Republican State Convention.

The republicans of the state of Nebraska are hereby called to meet in convention at the Auditorium in the city of Lincoln, on Wednesday, June 18, 1902, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of electing in nomination candidates for the following offices, to be voted for at the next general election, to be held in the state of Nebraska, November 4, 1902, viz: One governor, one lieutenant governor, one secretary of state, one auditor of public accounts, one treasurer, one superintendent of public instruction, one attorney general, one commissioner of public lands and buildings, and for the transaction of such other business as may regularly come before said convention.

Table listing delegates from various counties: Adams, Antelope, Banner, Boone, Box Butte, Boyd, Brown, Buffalo, Butler, Cass, Cedar, Chase, Cheyenne, Clay, Colfax, Cuming, Currie, Dakota, Dawson, Deuel, Dixon, Dodge, Douglas, Dundy, Fillmore, Franklin, Frontier, Furness, Gage, Garfield, Gosport, Grant, Greeley, Hall, Hamlin, Harlan, Hayes, Hitchcock, Holt, Hooker, Howard.

It is recommended that no proxies be allowed in said convention, but that the delegates present thereat be authorized to cast the full vote of the county represented by them. Notice is hereby given that each of the odd numbered senatorial districts in the state is to select a member of the state committee to serve for the term of two years.

H. C. LINDESAY, Chairman. JOHN T. MALLABRE, Secretary.

It is reported from Des Moines that the railroad lobby is completely disgusted with the job of trying to manipulate the legislature of that state and has abandoned the field. The Burlington railway now threatens to leave Iowa and incorporate under the New Jersey or Kentucky laws.

There is quite a dearth of candidates for the fusion nomination for governor and the conviction is settling down in various parts of the state that the honor of leading the fusion forces at the next election has been reserved for no less a person than Mr. Bryan himself. Certainly the state fusionists would be glad of the opportunity to support the late national leader on a state ticket and it is intimated that the national republicans have found him so useful as a presidential candidate that they are far from desirous of having him killed off entirely as a possible candidate in 1904.

Land booms are on in all portions of the country and many persons with a desire to get rich quick are hurrying to the different points of prominence, hoping to capture a fortune within a day or two after their arrival. That there are numerous disappointments is not surprising to those who have experienced similar movements on previous occasions. South Dakota, Washington and Oregon, Minnesota, Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Texas, and other undeveloped states are all after their share of the immigration. Considered from past experience it is probable that the person who is fairly well located and stays by his property is the one who will come out ahead in the end. The adage that "a rolling stone gathers no moss" will again be proven, without a doubt, when the booms burst.

Since the death of President McKinley Canton, Ohio, has come in for a kind of notoriety not as desirable as that which it received during his life. A yellow reporter seems to have fastened on that place as the date line for some sensational reports that few but the most credulous are at all inclined to believe, but he is persistent in furnishing from Canton his ridiculous stories, to the delight of not a few readers of a certain class. The latest from that source is that two women who had barricaded themselves in their home were removed Wednesday, raving maniacs and almost dead from hunger. It is intimated in the story that a barrel of soft soap in a back room had been the only sustenance of the women for weeks. The story might possibly be true, but so many of a similar character have been appearing from that point recently that they are being taken with a pound or two of salt by cautious readers.

It is clearly a crime in the opinion of the editor of the Omaha Bee to publish a weekly newspaper, and his burning editorial in the issue of Thursday denouncing the editors composing the National Editorial Association as a "body of newspaper nondescripts" is a slam at the country publisher scarcely excelled by his famous term of "country yokels" which he applied to them some time ago. Admitting it as true that some of the trips planned by this association have too frequently been on too much of the "junketing" order, there is no apparent reason why it should draw the ire of the Omaha judge of newspaper publishers' etiquette. Many newspaper men of standing, even when measured by the Rosewater standard, have employed these trips to acquire a knowledge of the country and its people that have proven mutually advantageous to the editor and those who have arranged to make the trips enjoyable and profitable. Then there are publishers who would not have been able to enjoy the profits and pleasures of such trips but for the united efforts of the "aggregation of junketers." That there were but six towns of Nebraska represented at the last annual meeting, "the largest of which was West Point," can neither be taken as a matter for censure of the association. There was undoubtedly sufficient reason for the lack of representation and certainly almost any publisher in the state outside of the Bee writer would have been glad to visit Buffalo on that occasion, could he have made the arrangements to do so. That the Commercial club of Omaha has considered the question of inviting the national association to visit that city is weighty argument that it has not generally the reputation that Mr. Rosewater has endeavored to attach to it, and cities of equal importance with Omaha have in the past considered it an honor to entertain members of this association, who, if not representative of the metropolitan dailies, are at least representative of the country publishers.

MRS. TABOR BRINGS SUIT.

Large Sum of Money is Involved, Mostly in Colorado Mining Stocks. Denver, April 11.—Elizabeth Tabor, widow of Senator Tabor, filed two suits in the district court for damages aggregating $250,000 and to recover possession of a large amount of mining stocks which she alleges have been misappropriated by the defendants. One suit is against David H. Moffatt. In this suit Mrs. Tabor asks for $150,000 and for an accounting from Mr. Moffatt of the disposition of 1,250 shares of stock in the Maid of Erin Silver Mining company, valued at $498,750, and 9,168 shares in the Gold and Silver Extraction company of America, limited, valued at $45,840. The second suit was brought by Mrs. Tabor and Mrs. Foley against George W. Trimble and A. V. Hunter of Leadville and John Campion to recover 50,780 shares of stock in the Inyoquo Mining company. The plaintiffs ask for $100,000 damages.

C. Perkins. Closed with them was General Counsel Blythe of the Burlington. Chicago Hodcarriers Strike.

Chicago, April 11.—Fifteen hundred hodcarriers decided to go on a strike today for an increase in wages of two cents an hour. The strike will throw fully 8,000 men out of work before the end of the week, as the other building trades will find it impossible to continue without the hodcarriers. The men demanded 30 cents an hour, commencing June 1, but the contractors' association refused to consider the proposition. The strike will be inaugurated by the men as individuals, the officers of the hodcarriers' union having refused to sanction the demand.

The tea farm of Dr. Sheppard was next visited and as the president alighted from his carriage a number of diminutive negro pickers lined up in front of Dr. Sheppard's house and sang the Star Spangled Banner, America and other patriotic airs.

PEACE RUMORS IN LONDON.

Boer Leaders Said to Have Accepted Terms.

TRANSVAAL AGENTS NOTIFIED.

Conference of Burghers at Klerksdorp Tends to Strengthen Reports of Settlement of the South African War—Nothing Official Yet Received.

London, April 11.—The Central News is informed that a telegram was received in London from Pretoria saying that Mr. Steyn and General Dewet and Botha had agreed upon terms of peace. The telegram indicates that the British terms have been accepted and that peace has been arranged. The Financier and Bullionist publishes a dispatch from Pretoria this morning declaring that the Boer leaders have accepted the British terms, that peace has been arranged, and that the terms of peace have been cabled to the Boer agents in Europe. Other unconfirmed statements of a similar character are in circulation in London. It is said that Frederic Rutherford Harris, former secretary of the British Chartered South Africa company, has received a telegram to the same effect.

The war secretary, Mr. Broderick, in the house of commons today, referring to the press advices from South Africa, said Schalkbarger, Reitz, Lucas, Meyer and Jacobs had been joined at Klerksdorp by General Botha, and to the press advices from South Africa, other members of the late Orange government arrived at the same place yesterday.

No communication, Mr. Broderick further said, had been received from the Boer leaders, except regarding safe conducts of the participants in the conference.

Pretoria, April 11.—President Steyn of the Orange Free State, Secretary of State Reitz of the Transvaal, Acting President Schalkbarger of the Transvaal and General Lucas Meyer, commander-in-chief of the Orange Free State forces, passed through Klerksdorp, Orange Free State, April 6, on their way to Klerksdorp, southwest of Transvaal, where General Botha, the Transvaal commander-in-chief, arrived April 7. It was expected that Generals Dewet and Delarey would attend the conference to take place there.

It is understood that Boer leaders are fully possessed of the British peace terms and that the conference then assembling was to enable the leaders to thoroughly discuss peace terms. It is expected that the final decision of the burghers will shortly be made known.

President Draper of the University of Illinois suffered amputation of his right leg above the knee as the result of his runaway accident.

MORE RIOTING AT BRUSSELS.

Over Thirty Persons Wounded in Conflicts With Police. Brussels, April 11.—Conflicts between the rioters and police, in which over 30 persons were injured, including women and children, occurred here last night in the vicinity of the Maison du Peuple. The first encounter took place in the Rue des Minimes, where the mob pelted the police with cobblestones. The police then charged with fixed bayonets and as a result three were severely and several others slightly wounded. The mob then proceeded to the Rue Stevens, in front of the Maison du Peuple, where a still more serious conflict occurred. Over a hundred shots were fired from both sides. Many women and children were wounded here, and they, together with the men injured, were taken into the Maison du Peuple. At midnight this district of Brussels had the appearance of a city in a revolt. The rioters had torn up the street car rails and erected a sort of barricade to fortify their position at the Maison. By strenuous efforts the police managed to clear the Rue Stevens, but the Maison du Peuple was left in possession of the rioters.

AT REST ON MATOPPO HILL.

Entire Population Follows Body of Cecil Rhodes to Tomb. Bulawayo, Matabeleland, April 11.—Amid an immense throng of soldiers, civilians and natives the body of Cecil Rhodes was committed to its rock tomb in the Matoppo hills. The coffin was shrouded in a Union Jack and the wreath sent by Queen Alexandra was laid upon it as it was lowered into the grave.

The funeral party started from Fuller's hotel early in the morning. The procession was five miles long as it went through the hills and gorges. Every sort of conveyance was made use of. When the procession was a mile from the grave everybody dismounted and concluded the journey on foot. Twelve oxen hauled the coffin to the almost inaccessible summit of the kopje, where the chiefs, Shembli, Faku and Umgula, and 2,000 natives had assembled to witness the Christian interment rites, which they afterwards supplemented in their own fashion by the sacrifice of 15 oxen to the shade of the great dead chief.

Bad Case.

Backward, turn backward, O time in your flight, give me the nose that I breathed through last night! Bring back the smell that two days ago, knew not the torment of continual blow. Wipe from my mustache the moisture of sneeze, Put wooden splints on my poor weakened knees, Rub my red nose as you have before, With tallow, dear mother, oh it is so sore. Backward, flow backward, O tide of the nose, I am so sired from my head to my toes; Tired out with mopping and coughing and sneezing; Weary from handkerchiefs constantly seizing, I have grown weary of snifle, snuff, Of wiping my bugle until it is rough. Stick my head in a big pillow-slip, and sew it up, mother, I have "la grippe."—Exchange.
