Woman's club interested to take parts in the same. The chief point of interest to the latter, it is thought, will be the address to be delivered by Mrs. Bertha D. Laws of Minnesota on the subjects of "Plain Foods and Plain Living" and "The American Girl in the Home." Mrs. Laws is a very pleasing and effective speaker and it is expected that this will be one of the hits of the institute. The delegation of Norfolk firemen who left for Nebraska City this morning, had not much more than left town when a fire alarm was turned in, the time of the alarm being between 8 and 9 o'clock. The remnant of the department responded promptly and, although their number was few, they did most efficient service under the direction of W. B. Vail and former chief Edwards. The fire was in the room west of the old Daniel's drug store building which was occupied as a shoe repairing shop by Milton Pierson, his family living in the rooms in the rear of the shop. The fire was caught from the stove pipe, where it entered the chimney and soon communicated with the woodwork of the ceiling and roof where it burned quite vigorously and from the way the smoke rolled out it was supposed by many that the building was doomed to destruction. A stream of water, applied through holes that had been cut in the ceiling, soon changed appearances and the blaze was soon quenched. The building was considerably damaged by smoke and water but the personal property of Mr. Pierson was removed before the department arrived. The main building is occupied by the marble works of Carl Kortb. The flames had not advanced far enough to do much damage to that but there was some damage by water. It is claimed that the buildings are insured and the loss is probably fully covered.

If You Were Scared easily you might suppose that the pain in the lower part of your back meant kidney trouble. But being a person of sense you know it is only muscular stiffness, from cold, and that prompt treatment with Davis' Painkiller will prevent it from growing into lumbago. Act accordingly and you will be glad you saw this. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'. Repairing Neatly Done Never thought of such a sign for a medicine did you? Well, it's a good sign for Scott's Emulsion. The body is to be repaired like other things and Scott's Emulsion is the medicine that does it. These poor bodies wear out from worry, from over-work, from disease. They get thin and weak. Some of the new ones are not well made—and some of the old ones are racked with long usage. Scott's Emulsion fixes all ails. It does the work both inside and out. It makes soft eyes hard, thin blood red, weak lungs strong, hollow bones full. Only the best materials are used in the patching of the patches don't show through the new glow of health. No one has to wait his turn, you can do it yourself—you and the bottle. This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York. 50c. and $1. all druggists.
