

Does Your Head Ache?

Of course headaches follow drinks, fights, and such like; but the majority of chronic headaches, including periodical sick headaches, are caused by defects of the Eye, although vision may not be affected and you may just think you have been taking the wrong medicine; but you will find if your Eyes are taken care of properly, your trouble will disappear as if by magic. Please don't come to me if you have no confidence in me and will not follow my instructions. I have learned my business and will give you a reason for everything I tell you to do.

FRIDAY FACTS.

The Knights of St. Eob-Ragus of Fremont are already discussing plans for a fall festival.
The board of county commissioners will meet Wednesday of next week instead of Tuesday, the latter being Arbor day.
Fremont has organized a base ball association and proposes to be in the field with a strong team this season. The first game will be played Sunday.
Beulah chapter No. 40, O. E. S., conferred the degrees of that order on Mrs. A. E. Scofield of Tilden and Mrs. H. L.

Kindred of Meadow Grove at a meeting held last night.

Chas. H. Johnson, writing THE NEWS from the top of Washington's monument at Washington, expresses the thought, "If it was only located in Norfolk what a grand view it would give!" He will probably have the common consent of the people of Norfolk to bring it home with him.

The camp meeting commission of the Norfolk district of the M. E. church met at Wakefield last Tuesday and it was decided that no district camp meeting would be held this year but it was recommended instead that the pastors and people of the district attend the Epworth League assembly, to be held at Lincoln during August, in a colony.

Another sign of spring has been noticed, and that is that some of the soda fountains have been loaded and primed to furnish cool air in agreeable doses to those afflicted with that warm and tired feeling that often comes with the season. Yesterday was a day to make the people think of such delights, but the north wind exerting itself today causes them to think of a warm fire and comfortably thick clothing.

Four of the young men of West Point are planning to start on a tour around the world about on May 1. They will take along a donkey to carry their clothing and provisions, and expect to earn their way as they go, taking but little money with them. The trip is not planned "on a wager" as so many of them are and if the boys are persistent and made of the right sort of material it may be of untold benefit.

Madison Star: The Star has been informed that the B. & M. railroad company is again figuring on extending its line of railroad from Schuyler to Madison. This would give us a direct road to Lincoln. We certainly hope that the rumor may prove to be a fact. The city should at once organize and investigate the matter. It would do the city of Madison no good to have this line of road miss us about six miles on the east.

Center, the new capital of Knox county is soon to have a place to deposit its money and keep its valuables, Secretary Royle of the state banking board having issued a charter for such an institution. The incorporators are D. T. Gilman, S. E. Lundgren, R. F. Stetson, E. W. Nelson and Calvin Keller. It will be known as the Center State bank and is capitalized at $6,000. There are now three saloons at the new town and other business enterprises are being established almost daily.

The Browning club gave a banquet last night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Cole on North Ninth street in honor of Rev. J. J. Parker of Kearney, a former member of the club who took much interest in its welfare. Hand-painted place cards were used and the following toasts were responded to: "Impressions from the reading of Lowell," Prof. D. C. O'Connor; "The Cathedral," J. B. Maylard; "Commemoration Ode," Burt Mapes; "Impressions from the reading of Browning," A. J. Durland; "Andrea Del Sarto," P. T. Birchard; "The Ladies," H. J. Cole; "The Critic's Report," Rev. J. J. Parker; "The Self-Constituted Toastmaster," M. D. Tyler.

Ex-Assistant Secretary of War Geo. D. Meiklejohn recently read the funeral sermon for M. H. Ogden of Fullerton which had been prepared by the deceased prior to his demise. He was an ardent believer in spiritualism and his effort was to impress upon the mourners that the occasion of his funeral should be one of joy rather than of sorrow. He was 82 years of age and a member of the Masonic fraternity. An extract from the sermon is: "I ignore the hearse on account of its dark and gloomy appearance, and the expense attending its use; also for the same reason I dispense with the services of a minister, with the attending obligations. I have concluded to preach my own funeral sermon."

H. H. SCOFIELD.
On April 25 the usual Friday afternoon exercises of district school No. 97 will be deferred until evening, when they will be held at the Hayes-McClary home (under the direction of the Ladies' Guild of Trinity church) and in the meantime the children are practicing diligently upon their pieces. A program with the names of the youthful (?) performers will be given later. At recess, lunch will be served and a tax of 15 cents will be imposed upon all visitors by the school board for the purchase of new books.

PETITIONED BY BUSINESS MEN.

Engineer Wetzel Resigns His Position at Waterworks—City Attorney Instructed to Have Foundry Buildings Moved Off Seventh Street.

The city council met in regular session at the council chamber in the city building last night with the mayor and all the councilmen present except Degner. Councilman Gow stated that there was a very bad low place on Philip avenue which should be looked after and the defect remedied in some manner. The matter was referred to the street and alley committee for investigation and action.

It was stated that the building of the Norfolk Foundry and Manufacturing company were partly on Seventh street and should be removed. A motion prevailed that the city attorney be instructed to take the proper measures to have all buildings on block 9, Koenigstein's third addition, on Seventh street, removed from the street back on the proper line.

Councilman Walker stated that C. T. Ball had requested to have the street graded on the south of his property at the Junction as there is a very low place there, which matter was also referred to the street and alley committee. Councilman Brummond made a verbal request for a permit to be granted E. B. Kauffman to build a 10 by 14 brick addition to his bakery, and on motion the permit was given.

The resignation of Ludwig Wetzel as engineer at the waterworks pumping station, to take effect May 1, 1902, was presented and read. The resignation was accepted on vote of the council. City Attorney Powers reported the insurance policy on the boilers at the waterworks pumping station as being all right. The policy was accepted and the premium of $90 was ordered paid.

The report of the city clerk for the month of March was read and referred to the auditing committee. S. L. Gardner and others presented a petition, signed by 43 business men of the city, requesting the council to take favorable action in the ordinance granting a franchise to the Madison County Telephone company which was read and filed.

Ordinance No. 266, granting a franchise to the Madison County Telephone company for the use of the streets and alleys of the city on constructing and maintaining its system, was read the third time and passed its final reading, the company being required to pay the cost of publishing such ordinance.

It was stated that the fire insurance on the city hall and pumping station would expire on May 1 and the clerk was instructed to place $1,000 of said insurance with C. C. Gow and the remainder to the best of his judgment.

A Valuable Mining Property.

The Omaha Copper Mining company was recently organized in Omaha under the laws of Wyoming. Capital $1,000,000 divided into 1,000,000 shares par value $1. The officers for the first year are as follows: President, W. E. Kinsella, president of the Kinsella Grain company; vice president, K. C. Morehouse, formerly general freight agent of the F. E. & M. V. railway; secretary, H. S. Daniel, attorney at law and formerly of Norfolk, Neb.; treasurer, R. E. Harris, wholesale coal dealer, and general manager, James H. Kyner of Encampment, Wyoming.

This company has purchased a mining property near Encampment in the new Grand Encampment district of Wyoming. The property consists of two claims, the Phoenix and Twentieth Century, comprised of twenty and two-thirds acres each. They are lode claims, located on an outcropping vein, upon which two shafts have been sunk. An assay of the ore taken from these shows it to be extremely rich in copper and gold, running twenty-one per cent copper and four dollars gold per ton. They will have easy access to the smelter, which has been recently built at Encampment. The company is now selling a limited amount of its stock for development purposes at a remarkable low figure. This stock is issued full paid and non-assessable and without further personal liability. Those purchasing at this time will procure their stock at the same price paid by the incorporators. The price of stock will be advanced May 1, to twice its present selling price. Observant investors have long noted that it is impossible to secure at a profitable figure an interest in any of the large copper mines. The price of the stock is so high that an investment means merely an ordinary return on the money invested; the big profits in the large copper mines have been made by the people who went in when the organization stock was selling, procuring their stock at a few cents on the dollar, and did not wait until the mine had been fully developed and the stock had gone to par. Some of the stockholders of the above company are Norfolk business men who will endorse the proposition as a valuable opportunity to make a profitable investment.

Persons wishing further information in regard to the property or price of shares, should write Omaha Mining Co., 1018 N. Y. L. building, Omaha, Nebr.

$2,000 Trundled Around Under a Hack Seat for Over a Week.

Norfolk, Neb., April 17.—I hereby acknowledge receipt of the sum of $2000.00 from Mr. F. W. Koerber, the same being payment in full of the beneficiary certificate held by my late husband, G. W. Wolfe, in the A. O. U. W., he being a member of Norfolk lodge, No. 97, at the time of his death.

MRS. G. W. WOLFE.
Mr. Wolfe became a member of the A. O. U. W. February 11 of this year, and just one month from that date his death was announced. The required proofs were sent to Grand Island, where on March 26 the grand trustees of the order approved the claim and ordered that a warrant be drawn in favor of Mrs. Wolfe. On April 9 the grand recorder mailed the warrant to F. W. Koerber, recorder of Norfolk lodge, and it would have been paid the next day if it had not met with a mishap. Mr. Koerber lives at South Norfolk and usually his mail is brought to him by one of the hackmen who make regular trips between the portions of the city. The hackman took this letter from the post-office all right, but on the trip down it slipped down under the seat box of his hack and by the time he had reached South Norfolk he had forgotten all about it. The coming of the letter was anxiously awaited by Mr. Koerber, and finally he wrote the grand recorder asking what had become of it. The reply that it had been sent a week ago started an investigation, which resulted in finding the missing letter as before stated under the seat box of the hack. The hackman became very much excited when he learned that probably he had lost a $2,000.00 warrant, and he threatened to tear his old hack to pieces but what he found it.

Even with this delay the money was turned over to Mrs. Wolfe in just two months from the time that her husband joined the A. O. U. W. Promptness is one of the characteristics of the Workmen, and a man who belongs to that order need have no fear but that his family will be taken care of should he be suddenly called away.
